Hodges, 2014-02-01 Drawing on previously unknown or unassimilated sources Donald C Hodges here presents an entirely new interpretation of the politics and philosophy of Augusto C Sandino the intellectual progenitor of Nicaragua s Sandinista revolution The first part of the book investigates the political sources of Sandino s thought in the works of Babeuf Buonarroti Blanqui Proudhon Bakunin Most Malatesta Kropotkin Ricardo Flores Mag n and Lenin a mixed legacy of pre Marxist and non Marxist authoritarian and libertarian communists The second half of the study scrutinizes the philosophy of nature and history that Sandino made his own Hodges delves deeply into this philosophy as the supreme and final expression of Sandino s communism and traces its sources in the

Gnostic and millenarian occult undergrounds This results in a rich study of the ways in which Sandino's revolutionary communism and communist spirituality intersect a spiritual politics that Hodges presents as more realistic than the communism of Karl Marx While accepting the current wisdom that Sandino was a Nicaraguan liberal and social reformer Hodges also makes a persuasive case that Sandino was first and foremost a communist although neither of the Marxist nor anarchist variety He argues that Sandino's eclectic communist spirituality was more of an asset than a liability for understanding the human condition and that his spiritual politics promises to be more relevant than Marxism Leninism for the twenty first century Indeed Hodges believes that Sandino's holistic communism embraces both deep ecology and feminist spirituality a finding that is sure to generate lively and productive debate

The Secret Initiation of Jesus at Qumran Robert Feather, 2005-07-28 An examination of the early mysterious Essene community at Qumran that links it with John the Baptist Jesus and the beginnings of Christianity Offers an eyewitness account of the final burial place of John the Baptist Makes the case that Christianity grew out of a form of monotheism first formulated by the Egyptian pharaoh Akhenaten Includes physical and photographic evidence never before published In his earlier book The Mystery of the Copper Scroll of Qumran Robert Feather analyzed the Dead Sea Scroll engraved on copper that is considered the work of the secretive devout Jewish sect known as the Essenes who lived at Qumran around the time of Jesus To continue his research into the Essene community's way of life and how its beliefs may have influenced the beginnings of Christianity he met with Father Jozef Milik one of the scholars who worked on deciphering the Dead Sea Scrolls in the 1950s Feather learned that during Milik's work somewhere near the Qumran ruins he had excavated a headless corpse that he believed to be that of John the Baptist Feather presents persuasive powerful evidence illustrating the strong link between the Qumran Essenes and New Testament teachings and showing that both John the Baptist and Jesus were intimately involved with this community at Qumran He further supports the claim that early Christians continued a belief system centered on a form of monotheism first formulated by the Egyptian pharaoh Akhenaten and uniquely espoused by the Essenes at Qumran
