Mencken, 2012-04-04 The DEFINITIVE EDITION OF The American Language was published in 1936 Since then it has been recognized as a classic It is that rarest of literary accomplishments a book that is authoritative and scientific and is at the same time very diverting reading But after 1936 HLM continued to gather new materials diligently In 1945 those which related to the first six chapters of The American Language were published as Supplement I the present volume contains those new materials which relate to the other chapters The ground thus covered in Supplement II is as follows 1 American Pronunciation Its history Its divergence from English usage The regional and racial dialects 2 American Spelling The influence of Noah Webster upon it Its characters today The simplified spelling movement The treatment of loan words Punctuation capitalization and abbreviation 3 The Common Speech Outlines of its grammar Its verbs pronouns nouns adjectives and adverbs The double negative Other peculiarities 4 Proper Names in America Surnames Given names Place names Other names 5 American Slang Its origin and history The argot of various racial and occupational groups Although the text of Supplement II is related to that of The American Language it is an independent work that may be read profitably by persons who do not know either The American Language or Supplement I The American Language Henry Louis Mencken, 1945 Handbook of Teaching and Learning Persian as a Second Language Hooman Saeli, 2025-09-26 This collection explores relevant pedagogical and sociolinguistic topics in the teaching and learning of Persian as a foreign and second language Owing to the dearth of research in many areas pertaining to the teaching and learning of Persian this handbook provides empirically supported insights into various aspects of these areas While the literature on teaching and learning Persian is growing the field lacks a cohesive collection on Persian as a foreign second language The book addresses issues pertaining to the standardization and validation of teaching and assessment methods which remain under explored in the contexts of teaching and learning Persian
