The Polish Community Of Worcester:

Polish Community of Worcester Barbara Proko, John Kraska, Janice Baniukiewicz Stickles, 2003-10 Near the beginning of the twentieth century thousands of Polish immigrants embarked upon the American Dream in Worcester as the city's lowest paid mill workers. Slowly they carved out their own Polonia with Millbury Street as the center. By the 1920s Worcester's Polish community had built a parish with the largest parochial school in the county, established several civic associations and become an influential group in the city's economy and ethnic composition. The Polish Community of Worcester celebrates the resilient and patriotic spirit of Worcester's Polonia from 1870 through 1970 with rare photographs from private collections and family albums. The Polish Community of Worcester Barbara Proko, John Kraska, Janice Baniukiewicz

Worcester County's Polish Community Barbara Proko, Janice Baniukiewicz Stickles, 2007 Polish settlement in Worcester County had humble beginnings: a small group of German Poles in the 1870s. Over the next decades thousands of Russian and Austrian Poles fleeing economic and political hardship pinned their hopes for a better life on jobs in the burgeoning industries of central Massachusetts. Practicing their religion in their native tongue was vital to these devout Catholics. New England's first Polish parish was founded in Webster with others following in Worcester, Gardner, West Warren, Clinton, Southbridge, and Dudley. Polish clubs served as central gathering places in Gilbertville, Uxbridge, and South Grafton. Worcester County's Polish Americans share an intricate web of relationships: family, religious, business, social, cultural, educational, political, and athletic that celebrates their heritage and sustains them today as one of the region's largest ethnic groups. Worcester County's Polish Community Barbara

Jendrysik,2005 The first group of Polish immigrants to come to Chicopee arrived in 1880 These Poles filled many of the manufacturing jobs in the city s two large textile mills In less than 30 years from their arrival this aggressive self assured group boasted more Polish owned businesses than any other community in New England The Polish Community of Chicopee chronicles an immigrant population that was fiercely dedicated to the ideals of free enterprise and democratic pluralism
