The Isle Of Avalon Sacred Mysteries Of Arthur And Glastonbury:

Isle of Avalon Nicholas R. Mann, 1996 Isle of Avalon was written to restore the sense of the magical realm of the Otherworld to Western consciousness. It fully describes the physical and sacred topography of the British Isle of Avalon, pictured in beautiful photos as well as its symbols, architecture, history, mythology, and accounts of visitation. It also examines the implications of Avalon as an actual entrance to the Underworld.

The Isle of Avalon Nicholas R. Mann, 2008-05 Avalon is a site of great power, revered since ancient times as an entrance to and exit from the Otherworld. Book provides a coherent context in which to understand Avalon's many mysteries, including the Isle Tor, Glastonbury Zodiac, Abbey Tor, Labyrinth, St Michael's ley line. The author invokes the magical spiritual power of the English landscape with a wealth of detailed information encompassing other belief systems and sacred sites. He discusses Physical and sacred topography, Symbols, Architecture, History.

Sacred Space, Sacred Sound Susan Elizabeth Hale, 2013-11-01 Visionary singer Susan Hale believes that early peoples deliberately built their structures to enhance natural vibrations. She takes us around the globe from Stonehenge and New Grange to Gothic cathedrals and Tibetan stupas in New Mexico to explore the acoustics of sacred places. But she says you don't have to go to the Taj Mahal. The sacred is all around us and we are all sound chambers resonating with the One Song.

Memories of the Classical Underworld in Irish and Caribbean Literature Madeleine Scherer, 2021-09-20 Classical Memories is an intervention into the field of adaptation studies, taking the example of classical reception to show that adaptation is a process that can be driven by and produce intertextual memories. I see classical memories as a memory-driven type of adaptation that draws on and reproduces schematic and otherwise decontextualised conceptions of antiquity and its cultural exports in broadly speaking the twentieth and twenty-first centuries. These memory-driven adaptations differ often in significant ways from more traditional adaptations that seek to either continue or deconstruct a long-running tradition that can be traced back to antiquity as well as its canonical points of reception in later ages. When investigating such a popular and widespread set of narratives, characters, and images like those that remain of Graeco-Roman antiquity, terms like adaptation and reception could and should be nuanced further to allow us to understand the complex interactions between modern works and classical antiquity in more detail, particularly when it pertains to postcolonial or post-digital classical reception. In Classical Memories I propose that understanding certain types of adaptations as intertextual memories allows us to do just that.

Jan van Eyck and Portugal's 'Illustrious Generation' Barbara von Barghahn, 2013-12-31 This book investigates Jan Van Eyck's patronage by the Crown of Portugal and his role as diplomat, painter for the Duchy of Burgundy following his first voyage to Lisbon in 1428-1429 when he painted two portraits of Infanta Isabella who became the third wife of Philip the Good in 1430. New portrait identifications are provided for the Ghent Altarpiece 1432 and its iconographical prototype, the lost Fountain of Life. These altarpieces are analysed with regard to King Joao I's conquest of Ceuta achieved by his sons who were hailed as an illustrious generation Strong family ties between the dynastic houses of Avis and Lancaster explain Lusitania's sustained fascination with Arthurian lore and the Grail quest Several chapters of this book are overlaid with a chivalric veneer A second secret mission to Portugal in 1437 by Jan van Eyck is postulated and this diplomatic visit is related to Prince Henry the Navigator's expedition to Tangier and King Duarte's attempts to forge an alliance with Alfonso V of Aragon Late Eyckian commissions are reviewed in the light of this ill-fated crusade and additional new portraits are identified The most significant artist of Renaissance Flanders appears to have been patronized as much by the House of Avis as by the Duchy of Burgundy Barbara von Barghahn is Professor of Art History at George Washington University and a specialist in the art history of Portugal Spain and their colonial dominions as well as Flanders In 1993 she was conferred O Grao Comendador in the Portuguese Order of Prince Henry the Navigator She has spent nearly a decade completing research about Jan van Eyck's diplomatic visits to the Iberian Peninsula Through The Force of The Spirit Eric Mayo, 2015

This book will challenge long-held certainties and beliefs It tells of the origins evolutionary journey and eventual destiny of the spiritual energy that is found within all forms of life and throughout the cosmos How does that energy manifest within us and other life forms Does it survive the death of the mortal shell Is Gaia Theory correct and our planet is indeed a living entity Does our destiny lie beyond our solar system This book lays the foundation for a spiritual quest as it examines these ideas and leads the reader towards the goal of cosmic consciousness Reading these pages will energise your spiritual mind and enable you to walk towards the light of a true spiritual awakening Prem Rawat and Counterculture Ron

Geaves, 2019-12-12 Ron Geaves demonstrates how the convergence of Prem Rawat formerly known as Guru Maharaj Ji and Glastonbury Fayre in 1971 was a key event in understanding the jigsaw that came to be known as New Age spirituality The book charts the discovery of Prem Rawat in India in 1969 by a small number of British and North American hippies and explores how his arrival in Britain in June 1971 as well as his speech from the pyramid stage at the Fayre at just 13 years old escalated his activities to make him one of the key influencers of 1970s counterculture spirituality Both Glastonbury and Prem Rawat have gone on to re-emerge in significantly different identities to the ones presented in 1971 The meeting between the two demonstrates how alternative spiritualities were being formed in the 1960s and how some strands went on to develop into the New Age counterculture that eventually permeated mainstream cultures in Britain and the USA

Gillette, Thomas L. Sanders, 2024-10-01 At the point of the often contentious intersection of sacred site preservation and resource development archaeology has a unique and valuable role Archaeology has been criticized as a destroyer of sacred sites through the unbridled pursuit of knowledge through excavation or aiding unbridled development by failing to identify sacred sites However archaeology can act as a mitigator between the conflicting goals of preservation and development while giving the indigenous a voice At the heart of this mitigation is understanding the sacred how it might be physically manifested how those of diverse cultures understand it and how it is effected by the laws and norms of diverse cultures The purpose of this book is to enhance the discussion surrounding contemporary human interaction with our natural and cultural landscape Its first goal is make this discussion more productive and less contentious by presenting and thus recognizing the cultural ways of knowing and perspectives of indigenous people Its second goal is to foster the preservation of our scared landscape As more and more of our physical landscape is being altered worldwide through rapid growth and development the cultural landscape is also being changed and challenged These changes often reflect the interests of some members of society while the interests of others including those of Native and Indigenous communities and many archaeologists environmentalists and others who understand the importance of knowing the past are disregarded The latter group is dedicated toward preserving special places and continuing to provide for Native people the ability to celebrate their traditions and focusing on defining the sacred landscape
