The Introduction of Arabic Philosophy into Europe Charles Butterworth, Kessel, 2021-12-06 The contributors to this volume are noted scholars from Belgium France Germany Great Britain Hungary Morocco Poland the Soviet Union and Spain Each has stepped somewhat outside of his or her usual academic interest to consider how the writings of a particular Arab philosopher or of a group of Arab philosophers were introduced into a particular European university Their essays identify the European professor or scholar who first introduced the works of an Arab philosopher into his university speak about the works themselves and explore what prompted the original European interest in the particular philosopher or philosophers Thus by explaining how medieval European universities first approached Arab philosophy these papers contribute to the growing interest in the curriculum and general life of those important institutions Studien und Texte Zur

A Companion to the Latin Medieval Commentaries on Aristotle's Metaphysics Gabriele Galluzzo, Fabrizio Amerini, 2013-10-31 Few philosophical books have been so influential in the development of Western thought as Aristotle's Metaphysics For centuries Aristotle's most celebrated work has been regarded as a source of inspiration as well as the starting point for every investigation into the structure of reality Not surprisingly the topics discussed in the book the scientific status of ontology and metaphysics the foundations of logical truths the notions of essence and existence the nature of material objects and their properties the status of mathematical entities just to mention some are still at the centre of the current philosophical debate and are likely to excite philosophical minds for many years to come This volume reconstructs in fourteen chapters a particular phase in the long history of the Metaphysics by focusing on the medieval reception of Aristotle's masterpiece specifically from its introduction in the Latin West in the twelfth through fifteenth centuries Contributors include Marta Borgo Matteo di Giovanni Amos Bertolacci Silvia Donati Gabriele Galluzzo Alessandro D Conti Sten Ebbesen Fabrizio Amerini Giorgio Pini Roberto Lambertini William O Duba Femke J Kok and Paul J J M Bakker Nicholas of Autrecourt Nicolaus (de Autricuria), 1994 This volume contains the first critical edition and a complete English translation of the well known correspondence conducted by the fourteenth century sceptic author Nicholas of Autrecourt with Bernard of Arezzo and a Master Giles In the Introduction the extant manuscripts are analysed and the different positions of Nicholas Bernard and Giles are discussed the purport of Giles reply to Nicholas is contrary to common opinion identified as a defence of Aristotelianism rather than of Bernard's sceptic views Two appendices contain the first critical edition of the records of the Avignon trial against Nicholas found in the Vatican Archives and the Condemned Articles with an English translation The volume is rounded off with extensive indexes which facilitate the use of the book as a source for the history of fourteenth century thought Boethius in the Middle Ages Maarten J. F. M. Hoenen, Lodi W. Nauta, 1997 The German philosophical culture of the Middle Ages is inextricably linked to the thought of Albert the Great This volume brings together 14 papers which deal with Albert's influence from the points of view of mysticism philosophy and the history of universities

Dialectic and Theology in the Eleventh Century Toivo J. Holopainen, 1996 This study provides a reappraisal of the eleventh century controversy over the value of logic in theology on the basis of close exegesis of the central texts by Peter Damian Lanfranc of Bec Berengar of Tours and Anselm of Canterbury Islamic Thought in the Dialogue of Cultures Hans Daiber, 2012-08-03 The monograph aims at a historical and bibliographical survey of the Qur'anic and rational world view of early Islam of the period of translations from Greek into Syriac and Arabic and of the impact of Islamic thought on Europe

Roger Bacon and the Sciences Jeremiah Hackett, 1997 A major updating of scholarship on the philosophy and thought of Roger Bacon In particular it treats his philosophy of language science and mathematics moral philosophy medicine physics and metaphysics and his history and sociology of religion Getting it Wrong Gillian Rosemary Evans, 1998 Deals with the dark side of the medieval theory of knowledge the pursuit of knowledge in wrong ways common knowledge and departures from it wisdom and folly incomplete knowledge truth and lies The Oxford Handbook of Medieval Philosophy John Marenbon, 2015 This Handbook shows the links between medieval and contemporary philosophy Topic based essays on all areas of philosophy explore this relationship and introduce the main themes of medieval philosophy They are preceded by the fullest chronological survey now available of the different traditions Latin and Greek Islamic and Jewish Measure of a Different Greatness Anne Davenport, 2021-10-11 This volume examines a selection of late medieval works devoted to the intensive infinite in order to draw a comprehensive picture of the context character and importance of scholastic efforts to reason philosophically about divine infinity As Dominican masters face Franciscan spirituals and as university trained theologians face evangelical laymen the purpose and meaning of divine infinity shift reflecting a basic tension between the Church's Petrine vocation for geopolitical orthodoxy and its more Pauline mission to promote Christian orthopraxis The first part of the book traces the scholastic defense of divine infinity from the holocaust of Montsieur up to John Duns Scotus The second part examines the semiotic breakthrough initiated by William of Ockham and the subsequent penetration of infinitist theory into a wide variety of disciplines On Reduplication Allan Bäck, 1996 On Reduplication is a study of the logical properties of reduplicative propositions that is of propositions having qualifications like Christ qua God is a creature and being qua being is the subject of metaphysics The focus is on what ways qualifications change the truth value and the inference patterns of simple categorical propositions The central class of reduplications is that in which the qualifications are introduced by a qua connective like qua insofar as under the concept of or in virtue of the fact that Reduplicative propositions occur frequently and importantly in both traditional and contemporary philosophical works but there has been little modern analysis of them This study presents compares and analyzes the different theories of reduplication that have arisen in Western philosophy Texts are presented and explicated and their significance is weighed relative to modern logical theory Throughout this study some important applications of theories of reduplication are noted such as Leibniz's qualification of the principle of the Identity of Indiscernibles Ockham's reduction of abstract entities and Aquinas's view on the Incarnation John Duns Scotus Ludger Honnefelder, Rega Wood, Mechthild Dreyer, 1996 Of reality the rarest veined unraveler John Duns Scotus was one of the profoundest metaphysicians who ever lived In this volume the world's foremost Scotus scholars collaborate to present the latest research on his work In ethics the focus is on practical wisdom on beauty as an ethical concept and on the independence of the virtues in metaphysics on modality individuation and being Textbook accounts notwithstanding Scotus theory of logical possibilities implies no existence or actuality for possible beings though being and thinking presuppose the domain of possibility potency only supervenes on the actual There are important thirteenth century precursors of Scotus theory of modality and individuation Posterior to quidditative entity Scotus clearly distinguishes the ultimate reality of individual beings both from individuals and from individuality Weakness of the Will in Medieval Thought Saarinen,2021-12-06 This book sets out to examine the medieval understanding of Aristotle s famous discussion of weakness of the will akrasia incontinentia in the seventh book of his Nicomachean Ethics The medieval views are outlined primarily on the basis of the commentaries on Aristotle s Ethics by Albert the Great Thomas Aquinas Walter Burley Gerald Odonis and John Buridan An investigation of the earlier Augustinian discussion concerning reluctant actions invitatus facere rounds out the study The recent studies of weakness of the will have neglected the medieval philosophers The present volume fills this gap in historical research and shows that especially the conceptual refinement of the fourteenth century discussion makes contributions that are comparable to those of twentieth century philosophers Contingent Causality and the Foundations of Duns Scotus' Metaphysics Michael Sylwanowicz,1996 Exploring the originality of Scotus contingent causality reveals an underlying ontology a positive alternative to Aquinas capable of generating the classic Scotist metaphysical theses and leads to reinterpretations of freedom and predestination Scotus Bradwardine and undoing the past Bradwardine Index Islamicus ,1994
