The Doctrine on Which the Church Stands or Falls (Foreword by D. A. Carson) Matthew Barrett, 2019-03-14 Many factors contributed to the Protestant Reformation but one of the most significant was the debate over the doctrine of justification by faith alone In fact Martin Luther argued that justification is the doctrine on which the church stands or falls This comprehensive volume of 26 essays from a host of scholars explores the doctrine of justification from the lenses of history the Bible theology and pastoral practice revealing the enduring significance of this pillar of Protestant theology      Researching the English Reformation ,2025-10-30 Researching the English Reformation studies the history and historiography of early Anglicanism in order to pay tribute to the scholarship of W Brown Patterson Three of the volume s sections are inspired by Patterson s research monographs The first taking its cue from Patterson s study of Thomas Fuller analyses the intersection of mythology and historiography surrounding the English Reformation The second following Patterson s study of William Perkins turns to the general theological and political contours of early modern England The third pans out in both geography and chronology thus emulating Patterson s award winning study of King James VI and I The fourth and final section analyses how in the nineteenth century the early modern period was reinvented by the Parker Society and the Oxford Movement Contributors are Benjamin M Guyer William E Engel George Core George Poe Diarmaid MacCulloch Anthony Milton James Ross MacDonald Scott Kindred Barnes Paul Dominiak David Neelands John N Wall Torrance Kirby Margo Todd Nicholas Tyacke Lori Anne Ferrell and Peter Nockles

Reformation and Early Modern Europe David M. Whitford,2007-11-01 Continuing the tradition of historiographic studies this volume provides an update on research in Reformation and early modern Europe Written by expert scholars in the field these eighteen essays explore the fundamental points of Reformation and early modern history in religious studies European regional studies and social and cultural studies Authors review the present state of research in the field new trends key issues scholars are working with and fundamental works in their subject area including the wide range of electronic resources now available to researchers Reformation and Early Modern Europe A Guide to Research is a valuable resource for students and scholars of early modern Europe      From Rome to Zurich, between Ignatius and Vermigli ,2017-02-20 From Rome to Zurich between Ignatius and Vermigli brings notable scholars from the fields of Reformation and Early Modern studies to honor their friend mentor and colleague John Patrick Donnelly with essays commensurate with his own broad interests and scholarship Touching Protestant scholasticism Reformation era life writing Reformation polemics both Protestant and Catholic and with several on theology proper inter alia the essays collected here by a group of international scholars break new ground in Reformation history thought and theology providing fresh insights into current scholarship in both Reformation and Catholic Reformation studies The essays take in the broad scope of the 16th century from Thomas More to Martin Bucer and from Thomas Stapleton to Peter Martyr Vermigli Contributors include Emidio Campi Maryanne Cline Horowitz A Lynn Martin Thomas McCoog SJ Joseph McLelland Richard A Muller Eric Parker Robert Scully SJ and Jason Zuidema      The Sign of the Gospel W. Travis McMaken,2013-08-01 The theology of the sacraments is one of the most contested parts in Barth s theology none more so than the doctrine of baptism Barth s proposals on baptism have generated intense conversation and disagreement not only on its application to Protestant and ecumenical theology but even on its own consistency with Barth s larger dogmatic project McMaken takes up this controversial question sets it in its proper context within the history of doctrine and Barth s systematic work and argues for a constructive reclamation of infant baptism that accords with Barth's overarching theological concerns and insights notably from Barth's mature theological commitments. Pivotal to this volume is the claim that a reorientation of the doctrine of baptism opens up a new perspective on the practice of infant baptism on the basis of Barth's theology. This new perspective as well holds the potential for wide ecumenical application as a form of the proclamation of the gospel and a vital dimension of the church's missional vocation. A commanding volume for scholars and students in systematic theology, ecumenical studies and sacramental theology.
