both how media structure public spheres and how people use media to participate in the public sphere Media, Structures, and Power Edward A. Comor, 2011-10-30 Media Structures and Power is a collection of the scholarly writing of Canada's leading communication and media studies scholar Robert E. Babe. Spanning almost four decades of scholarship, the volume reflects the breadth of Babe's work from media and economics to communications history and political economy. Babe famously characterized Canadian scholars' distinctive contribution to knowledge as uniquely historical, holistic, and dialectical. The essays in Media Structures and Power reflect this particular strength. With a clarity of vision, Babe critiques mainstream economics, Canadian government policy, and postmodernist thought in social science. Containing introductions and contributions by other prominent scholars, this volume situates Babe's work within contemporary scholarship and underscores the extent to which he is one of Canada's most prescient thinkers. His interdisciplinary analyses will remain timely and influential well into the twenty-first century.
