A thoroughly revised and expanded edition of this classic work to complete John McIntyre's trilogy in Christian doctrine: soteriology, pneumatology, and Christology. McIntyre analyses the three classic christological formulations: the two nature model with divine and human natures uniting in Jesus Christ; the psychological model derived from the Chalcedonian understanding of the humanity of Christ; and from a strong devotional desire to know his mind and the revelation model which has dominated western Christology for most of the twentieth century.

Hugh Ross Mackintosh, 1912 History of the Development of the Doctrine of the Person of Christ Isaak August Dorner, Issac August Dorner, 1890 History of the development of the doctrine of the person of Christ, tr. by W.L. Alexander and D.W. Simon. Division 1. 2 vols.; Division 2. 3 vols. Isaak August Dorner, 1869 Person and Work of Christ: Understanding Jesus A T B McGowan, 2012-07-01. An exciting and challenging reflection on the person and work of Christ through the history of the doctrine with application to today's Christians in today's world. This book is a fresh and exciting exercise in historical theology. McGowan examines the gradual development over centuries of the church's understanding of the person and work of Jesus Christ, assessed in the light of what the Scriptures have to say on the subject. The book highlights the developing understanding together with the mistakes and heresies that forced the church into defining the truth about Christ more clearly. The great debates are examined with unique insight and sensitivity, and the debate is brought right up to the present day with application for the contemporary church.
