Amid much unbridled controversy on matters intrinsically trivial it is at least a hopeful sign in the religious outlook of to day that the thoughtful of every school seem more than ever disposed to turn for guidance and relief to a study of the Mind of Christ And surely the Master s Message is for all To the disciples of Reason it is He Who cries Which of you convicteth Me of sin If I say Truth why do ye not believe Me To the bewildered seekers after Authority it is He Who declares Heaven and earth shall pass away but My words shall not pass away And this the most astounding claim imaginable on the lips of an outcast Teacher the Centuries have justified so justified one would have thought as clearly to indicate even to bewildered seekers the true seat of Authority in matters of Religion Among the authoritative and reason compelling Words of Jesus Christ however some undoubtedly cause trouble to thinking minds Appearing on a shallow acquaintance either impracticable or reasonless they not only fail of authority but sow the seeds of doubt The object therefore of this book is the lessening of such perplexities by setting forth the principles which seem to elucidate the Teaching of the Master It is an attempt to construe the meaning of some of the more striking of Christ s hard sayings Others here untouched might no doubt easily be cited But the aim of the writer has not been to exhaust the verbal difficulties in the recorded utterances of our Lord He has rather sought to examine the Master s method and to illustrate its underlying principles by a number of examples perhaps sufficient to enable the reader to apply those principles in solving other problems for himself
