Journal of Critical Inquiry Into Curriculum and Instruction ,2002 The Flows of Transnationalism: Questioning Identities and Reimagining Curriculum Seungho Moon,2021-12-29 This reflexive transcultural dialogue scholarship integrates autobiography alongside an in depth critical analysis of Eastern and Western philosophy Moon revisits his cultural heritage providing rich narratives that debunk a universalized Eurocentric approach to truth in the contemporary curriculum and social discourse As an exploration of multiple versions of knowing and identities The Flows of Transnationalism allows readers to extend and invent their own approaches to examining the fluidity of identities Moon promotes diverse perspectives within curriculum studies by disrupting the self other and cultural sameness difference dichotomy Amid the urgent need of developing anti racist pedagogy this book provides an innovative way to studying identities in a transnational context This thought provoking book on transculturalism cultural identities and curriculum is intended to benefit educators university faculty and interested members of the public It is written for those who have the desire to learn and apply diverse approaches for engaging with cultural identities through lived experience and its sociopolitical interpretation

Love in the Post-Reconceptualist Era of Curriculum Work Allan Michel Jales Coutinho,2023-03-08 By employing the autobiographical method of currere and bifocalization this book sheds light on the significance of love and the ethics of caregiving as means to transform curriculum studies into a post reconceptualist and collective endeavor Advancing an understanding of curriculum as a collective public moral enterprise it critically asks whether we can build a world where love is not negotiated but only proliferated Through the creation of short and interconnected autobiographical narratives about the meanings of love the author provides pivotal insights for curricularists who labor in conflicting and paradoxical contexts As such the book seeks to demonstrate how the labor of love fortification may be accomplished in a world of agonistic antagonistic and competitive becoming s Highlighting the role of caregiving this book questions the role of evaluations in post reconceptualization and provides insights for educators and policymakers on how to promote actualization and reconciliation in schools in contexts across the global north and south Engaging with a long scholarly tradition that ultimately seeks to understand the meanings of love in our lives and in our work supporting the historization of the field of curriculum and with an international focus this book will appeal to scholars and students with interests in curriculum studies and curriculum theory

Critical Theory: Rituals, Pedagogies and Resistance Peter McLaren, 2022-03-28 This collection of essays incorporates some of the most important and longstanding foundational texts in education developed by the leading educational neo Gramscian social theorist Peter McLaren The volume provides a much necessary framework for understanding more precisely not only the historical and philosophical foundations for McLaren s ideas but even more importantly it unpacks a clear understanding of the dynamics of ideological production framing the epistemicidal nature of capitalist schools The chapters provide state of the art approaches grounded in both Marxist social theory and post critical sensibilities They show the unique opportunities provided by critical theoretical approaches towards revolutionary pedagogies which are crucial to address the current challenges one is facing locally nationally and internationally Critical Theory Rituals Pedagogies and Resistance speaks to the current challenges we face as humanity not only situating them historically but also securitizing the role that our educational institutions curriculum matrixes and teacher education programs have played in such social havoc It provides crucial insights not only to help a better understanding of the accomplishments produced by the critical educational and curriculum river in the struggle against the educational and curriculum epistemicide but also to help explore alternative ways responsive to the world s endless epistemological difference and diversity While the future of our field needs to go beyond Peter McLaren s intellectual thesaurus it cannot certainly avoid going through him The itinerant curriculum theory and the ICTheorists are conscious about that Jo o M Paraskeva Professor of Educational Leadership and Policy Studies University of Strathclyde

Expanding Curriculum Theory William M. Reynolds, Julie A. Webber, 2016-04-28 Expanding Curriculum Theory Second Edition carries through the major focus of the original volume to reflect on the influence of Deleuze and Guattari s concept of lines of flight and its application to curriculum theorizing What is different is that the lines of flight have since shifted and produced expanded understandings of this concept for curriculum theory and for education in general This edition reflects the impact of events that have contributed to this shift in particular the il logic of school policy changes and reforms in the past decade and the continued explosion of social media and its effect on the collective understanding of how both knowledge and education work as forms of repression The introduction updates the text and puts it into current debates in the field and in the larger socio economic milieu New dis positions are presented that explore central questions circulating within and outside curriculum studies Exciting scholarship on a range of topics includes notions of desire and commodities youth culture and violence new directions in curriculum theory Eco Ethical consciousness new Deleuzian views of normality the diffusion of technology and lines of flight in transnational curriculum inquiry Globalization and Education Nelly P. Stromquist, Karen Monkman, 2014-03-04 We offer in this book a collection of chapters that reflect a broad range of issues linking globalization to education in an accessible yet theoretically grounded and detailed form The authors analyze phenomena on the global plane in local spaces and in the connections between the global and the local New developments such as the growing impact of technology on education the emergence of new policy actors the growing expansion and segmentation of higher education the salience of human rights among others are emerging as powerful agendas shaping all levels of education In fundamental ways the forces of globalization challenge the previous approaches and theories of national development Recognizing the areas of convergence dissonance and conflict should help us grasp with greater clarity the implications of globalization for education and knowledge in the XXI century The contributors to this book include both well known scholars in the field of comparative education as well as young scholars The chapters present a balanced geographical coverage in terms of authors and the countries regions examined The second edition has been thoroughly updated throughout and contains seven new chapters The expanding interest in the intersection of education and globalization has brought up several new topics including the salience of global education policies notably EFA the expansion and differentiation of higher education the emphasis on work related training the increasing role of non state actors such as the transnational corporations and greater attention to human rights Also in this new edition is a chapter on qualitative methodologies especially suitable to the understanding of the intersection of globalization and education Sounds of Silence Breaking Janet L. Miller, 2005 This book contains a broad range of Millers writings and intertwines interpretations of educational theories events and practices throughout private and public dimensions of Miller s life Crossing Boundaries in Science Teacher Education Klaus-Henning Hansen, Wolfgang Gräber, Manfred Lang, 2012 This book is based on the European Comenius project CROSSNET with eight case studies about innovation and science teacher education in six European countries Guiding questions were how teachers policy makers and teacher educators collaborate in the process of change and how local background projects respond to opportunities for the exchange of experiences and reflection in terms of a common theoretical framework of boundary crossing The case studies were conducted by local coordinators and contracted teachers They are supplemented by a cross case analysis of common and distinct features in the projects and an essay about the relationship between boundary crossing transformative learning and curriculum theory Main outcomes are about school based reform and collaboration for science education Transformative Eco-Education for Human and Planetary

Survival Jing Lin, Rebecca L. Oxford, 2011-12-01 Transformative eco education is environmental education that is literally needed to transform and save our planet especially during the global ecological crises of our present century Such education demands inner transformation of many deeply rooted ideas such as the following the Earth exists merely to provide for human comfort the extinction or reduction of other species does not matter we are free to consume or destroy natural resources at will but are safe from destruction ourselves and the Earth will continue to sustain us even if we do not sustain the Earth Unless these concepts are changed we will increase global warming and add to the ruin of much of the Earth This book presents powerful ideas for transformative eco education At this time of ever increasing ecological crisis such education is needed more than ever before We urge readers to use the ideas and activities in this book with your students develop them further and create new conceptions to share with other educators and students The chapters in this book provide key principles of which the following are just a few First educators can and should prepare students for natural disasters Second stories case studies the arts and hands on environmental experience all enriched by reflection and discussion can offer profound learning about ecology Third education at all levels can benefit from a true ecological emphasis Fourth teachers must receive preparation in how to employ transformative eco education Fifth Indigenous wisdom can offer important holistic spiritual paths to understanding and caring for nature and other spiritual traditions also provide valid ways of comprehending humans as part of the universal web of existence Sixth transformative eco education can be an antidote to not only to environmental breakdown but also to materialistic overconsumption and moral confusion Seventh we can only heal the Earth by also healing ourselves If we heed these principles together we can make transformative eco education a blazing torch to light the path for the current century and beyond

Children's Books for Grown-Up Teachers Peter Appelbaum, 2017-09-25 Teachers and prospective teachers read children s books but that reading is often done as a teacher that is as planning for instruction rather than as a reader engaged with the text Children s Books for Grown Up Teachers models the kind of thinking about teaching and learning the sort of curriculum theorizing accomplished through teachers interactions with the everyday materials of teaching It starts with children s books branches out into other youth culture texts and subsequently to thinking about everyday life itself Texts of curriculum theory describe infrastructures that support the crafts of inquiry and learning and introduce a new vocabulary of poaching weirding dark matter and jazz At the heart of this book is a method of reading Each reader pulls idiosyncratic concepts from children s books and from everyday life Weaving these concepts into a discourse of curriculum theory is what makes the difference between going through the motions of teaching and designing educational experiences This book was awarded the 2009 AERA Division B Curriculum Studies Outstanding Book Award
