The Irish Impressionists Irish Artists In France And Belgium 1850-1914:

The Irish Impressionists Julian Campbell, National Gallery of Ireland, Ulster Museum, 1984 The Irish Impressionists Julian Campbell, National Gallery of Ireland, Ulster Museum, 1984 Mapping Impressionist Painting in Transnational Contexts Emily C. Burns, Alice M. Rudy Price, 2021-05-03 This book offers microhistories related to the transnational circulations of impressionism in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries The contributors rethink the role of French impressionism in shaping these iterations by placing France within its global and imperialist context and arguing that impressionisms might be framed through the mobility studies concept of constellations of mobility Artists engaging with impressionism in France as in other global contexts relied on responded to appropriated and resisted elements of form and content based on fluid and interconnected political realities and market structures Written by scholars and curators the chapters demand reconsideration of impressionism as a historical construct and the meanings assigned to that term This project frames future discussion in art history cultural studies and global studies on the politics of appropriating impressionism The Yeats Circle, Verbal and Visual Relations in Ireland, 1880-1939 Karen E. Brown, 2011 Focusing on W B Yeats's ideal of mutual support between the arts and on the cultural production of the Yeats circle members Karen Brown explores the artistic relationships and outcome of Yeats's vision in five case studies In so doing the author makes use of primary materials and fresh archival evidence and delves into a variety of media including embroidery print illustration theatre costume design poetry and painting Rural Artists' Colonies in Europe, 1870-1910 Nina Lübbren, 2001 This groundbreaking book presents a critical study of pictorial narrative in nineteenth century European painting Covering works from France Germany Britain Italy and elsewhere it traces the ways in which immensely popular artists like Jean L. on G. r. me Karl von Piloty and William Quiller Orchardson used unique visual strategies to tell thrilling and engaging stories Regardless of genre content or national context these paintings share a fundamental modern narrative mode Unlike traditional art they do not rely on textual sources nor do they tell stories through the human body alone Instead they experiment with objects spaces cause and effect relations and open ended ambiguity prompting viewers and reviewers to read for clues in order to weave their own elaborate tales The Routledge Companion to Irish Art Fionna Barber, Fintan Cullen, 2025-04-30 This companion contains new and innovative writing on Irish art and its history from c. 1800 to the present day This book critically engages with Irish art in a period linked to key events in Irish history beginning with the Acts of Union between Britain and Ireland 1800-01 and the significant social and cultural changes that resulted The book also provides a precedent for a focus on the significance of art in relation to other subsequent key historical events such as the early twentieth century struggles for independence or the role of political conflict in Northern Ireland from the late 1960s onwards and its aftermath Key themes covered include tradition and innovation upheavals of history place location and artistic formations Irish art and the wider world and embodiment and identity The book expands the critical discourse around Irish art over this period both within Ireland and beyond and encourages the potential for future scholarship in fields and periods not covered This book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history Irish studies and colonial studies

Impressionism John I. Clancy,2003 Defining an artistic era or movement is often a difficult task as one tries to group individualistic expressions and artwork under one broad brush Such is the case with impressionism which culls together the art of a multitude of painters in the mid 19th century including Monet C zanne Renoir Degas and van Gogh Basically impressionism involved the shedding of traditional painting methods The subjects of art were taken from everyday life as opposed to the pages of mythology and history In addition each artist painted to express feelings of the moment instead of hewing to time honoured standards This description of impressionism obviously is quite broad and can apply to a wide array of styles Nonetheless it remains a very important school in the annals of art Any current or budding art aficionado should become familiar with the impressionist movement and its impact on the art world This book presents a sweeping study of this artistic period from its origins to its manifestations in the works of some of art history s most revered painters Following this overview is a substantial and selective bibliography featuring access through author title and subject indexes

At the Temple of Art Colleen Denney,2000 In the hands of an innovative team consisting of Sir Coutts Lindsay his wife Blanche Lindsay and two managers Charles Halle and Joseph Comyns Carr the gallery developed a reputation as a leading exhibition space for British and Continental artists during the late Victorian period What factors contributed to its rise to prominence on the London exhibition circuit How did it maintain that respected place in light of the diversification of showcases during this period Central to this book is a close examination of the paintings which were shown at the gallery during its fourteen year run how they were received by the critics and which movements were represented
