Jacobs,1991-01-01 A historian who lived the kind of history he wrote Francis Parkman is a major and controversial figure in American historiography His narrative style while popular with readers wanting a good story has raised many questions with professional historians Was Parkman writing history or historical fiction Did he color historical figures with his own heroic self image Was his objectivity compromised by his unbending conservative Brahmin values These are some of the many issues that Wilbur Jacobs treats in this thought provoking study Jacobs carefully considers the apprenticeship of Francis

Parkman first spent in facing the rigors of the Oregon Trail and later in struggling to write his histories despite a mysterious frequently incapacitating illness He shows how these events allowed Parkman to create a heroic self image which impelled his desire for fame as a historian and influenced his treatment of both the noble and the savage characters of his histories In addition to assessing the influence of Parkman s development and personality on his histories Jacobs comments on Parkman s relationship to basic social and cultural issues of the nineteenth century These include the slavery question Native American issues expansion of the suffrage to new groups including women and anti Catholicism The Works of Francis Parkman ... Francis Parkman,2015-11-15 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant WORKS OF FRANCIS PARKMAN Francis 1823-1893 Parkman,2016-08-27 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant Letters of Francis Parkman Francis Parkman,1960 Wilbur R Jacobs has assembled just over four hundred of Parkman s letters from the Oregon Trail days to the close of his career in 1893 They depict at close range the life and work of a man who sought not only the materials of history but also its physical sources in the Far West the Great Lakes the Mississippi Valley and Canada so that he might reveal it against the magnificent backdrop of the stately forests and waterways of the interior wilderness Slipcase The Journal of Education ,1871 The Journal of American History ,1926 The Works of Francis Parkman Francis Parkman,John
