Christology in Christian-Muslim Dialogue Rev Fr Dr Robert Afayori, 2021-02-11 Understanding the religious beliefs and practices of the other raises hermeneutic questions on the extent to which the dialogical call to openness is related to commitment the meaning of religious identity and whether openness to the beliefs of the other poses a threat to one's religious identity If interreligious learning demands that the interlocutors unite their attitude of commitment and openness how does this occur without the loss of alterity This book addresses these questions within the context of Christian Muslim dialogue on Christology as an exercise in learning a new form of dialogue which leads Christians and Muslims to the discovery of common values such as prayer and submission to God peace and peaceful co existence and solidarity with the poor and marginalised

Feeling the Future at Christian End-Time Performances Jill C. Stevenson, 2022-02-01 The End is always near The Apocalypse has sparked imaginations for millennia while in more recent times highly publicized predictions have thrust End Time theology briefly into the spotlight In the 21st century fictional depictions of various apocalyptic scenarios are found in an endless stream of films TV shows and novels while real world media coverage of global issues including climate change and the migrant crisis often features an apocalyptic tone Feeling the Future at Christian End Time Performances explores this prevalent human desire to envision the End by analyzing how various live End Time performances allow people to live in and through future time The book's main focus is contemporary Christian End Time performances and how they theatrically construct encounters with future time not just images or ideas of a future but viscerally and immediately real experiences of future time Author Jill Stevenson's examples are Hell Houses and Judgement Houses Rapture House a similarly styled walk through drama in North Carolina Hell's Gates an outdoor reality drama in Dawsonville Georgia Ark Encounter a full size recreation of Noah's Ark and Tribulation Trail an immersive thirteen scene drama ministry based on the Book of Revelation The book's coda considers similarities between these Christian performances and secular survivalist prepper events especially with respect to constructions of and language about time In doing so the author situates these performances within a larger tradition that challenges traditional secular sacred distinctions and illuminates how the End Times has been employed in our current social and political moment

The Christian Repository, 1824 Hope and Otherness: Christian Eschatology and Interreligious Hospitality Jakob W. Wirén, 2017-11-01 In Hope and Otherness Jakob Wirén analyses the place and role of the religious Other in contemporary eschatology In connection with this theme he examines and compares different levels of inclusion and exclusion in Christian Muslim and Jewish eschatologies He argues that a distinction should be made in approaches to this issue between soteriological openness and eschatological openness By going beyond Christian theology and also looking to Muslim and Jewish sources and by combining the question of the religious Other with eschatology Wir n explores ways of articulating Christian eschatology in light of religious otherness and provides a new and vital slant to the threefold paradigm of exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism that has been prevalent in the theology of religions Jakob Wir n s study pushes forward the frontiers of three disciplines all at the same time theology of religions comparative religions and eschatology This is a challenging and important book Gavin D Costa University of Bristol Professor of Catholic Theology 2017 This book explores of the status of religious others in Christian eschatology and of eschatology itself as a privileged place for reflecting on religious otherness Wiren mines not only Christian but also Jewish and Muslim sources to develop an inclusive eschatology Hope and Otherness thus represents an important contribution to both theology of religions and comparative theology Catherine Cornille Boston College Professor of Comparative Theology 2017 Documents of the Christian Church Henry Bettenson,1963 Here is a fine collection of the most important source materials for the history of Christianity in a compact and attractive little volume The Christian Century The New Theology and the Old Religion Charles Gore,1907 *The Ruling Eldership of the Christian Church.
