interruption a phrase she wrote in description of Virginia Woolf's essays and reviews an important record of her literary standards and special interests They show as well how book reviewing consumed a large measure of creative time that she customarily devoted to fiction writing Placed beside her authoritative critical essays this volume enhances Welty's considerable literary stature and completes the image of Eudora Welty as a consummate woman of letters The Modern Library Carmen Callil, Colm Toibin, 2011-06-30 For Colm Toibin and Carmen Callil there is no difference between literary and commercial writing there is only the good novel engrossing inspirational compelling In their selection of the best 200 novels written since 1950 the editors make a case for the best and the best loved works and argue why each should be considered a modern classic Enlightening often unexpected and always engaging this tour through the world of fiction is full of surprises forgotten masterpieces and a valuable guide to what to read next Authors in the collection include Agatha Christie Georgette Heyer Daphne du Maurier Patrick Hamilton Carson McCullers J D Salinger Bernard Malamud Flannery O'Connor Mulk Raj Anand Raymond Chandler L P Hartley Amos Tutuola Sylvia Townsend Warner Samuel Beckett Patricia Highsmith Chinua Achebe Isak Dinesen Alan Sillitoe Ivy Compton Burnett Grace Paley Harper Lee Olivia Manning and Mordecai Richler

Grand Finales Susan Gubar, 2025-06-10 One of our most formidable literary critics explores how nine women artists flourished creatively in their final acts In 2008 academic and scholar Susan Gubar was told by a trusted oncologist that she had only a few years left to live Though she outlived that dire prognosis this brush with mortality refocused her attention on the boons of a longevity she did not expect to experience She began to think In the last years of our lives can we shape and change our creative capabilities The resulting volume Grand Finales answers this question with a resounding yes Despite the losses generally associated with aging quite a few writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers have managed to extend and repurpose their creative energies Gubar spotlights very creative old ladies writers painters sculptors musicians and dancers from the past and in our times Each of Grand Finales nine riveting chapters features women artists George Eliot Colette Georgia O'Keeffe Isak Dinesen Marianne Moore Louise Bourgeois Mary Lou Williams Gwendolyn Brooks and Katherine Dunham who transformed the last stage of existence into a rousing conclusion Gubar draws on their late lives and works to suggest that seniority can become a time of reinvention and renewal With pizzazz bravado and geezer machismo she counters the discrediting of elderly women and clarifies the environments relationships activities and attitudes that sponsor a creative old age Last Tales Isak Dinesen, 2011-04-27 Last Tales is a collection of twelve of the last tales that Isak Dinesen wrote before her death in 1962 They include seven tales from Albondocani a projected novel that was never completed The Caryatids an unfinished Gothic tale of a couple bedeviled by an old letter and a gypsy's spell and three tales of winter including Converse at Night in Copenhagen a drunken all night conversation between a boy king a prostitute and a poor young poet Africa Unveiled: A Comprehensive Quiz Collection Etienne Noumen, 2022-11-10 Welcome to TOP 1000 AFRICA QUIZ and TRIVIA In this book you'll have the opportunity to test your knowledge of Africa a vast and diverse classically adroit in its formal wit and invention altogether unique yet in no way excluding this meticulously edited edition of a master poet's collected works gives us the defining bridge from the New American Poetry of the 50s to that poetry now contemporary on both coasts and in all conditions No one ever recognized the people with whom he lived more particularly than did Ted Berrigan and no one ever brought them home to a reader with such unaggressive and persistent power This is a great great book for all seasons of the mind and heart Robert Creeley Ted Berrigan was a leader of the New York School his crazy energy embodied that movement and the city itself It is wonderful to have his Collected Poems in print John Ashbery A comprehensive and carefully chronicled volume that puts Ted Berrigan in historical context as one of the most influential poets of his generation His poems deft light definitely humorous irreverent poignant marvelous and tough The truth doing its work the great man doing the ordinary thing with a quick ear and a quick tongue revealing the personal in the universal He gives you his full attention about to be born again thinking of you Joanne Kyger In a life devoted to experimental art Ted Berrigan shaped his poetry and the space he occupied with a bold artistry based on his playful but powerfully skeptical view of the world He wondered what might actually be captured within the pages of a book but The Collected Poems allows us to again enjoy Ted Berrigan's delightfully demanding presence Lorenzo Thomas A singular balance of personal historical vision and sentiment both sweet and sour developed within the fractured verbalism of the late twentieth century found lyric creates in Ted Berrigan's poems the unique colors of a particularly lived and still intensely living ensemble of moments Tom Clark author of Late Returns A Memoir of Ted Berrigan Some people are just more real than others I don't know another way to say it Ted Berrigan is totally real and he has fashioned an important sound for all of us to listen to He put it all together just before everyone else in his time our time got going America is lucky to count him as one of its great poets Peter Gizzi

Carnival Isak Dinesen, 1979-10-15 Carnival is an animated collection of works from every stage of Isak Dinesen's career Many were written during her most creative years but set aside others she wrote just for entertainment The collection includes Second Meeting her last work and the title story the first written under her now famous pen name None of these stories has previously appeared in book form in English Three of them were translated especially for this collection by P M Mitchell and W D Paden The editors have included only material that will stand easily with her more familiar work and satisfy her large following The rough drafts and variant treatments have been set aside for scholars Joseph McLellan Washington Post The wit the imagination the elevated philosophical dialogue mark most of the stories in this volume as vintage Dinesen of special interest to Dinesen fans Robert Langbaum New York Times Book Review      The Collected Poems of Frank

O'Hara Frank O'Hara,1995-03-31 Available for the first time in paperback The Collected Poems of Frank O Hara reflects the poet s growth as an artist from the earliest dazzling experimental verses that he began writing in the late 1940s to the years before his accidental death at forty when his poems became increasingly individual and reflective The Art of the Tale

Daniel Halpern,1987-11-03 Eighty one masterpieces by the world s best writers a surprising irresistible collection of short stories from around the world Aino Kallas Leena Kurvet-Käösaar,Lea Rojola,2011-07-12 The collection first one ever on Aino Kallas in English highlights her significance to the artistic and intellectual horizons of modernity of Finland and Estonia as well as those of Scandinavia and Europe In the 1920s and 30s Aino Kallas became an internationally renowned author and a selection of her work was translated into English For her participating in the immediate cultural debates in Estonia and Finland was a priority yet her whole oeuvre is a negotiation between her more immediate contexts and the leading conceptual frameworks of aesthetics geniality knowledge subjectivity race sexuality nature etc circling in Europe at the end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th century Containing articles focusing on the question of female voice and echoes of feminist ecological thought in her fiction a contrapuntal reading of her fiction and that of Isak Dinesen her unknown manuscript Bathseba the implications of existentialist thought for her work Kallas engagement in her cultural criticism and life writings with decadent modernism issues of race and heredity subjectivity and borders travel ageing her interpretation of Goethe and the iconography of Kallas the collection features the work of today s leading Aino Kallas scholars in Finland and in Estonia Collected Poems of Howes (p) ,1995 Finalist 1995 National Book Award This collection fills in a missing chapter in the history of American women s poetry by bringing a significant voice back into print Barbara Howes has perfected a personal style that had little to do with the fashionable currents of her time Dana Gioia has said of her O ne sees Howes very clearly as a woman writing in one of the oddest but most important traditions of American poetry She stands with Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop and ultimately Emily Dickinson in a lineage of women writers passionately committed to the independence and singularity of the poetic imagination Collected poems 1945 1990 contains the lifework of one of America s irreplaceable poets Forty years ago in The New Yorker Louise Bogan wrote Barbara Howes is the most accomplished women poet of the younger writing generation one who has found her own voice chosen her own material and worked out her own form Miss Howes is daring with language but she is also accurate Her originality stands in constant close reference to the material in hand and although much of that material is fantastic or exotic it is never so simply for its own sake Drawing from seven previous books this collection confirms and consolidates the reputation of Barbara Howes as a timeless poet whose fine voice and surprising insights will continue to delight all lovers of language Emily Dickinson and the Art of Belief Roger Lundin,2004-02-03 Garnering awards from Choice Christianity Today Books Culture and the Conference on Christianity and Literature when first published in 1998 Roger Lundin s Emily Dickinson and the Art of Belief has been widely recognized as one of the finest biographies of the great American poet Emily Dickinson Paying special attention to her experience of faith Lundin skillfully relates Dickinson's life as it can be charted through her poems and letters to nineteenth century American political social religious and intellectual history This second edition of Lundin's superb work includes a standard bibliography expanded notes and a more extensive discussion of Dickinson's poetry than the first edition contained Besides examining Dickinson's singular life and work in greater depth Lundin has also keyed all poem citations to the recently updated standard edition of Dickinson's poetry Already outstanding Lundin's biography of Emily Dickinson is now even better than before

Daguerreotypes and Other Essays Isak Dinesen, 1979 Isak Dinesen had an original approach to life that permeated all her work She loved storytelling with the result that most of her essays are quasi narratives which proceed not from major to minor premise but from one anecdote to another as the way of making concrete whatever idea she is considering Her work is a delight and at times a marvel The New Yorker Through these daguerreotypes we begin to understand other periods the renunciations of World War I the purpose of houses and mansions of ritual ceremonials such as tattooing We are given a fresh and vivid view of the women's movement which urges that what our small society needs beyond human beings who have demonstrated what they can do is people who are Indeed our own time she wrote in 1953 can be said to need a revision from doing to being She demonstrated it in her own work and craft with courage and with dignity This collection is as real as a gallery of old daguerreotypes moving and unfaded The work as Hannah Arendt says of a wise woman Robert Kirsch Los Angeles Times These essays have the flavor of good conversation humorous easy personal but not oppressive the distillation of reading thought and experience Their subjects are of surprisingly current interest We need make no concessions to the past need not set our watches back to historical Isak Dinesen was not a faddish thinker In history it is always the human element that has a chance for eternal life Dinesen remarks and she gives these essays their chance Penelope Mesic Chicago
