The Plains Of Promise:

The Plains of Promise Kerry Allyn, 1979-01-01 Plains of Promise Alexis Wright, 1997 In this brilliant debut novel Alexis Wright evokes city and outback deepening our understanding of human ambition and failure and making the timeless heart and soul of this country pulsate on the page Black and white cultures collide in a thousand ways as Aboriginal spirituality clashes with the complex brutality of colonisation at St Dominic's mission With her political awareness raised by work with the city based Aboriginal Coalition Mary visits the old mission in the northern Gulf country place of her mother's and grand mother's suffering Mary's return re-ignites community anxieties and the Council of Elders again turn to their spirit world

The Land of Promise John Stephens, 1839 , The Land of promise , 1839 Convegno celebrativo del centenario della nascita di Mauro Picone e di Leonida Tonelli (Roma, 6-9 maggio 1985). , 1906 The Land of Promise John Stephens, 1962 The Broken Promise of Agricultural Progress Cameron Muir, 2014-06-05 Food and the global agricultural system has become one of the defining public concerns of the twenty first century Ecological disorder and inequity is at the heart of our food system This thoughtful and confronting book tells the story of how the development of modern agriculture promised ecological and social stability but instead descended into dysfunction Contributing to knowledge in environmental cultural and agricultural histories it explores how people have tried to live in the aftermath of ecological imperialism The Broken Promise of Agricultural Progress An environmental history journeys to the dry inland plains of Australia where European ideas and agricultural technologies clashed with a volatile and taunting country that resisted attempts to subdue and transform it for the supply of global markets Its wide ranging narrative puts gritty local detail in its global context to tell the story of how cultural anxieties about civilisation population and race shaped agriculture in the twentieth century It ranges from isolated experiment farms to nutrition science at the League of Nations from local landholders to high profile moral crusaders including an Australian apricot grower who met Franklin D Roosevelt and almost fed the world This book will be useful to undergraduates and postgraduates on courses examining international comparisons of nineteenth and twentieth century agriculture and courses studying colonial development and settler societies It will also appeal to food concerned general readers
