The Inviting Shore Social History Of New Brighton 1830-1939 Pt 1:

Lancashire's Seaside Piers Martin Easdown, 2009-11-01 In this work Martin Easdown turns his expert attention westward to the Lancashire coast His highly illustrated survey of the piers constructed at famous resorts like Blackpool Morecambe Southport and St Annes on Sea celebrates structures that are among the most exuberant and evocative of the Victorian age

Merseyside Mike Benbough-Jackson, Sam Davies, 2011-05-25 Merseyside Culture and Place demonstrates how Liverpool and Merseyside have a rich fascinating and sometimes controversial cultural history The result of a conference held to mark Liverpool's year as European Capital of Culture in 2008 this interdisciplinary volume contains chapters by scholars working in a variety of fields including Geography Art English Marketing and History There are many facets to Merseyside's cultural history and the contributors to this publication bring their own perspective to bear on various features of the area's rich heritage Taking in examples from the early modern era to the present day Merseyside Culture and Place draws attention to often overlooked cultural forms such as sketches of the Mersey by J M W Turner and the fan culture exhibited on Liverpool FC's Kop Each chapter in the book is based on original research and the contributors set their findings in a local national and in some cases an international context Both academics and general readers will find much of interest in a book that reflects Merseyside's distinctive and multi-faceted character

Down from London Carolyn W. de la L. Oulton, 2022-02-15 In the first hundred years of the UK rail network the seaside figures as a nerve centre managing and making visible the period's complex interplay between health death gender and sexuality This monograph discusses around 130 novels of the railway age to show how the seaside infiltrates a diverse range of literature subverting the boundaries between high and low literary culture The seaside holiday galvanises innovative literary forms including early twentieth century holiday crime and romance fiction which has its origins in the sensational strategies of mid nineteenth century authors Where reading takes place is at least as important as what is read and case studies on literary Brighton and Dickensian Kent explore the occasionally fraught relationship between seaside towns and the metropolis as London visitors are represented in and are the target audience for literary accounts of the seaside holiday The act of reading by the sea is itself overdetermined and problematic a dilemma that is managed in part through the development of text-free literary tourism in the late nineteenth century Deploying strategies from literary criticism histories of reading libraries and the book and literary tourism this book recovers seaside reading as both a literary sub-genre and a deeply contested mode of engagement

The Local Historian, 2005 Networks of Influence and Power Robert Lee, 2023-12-01 During the nineteenth century Liverpool became the heart of an international maritime network As the second city of Empire its merchants and shipowners operated within a transnational commercial and financial system while its trading connections stimulated the development of new markets and their integration within an increasingly global economy This ground-breaking volume brings together ten original contributions that reflect upon the development of the city's business community from the early nineteenth century to the outbreak of the First World War with an emphasis on the period from 1851 to 1912 It offers the first detailed analysis of Liverpool s merchant community within a conceptual and historiographical framework which focuses on the economic social and cultural role of business elites in the nineteenth century It explores the extent to which business success was predicated on the maintenance of networks of trust analyses the importance of business culture in structuring commercial operations and discusses the role of ethics trust and reputation within the changing framework of the business environment Particular attention is paid to the role of women and the important contribution of the family to commercial success and the maintenance of social networks Changes in business practice and social networks are also examined within a spatial context in order to assess the impact of the development of a distinct commercial centre and the clustering of commercial activity on interaction reputation and trust while particular attention is paid to the effect of suburbanization on existing associational networks the social cohesiveness of business culture and the cultural identity of the merchant community as a whole
