Heresy and Orthodoxy in Sixteenth-Century Paris: François Le Picart and the Beginnings of the Catholic Reformation Larissa Juliet Taylor, 2021-10-11 This is the story of Paris from the Reformation to the Religious Wars Through the works of François Le Picart the most popular preacher from 1530-1556 the book delineates the increasing tensions sparked by Reformation ideas Targeted by Calvin and Beza Le Picart was considered the reason Paris remained in the Catholic fold Exiled by Francis I for his incendiary preaching he would later serve as a professor and lecturer coming into close contact with the first Jesuits A fierce opponent of heresy he helped compile the Articles of Faith read heretical books lectured on scripture and presided at executions His 270 sermons the only substantial preaching source for this period offer glimpses of life during these increasingly troubled times that challenge works by Denis Crouzet suggesting that France was in the grip of eschatological anguish

Self-Emptying Love in a Global Context Robert T. Sears, Joseph A. Bracken, 2006-02-20 Care for the environment is an ever more pressing concern in today's world in which narrow self-interest has blinded us to the growing pollution of atmosphere and seas and the destruction of animal species caused by our indifference and neglect Christianity has been blamed in part for this because of a misunderstanding of the Biblical call to have dominion over creation Our spiritual tradition has indeed so focused on human salvation that the Earth has been seen simply as a transient environment that will be left behind in the end In response this little book highlights another spiritual tradition within Western Christianity that affirms that creation itself will also be transformed with humanity through the self-emptying love of God God's dominion after all is service rather than despotic control the raising up of the lowly of this Earth and of the Earth itself as part of a cosmic community The Spiritual Exercises of St Ignatius are examined in this light as a call not only to join Christ in redeeming humanity but also in extending Christ's care and love to all creation that longs for the freedom of the children of God
