Call of Classical Literature in the Romantic Age K. P. Van Anglen, 2018-10-31 Examines the role that cinema played in imagining Hong Kong and Taiwan's place in the world

Ten Neglected Classics of Philosophy Eric Schliesser, 2017 What makes for a philosophical classic? Why do some philosophical works persist over time while others do not? The philosophical canon and diversity are topics of major debate today. This stimulating volume contains ten new essays by accomplished philosophers writing passionately about works in the history of philosophy that they feel were unjustly neglected or ignored and why they deserve greater attention. The essays cover lesser-known works by famous thinkers as well as works that were once famous but now only faintly remembered. Works examined include Gorgias' Encomium of Helen, Jane Adams' Women and Public Housekeeping, W. E. B. DuBois' Whither Now, and Why, Edith Stein's On the Problem of Empathy, Jonathan Bennett's Rationality, and more. While each chapter is an expression of engagement with an individual work, the volume as a whole and Eric Schliesser's introduction specifically address timely questions about the nature of philosophy, disciplinary contours, and the vagaries of canon formation.

Aesthetics from Classical Greece to the Present Monroe C. Beardsley,1975-10-30 Seeks to bring present day philosophy principles into the history of aesthetics Before the publication of Aesthetics from Classical Greece to the Present there were three histories of aesthetics in English Bosanquet s pioneering work the second part of Croce s Aesthetic in the Ainslie translation and the comprehensive volume by Gilbert and Kuhn While each of these is interesting in its own ways and together they cover a good deal of ground none of them is very new Thus none could take advantage of recent work on many important philosophers and periods and bring into a consideration of the past the best concepts and principles that have been developed by present day philosophy
