McDonagh     Sentenced to Cross the Raging Sea Ross Johnson, 2004 In many North of England towns like Manchester and Oldham violence was never far below the surface during the disturbed times of the Industrial Revolution in the early 19th century with cotton mill owners pitted against their operatives and worker against worker Sam Johnson was a 17 year old cotton spinner apprenticed to his father at Greenbank Mill when three over zealous Oldham constables raided a union meeting and arrested two union men The end result was a huge riot involving thousands of Oldham workers and a partly successful attempt to demolish the Bankside Mill on Manchester Street and adjacent workers homes One onlooker was shot dead The subsequent random arrests when the militia arrived and regained control resulted in five of the rioters including Sam Johnson being sentenced to death by hanging at the Lancaster Assizes of 1834 These sentences were commuted to transportation for life This thoroughly researched true story describes the life of Sam Johnson convict no 13841 from the Chatham hulks to the transport ship to Botany Bay the Hyde Park Barracks in Sydney his later assignment to his Scottish master Archibald Macleod his travels over the Australian Alps with his sheep and cattle to pioneer in Gippsland in 1844 It traces his emancipation marriage and life in Gippsland following a successful petition and Queen s Pardon after he served his 20 year sentence The book includes previously unpublished material from the handwritten notes of an Oldham reporter present at the riot reproduced by kind permission of Oldham Local Studies and Archives     Coffin Ship William Henry, 2009-05-14 The tragic tale of the sinking of the famine ship the St John in Massachusetts Bay in 1849 The Great Irish Famine drove huge numbers of Irish men and women to leave the island and pursue their survival in foreign lands In 1847 some 200 000 people sailed for Boston alone Of this massive group 2 000 never made it to their destination killed by disease and hunger during the voyages their remains consigned to a watery grave The sinking of the brig St John off the coast of Massachusetts in October 1849 was only one of many tragic events to occur during this mass exodus The ship had sailed from Galway loaded with passengers so desperate to escape the effects of famine that some had walked from as far afield as Clare to reach the ship The passengers on the St John made it to within sight of the New World before their ship went down and they were abandoned by their captain who denied that there had been any survivors when he and some of his crew made it ashore For those who died in the seas off Massachusetts there was nothing to mark their last resting place no name no memory of them ever having existed just another statistic in a terrible tragedy
