The Johannine Problem In Regards To The Gospels:

The Gospel and Letters of John, Volume 1 Urban C. von Wahlde, 2010-11-22 Urban von Wahlde's radically new three volume commentary on the Gospel and Letters of John is the most detailed study of the composition of the Johannine literature ever put forth by an American scholar. Nearly all of the problems confronted by those who study John have to do with the literary strata of the Gospel of John and their relation to the composition of the Letters of John. With an archaeologist's precision and engaging a whole range of scholarly contributions in this area, von Wahlde digs down to the foundations and exposes three distinct literary strata in the development of the Johannine tradition. Volume 1 gives detailed evidence identifying and listing the criteria for each stratum. Volumes 2 and 3 apply those criteria to the Gospel and Letters of John respectively.

The Problem of Blasphemy: The Fourth Gospel and Early Jewish Understandings Jerry D. Truex, 2010-11-11 This doctoral thesis provides evidence that during the later part of the first century, certain Jewish Christians who produced and propagated the Fourth Gospel were perceived to be blasphemous and therefore cut off from the synagogue as reflected in John 9:22, 12:42, and 16:2. This study reviews recent research on blasphemy, offers analysis based on hundreds of ancient Jewish texts, and examines seven Jewish traditions pertaining to blasphemy, including cursing God, naming The Name, and sinning with a high hand. A composite portrait of blasphemy is sketched and compared with the theological claims of the Fourth Gospel. Three theological claims of the Fourth Gospel stand out as potentially blasphemous: Jesus is equal with God, Jesus and the Johannine Community constitute the New Temple, and Judean religious leaders are not of God. The perception of blasphemy and the inability to tolerate it explains why some Jewish Christians could not remain in the synagogue.

The Present Problems of New Testament Study William Bancroft Hill, 1903 Theology of the New Testament Georg Strecker, 2012-10-25 Contents are the theological conceptions of the authors of the New Testament considered from systematic viewpoints in the following sequence: Paul, the synoptics, Jesus, the saying source, the Johannine literature, including the Apocalypse of John, the deutero-Pauline writings, the catholic epistles.

The Gospels as Historical Documents ...:
The fourth Gospel. 1920 Vincent Henry Stanton, 1920 Anti-Judaism and the Gospels William R. Farmer, 1999-07-01 When and under what circumstances did the Gospel texts begin to serve anti-Jewish ends? Can it be said accurately and fairly that the evangelists were anti-Jewish? Are there tendencies in the Gospels that were originally intended by the evangelists to injure the Jewish people or their religion, or to work against the interests of the Jewish people and/or their religion? These and other issues were addressed in a three-year research project that culminated in a fall 1996 convocation at which five major research papers were presented with two respondents to each paper. The papers and responses are now made available for the first time in this volume. Major presentations include: Anti-Judaism and the Gospel of Matthew Amy Jill Levine, Anti-Judaism and the Gospel of Luke Daryl D. Schmidt, Anti-Judaism and the Gospel of John David Regensberger, Something Greater than the Temple Robert Louis Wilken, Anti-Judaism in the Critical Study of the Gospels Joseph B. Tyson, Reflections on

The Gospels as Historical Documents, Part III Vincent Henry Stanton, 2008-11-20 The Historical New Testament James Moffatt, 1901 The Best Books: Class A, Theology. B, Mythology and folklore. C, Philosophy. 1910 William Swan Sonnenschein, 1910 Class A, Theology. B, Mythology and folklore. C, Philosophy. 1910 William Swan Sonnenschein, 1910 The Hermeneutical Spirit Amos Yong, 2017-11-06 In the contemporary biblical studies climate proposals regarding the theological interpretation of Scripture are contested particularly but not only because they privilege encourage and foster ecclesial or other forms of normative commitments as part and parcel of the hermeneutical horizon through which scriptural texts are read and understood Within this context confessional approaches have been emerging including some from within the nascent pentecostal theological tradition This volume builds on the author's previous work in theological method to suggest a pentecostal perspective on theological interpretation that is rooted in the conviction that all Christian reading of sacred Scripture is post Pentecost meaning after the Day of Pentecost outpouring of the Spirit on all flesh in anticipation of the coming reign of God In that respect such a pentecostal interpretative perspective is not parochially for those within the modern day movement bearing that name but is arguably apostolic in following after the scriptural imagination of the earliest disciples of Jesus the messiah and therefore has ecumenical and missional purchase across space and time The Hermeneutical Spirit thus provides close readings of various texts across the scriptural canon as a model for Christian theological interpretation of Scripture suitable for the twenty first century global context

Invisible Father Louis Bouyer, 1999-03-01 Published for the first time in English for the Year of the Father Louis Bouyer's magisterial summa explores the religious experience of humanity and traces the paths of God's self revelation as Father culminating in the Incarnation of his Son and the interpretations this has received in the history of the Church Ranging from myth and magic to depth psychology and sociology the book is a tour de force of Christian reflection and scholarship It culminates in a new interpretation of the mysteries of Israel and Islam and of the rise and fall of Western theology that set the scene for modern idealism and atheism

Engaging with C. H. Dodd on the Gospel of John Tom Thatcher, Catrin Williams, 2013-08-15 C H Dodd's Historical Tradition in the Fourth Gospel published in 1963 marked a milestone in New Testament research and has become a standard resource for the study of John Historically biblical scholars have concentrated on the Synoptic Gospels Matthew Mark and Luke However Dodd's book encouraged scholars to take John seriously as a source for the life of Jesus This volume both reflects upon and looks beyond Dodd's writings to address the implications limitations and potential of his groundbreaking research and its programmatic approach to charting a course for future research on the Gospel of John Leading biblical scholars demonstrate the recent surge of interest in John s distinctive witness to Jesus and also in Dodd s work as the harbinger of advancements in the study of the Fourth Gospel This volume will be invaluable to all those studying the New Testament Johannine theology and the history of the early Church
