Flaming Embers Nela Bureu Ramos, 2010 Desire in the broadest sense as a form of generous self assertion should ideally increase with the passage of time as we gradually acquire deeper insight into ourselves and others Prescriptive cultural stereotypes however put obstacles on our path to progress as individuation Yet growing older should not entail renunciation of the singularity of personal fulfilment This volume is a collection of literary testimonies to the power of art to challenge and resist the social constraints on desire in the context of aging In the essays men and women claim their right to age in desire and imaginative vigour

Transatlantic Renaissances Kathryn Stelmach Artuso, 2012-12-07 The impulses that fired the Southern Literary Renaissance echoed the impetus behind the Irish Literary Revival at the turn of the twentieth century when Ireland sought to demonstrate its cultural equality with any European nation and disentangle itself from English imposed stereotypes Seeking to prove that the South was indeed the cultural equal of greater America despite the harsh realities of political defeat economic scarcity and racial strife Southern writers embarked on a career to re imagine the American South and to re invent literary criticism Transatlantic Renaissances Literature of Ireland and the American South traces the influence of the Irish Revival upon the Southern Renaissance exploring how the latter looked to the former for guidance artistic innovation and models for self invention and regional renovation While Deleuze and Guattari's model for minor literature refers to minority or regional authors who work within a major language for purposes of subversion Artuso modifies their term along generic and thematic lines to refer to errant female juveniles within subsidiary genres whose nonconformist development threatens to disrupt the dominant patriarchal culture of a region or nation Using the themes of initiation and maturation to anchor the book Artuso analyzes how the volatile development of young women in revivalist texts often reflects or questions larger growth pangs and patterns including the evolution of the literary revival itself and the development of a regional minority group that must work within a dominant culture language and nation while seeking methods of subversion With minor literature as the container for undervalued genres such as popular fiction and short stories often considered an author's juvenilia this work investigates not only how these texts challenge the authoritative claims of the novel but also scrutinizes the renaissance trope of female rebirth as the revivalists often figured cultural national or regional regeneration through the metamorphoses or maturation of female protagonists such as Cathleen n Houlihan Scarlett O Hara and Virgie Rainey Drawing upon New Historical New Critical and postcolonial approaches Artuso examines works by Lady Gregory Margaret Mitchell Eudora Welty Elizabeth Bowen Jean Toomer and James Joyce of the Magdalen Laundries Miriam Haughton, Mary McAuliffe, Emilie Pine, 2021-11-23 This collection raises incisive questions about the links between the postcolonial carceral system which thrived in Ireland after 1922 and larger questions of gender sexuality identity class race and religion This kind of intersectional history is vital not only in looking back but in looking forward to identify the ways in which structural callousness still marks Irish society Essays include historical analysis of the ways in which women and children were incarcerated in residential institutions Ireland's Direct Provision system the policing of female bodily autonomy through legislation on prostitution and abortion in addition to the legacies of the Magdalen laundries This collection also considers how artistic practice and commemoration have acted as vital interventions in social attitudes and public knowledge helping to create knowledge and re shape social attitudes towards this history
