The Invisible God Paul Corby Finney, 1994 This revisionist study challenges the received opinion that in its earliest manifestations Christianity was a form of religiosity opposed both on principle and in fact to the use of pictures Paul Corby Finney argues that the well known absence of Christian pictures before A D 200 is due to a complex interplay of social economic and political factors and is not as is commonly assumed a result of an anti image ideology The book documents the origins of Christian art based on some of the oldest surviving Christian archaeological evidence and it seeks to show how the Christian products conformed to the already existing pagan types and models This study will interest scholars and students in the fields of church history ancient history archaeology art history classics and historical theology The invisible God Paul C. Finney, 1994 The Invisible God Paul Corby Finney, 1994-08-04 This revisionist study challenges the received opinion that in its earliest manifestations Christianity was a form of religiosity opposed both on principle and in fact to the use of pictures Paul Corby Finney argues that the well known absence of Christian pictures before A D 200 is due to a complex interplay of social economic and political factors and is not as is commonly assumed a result of an anti image ideology The book documents the origins of Christian art based on some of the oldest surviving Christian archaeological evidence and it seeks to show how the Christian products conformed to the already existing pagan types and models This study will interest scholars and students in the fields of church history ancient history archaeology art history classics and historical theology

The Invisible God Paul Corby Finney, 1994 They began to draw visible boundaries and commenced the complicated process of endowing their communities with the marks of ethnic and cultural distinction The Oxford Handbook of Early Christian Studies Susan Ashbrook Harvey, David G. Hunter, 2008-09-04 Provides an introduction to the academic study of early Christianity c 100 600 AD and examines the vast geographical area impacted by the early church in Western and Eastern late antiquity from publisher description The Grove Encyclopedia of Medieval Art and Architecture Colum Hourihane, 2012 This volume offers unparalleled coverage of all aspects of art and architecture from medieval Western Europe from the 6th century to the early 16th century Drawing upon the expansive scholarship in the celebrated Grove Dictionary of Art and adding hundreds of new entries it offers students researchers and the general public a reliable up to date and convenient resource covering this field of major importance in the development of Western history and international art and architecture Text, Image, and Christians in the Graeco-Roman World Aliou Cissé Niang, Carolyn Osiek, 2011-11-03 Twenty four scholars join their efforts to congratulate David Lee Balch for a long career of dedication to scholarship and teaching Topics range from the life of early Christian house churches to the kinds of challenges that early Christians needed to negotiate in their artistic and literary worlds as they established their own identity Contributors Edward Adams Frederick E Brenk Warren Carter John R Clarke Everett Ferguson John T Fitzgerald Richard A Freund Ronald F Hock Robin M Jensen Davina C Lopez Margaret Y MacDonald Abraham J Malherbe Aliou Cisse Niang Peter Oakes Todd Penner Leo G Perdue Turid

Karlsen Seim Dennis E Smith Yancy W Smith Stephen V Sprinkle Hal Taussig Oliver Larry Yarbrough The Embodied God Brittany E. Wilson, 2021 In The Embodied God Wilson focuses on depictions of God's body in the New Testament She argues that Luke Acts emerges as an important example of a New Testament text that portrays God as visible and corporeal and that this portrayal has significant implications for how we are to understand early Christology Cambridge History of Christianity: Volume 1, Origins to Constantine Margaret M. Mitchell, Frances M. Young, K. Scott Bowie, Face to Face Robin Margaret Jensen, Examining how God and eventually Christ are portrayed in early Christian art Jensen explores questions of the relationship between art and theology conflicts over idolatry and iconography and how the Christological controversies affected the portrayals of Christ Since much of this art comes from ancient Rome she places her analysis in the context of the history of Roman portraiture One hundred photographs enhance the discussion Christ the Miracle Worker in Early Christian Art Lee M. Jefferson, 2014-01-01 Artistic representations were of significant value to early Christian communities In Christ the Miracle Worker in Early Christian Art Lee Jefferson argues that images provided visual representations of vital religious and theological truths crucial to the faithful and projected concepts beyond the limitations of the written and spoken word Images of Christ performing miracles or healings functioned as advertisements for Christianity and illustrated the nature of Christ Using these images of Christ Jefferson examines the power of art its role in fostering devotion and the deep connection between art and its elucidation of pivotal theological claims God and Gold in Late Antiquity Dominic Janes, 1998-02-19 From the conversion of the emperor Constantine in the early fourth century vast sums of money were spent on the building and sumptuous decoration of churches The resulting works of art contain many of the greatest monuments of late antique and early medieval society But how did such expenditure fit with Christ's message of poverty and simplicity In attempting to answer that question this 1998 study employs theories on the use of metaphor to show how physical beauty could stand for spiritual excellence As well as explaining the evolving attitudes to sanctity decorum and display in Roman and medieval society detailed analysis is made of case studies of Latin biblical exegesis and gold ground mosaics so as to counterpoint the contemporary use of gold as a Christian image in art and text Imperial Rome and Christian Triumph Jas Elsner, 1998 Western culture saw some of the most significant and innovative developments take place during the passage from antiquity to the middle ages This stimulating new book investigates the role of the visual arts as both reflections and agents of those changes It tackles two inter related periods of internal transformation within the Roman Empire the phenomenon known as the Second Sophistic c ad 100-300 two centuries of self conscious and enthusiastic hellenism and the era of late antiquity c ad 250-450 when the empire underwent a religious conversion to Christianity Vases murals statues and masonry are explored in relation to such issues as power death society acculturation and religion By examining questions of reception viewing and the culture of spectacle alongside the more traditional art historical themes of imperial patronage and stylistic change Jas Elsner presents a fresh and challenging account of an extraordinarily rich cultural crucible in which many fundamental developments of later European art had their origins a highly individual work wonderful visual and comparative analysis I can think of no other general book on Roman art that deals so elegantly and informatively with the theme of visibility and visual desire Professor Natalie Boymel Kampen Barnard College New York exciting and original a vibrant impression of creative energy and innovation held in constant tension by the persistence of more traditional motifs and techniques Elsner constantly surprises and intrigues the reader by approaching familiar material in new ways Professor Averil Cameron Keble College Oxford

Alien Sex Gerard Loughlin, 2008-04-15 Gerard Loughlin is one of the leading theologians working at the interface between religion and contemporary culture In this exceptional work he uses cinema and the films it shows to think about the church and the visions of desire it displays Discusses various films including the Alien quartet Christopher Nolan's Memento Stanley Kubrick's 2001 A Space Odyssey and A Clockwork Orange Nicolas Roeg's The Man Who Fell to Earth and Derek Jarman's The Garden Draws on a wide range of authors both ancient and modern religious and secular from Plato to Levinas from Karl Barth and Hans Urs von Balthasar to Andr  Bazin and Leo Bersani Uses cinema to think about the church as an ecclesiastical cinema and films to think about sexual desire as erotic dispossession as a way into the life of God Written from a radically orthodox Christian perspective at once both Catholic and critical

Early Christians Speak, Vol. 1 3rd Ed. Everett Ferguson, 1999-11-01 These studies in early church history cover various aspects of the church life of early Christians They focus on the second century What did the second century Christian leaders say about faith baptism infant baptism worship services the Lord's Supper prayer singing church organization mercy and the role of women New Testament texts bearing on the topic are listed at the beginning of each chapter We are talking about the same community of people the same church as existed in the New Testament Such writings have an important bearing on the interpretation of the Scriptures

The Path of Christianity John Anthony McGuckin, 2017-05-16 John McGuckin a world renowned expert on ancient Christianity has synthesized a lifetime of work to produce the most comprehensive and accessible history of the first millennium of the Christian church This readable account explores the history in chronological order and then examines the same period thematically looking at issues like women war and the Bible

Rhetorical Invention and Religious Inquiry Walter Jost, Wendy Olmsted, 2000-01-01 This exceptional collection of writings offers for the first time a discussion among leading thinkers about the points at which rhetoric and religion illuminate and challenge each other The contributors to the volume are eminent theorists and critics in rhetoric theology and religion and they address a variety of problems and periods Together these writings shed light on religion as a human quest and rhetoric as the origin and sustainer of that quest They show that when pursued with intelligence and sensitivity rhetorical approaches to religion are capable of revitalizing both language and experience Rhetorical figures for example constitute forms of language that say what cannot be said in any other way and that move individuals toward religious truths that cannot be known in any other way When firmly placed within religious social and literary history the convergence of rhetoric and religion brings into focus crucial issues in several fields including philosophy psychology history and art and interprets relations among self language and world that are central to both past and present cultures

The Gospel according to Heretics David E. Wilhite, 2015-10-13 Since what Christian doctrine denies can be as important as what it affirms it is important to understand teachings about Jesus that the early church rejected Historians now acknowledge that proponents of alternative teachings were not so much malicious malcontents as they were misguided or even misunderstood Here a recognized expert in early Christian theology teaches orthodox Christology by explaining the false starts heresies making the history of theology relevant for today's church This engaging introduction to the christological heresies is suitable for beginning students In addition pastors and laypeople will find it useful for apologetic purposes

The Early Christian Centuries Philip Rousseau, 2014-06-06 Charting the first six hundred years of the Christian movement THE EARLY CHRISTIAN CENTURIES carries the reader from the world of second temple Judaism to the Byzantine age the rise of Islam and the beginnings of medieval European polities With a combination of rare tact and acuity Philip Rousseau takes the measure of a generation of scholarship on early Christianity and the late Roman world He stresses the importance of shifting historical consciousness the continuity and development of ideas and the urge for social respectability Paying the greatest attention to the inner components of Christian life the resulting story captures fully the major figures Paul the gospel writers the early apologists and the great figures of the patristic age including the Cappadocian Fathers Augustine and Gregory the Great

God Visible Brian E. Daley, 2018-01-19 God Visible Patristic Christology Reconsidered considers the early development and reception of what is today the most widely professed Christian conception of Christ The development of this doctrine admits of wide variations in expression understanding and interpretation that are as striking in authors of the first millennium as they are among modern writers The seven early ecumenical councils and their dogmatic formulations were crucial facilitators in defining the shape of this study Focusing primarily on the declaration of the Council of Chalcedon in AD 451 Brian E Daley argues that previous assessments that Christ was one Person in two natures the Divine of the same substance as the Father and the human of the same substance as us can sometimes be excessively narrow even distorting our understanding of Christ's person Daley urges us to look beyond the Chalcedonian formula alone and to consider what some major Church Fathers from Irenaeus to John Damascene say about the person of Christ
