The Islamic Conception Of God:

The Islamic Conception of God Hazrat Mirza Bashiruddin Mahmud Ahmad, 2005-12-01 This scarce antiquarian book is a facsimile reprint of the original. Due to its age it may contain imperfections such as marks, notations, marginalia and flawed pages. Because we believe this work is culturally important, we have made it available as part of our commitment for protecting, preserving and promoting the world's literature in affordable, high-quality modern editions that are true to the original work.

The Islamic Conception of Justice Majid Khadduri, 1984 Majid Khadduri, one of the world's preeminent authorities on Islamic justice and jurisprudence, presents his extensive study and reflection on Islamic political, legal, ethical and social philosophy. This book is both a magisterial historical synthesis and an illumination of the beliefs and practices of modern Islam.

The Islamic Understanding of Death and Resurrection Jane Idelman Smith, Yvonne Yazbeck Haddad, 2002-11-21 This book provides a thorough and accessible guide to belief about the afterlife in the Sunni Muslim tradition. Drawing on the Qur'an, traditions, creeds and theological commentaries, as well as interviews with Muslim clerics, the authors offer an overview of the Islamic eschatological narrative describing the understanding of events beginning with the death of the individual and ending with habitation in the final abodes of recompense.

Muslim: What You Need to Know About the World's Fastest Growing Religion Hank Hanegraaff, 2017-10-10 Is Islam a peaceful and tolerant religion? How did it get started? World events are making it more timely, important and necessary for every Christian to understand how the world's fastest growing religion will affect them and how to stand firm in the truth of Christ. Renowned Bible Answer Man Hank Hanegraaff provides an in-depth look at Islam. For all the debate over Islam and its growing presence in the world, one thing is often overlooked: Islam is not a religion in the Western sense. It's an all-encompassing worldview opposed to anything but itself. While there may be millions of peaceful and tolerant Muslims, many of them our neighbors, Islam itself is not peaceful and tolerant. Islam is the only significant religious system in the history of the human race with a structure of laws that mandate violence against the infidel. The current narrative is that to tell the truth in this regard will radicalize Muslims and worsen hostilities. A common phrase you've probably heard is that Islam is not our enemy. As well intentioned as this mantra may be, it is a dangerous stance. Once someone understands Islam in full, Global Islamic jihadism is exacting mass genocide on Christians in the East and multiplying terrorist attacks throughout the West. Worse still, Western governments, academic institutions and media outlets seem bent on peddling a false narrative about what Islam truly is. In Muslim, you will learn the history of Islam from the bloody career of the prophet Mohammed to the authoritarian Islamic law. Examine how Islamic theology refutes the core Christian beliefs of original sin, Jesus' resurrection and more. Discover specific Islamic teaching inciting violence to non-Muslims and even governments opposing Islamic law. Find solutions and encouragement for Christians to withstand this growing global threat. The conflict between Islam and the West is not going to die down or fade away. The Islamic doctrines upon which it is based will continue to cause conflict on an ever-increasing scale.

With Muslim Christians can equip themselves and others to stand unwavering in the truth of Christ The Concept of Evil in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Catharina Rachik, Georges Tamer, 2024-11-04 The present volume of the series Key Concepts in Interreligious Discourses explores various conceptions of evil in Judaism Christianity and Islam including key terms from their respective sacred texts major theodicy discussions and contemporary developments Throughout history and even today religious scholars and believers have struggled with the question of the origin of evil and how a benevolent God can allow evil to exist in the world Why does a compassionate God not prevent deadly diseases or natural disasters What do religions define as evil and is God responsible for or even the creator of this evil The articles written by distinguished scholars in their respective fields offer a variety of answers to such existential questions The articles address topics such as the origin of evil the responses to evil in sacred texts and religious traditions and the role of human agency Each author offers a critical analysis of these topics as well as recommendations for future research The volume also highlights commonalities and differences among the three monotheistic religions The Names of God in Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Máire Byrne, 2011-07-07 This book offers a welcome solution to the growing need for a common language in interfaith dialogue particularly between the three Abrahamic faiths in our modern pluralistic society The book suggests that the names given to God in the Hebrew Bible the New Testament and the Qur'an could be the very foundations and building blocks for a common language between the Jewish Christian and Islamic faiths On both a formal interfaith level as well as between everyday followers of each doctrine this book facilitates a more fruitful and universal understanding and respect of each sacred text exploring both the commonalities and differences between each theology and their individual receptions In a practical application of the methodologies of comparative theology Maire Byrne shows that the titles names and epithets given to God in the sacred texts of Judaism Christianity and Islam contribute towards similar images of God in each case and elucidates the importance of this for providing a viable starting point for interfaith dialogue Abū'l-Barakāt al-Baghdādī's Metaphysical Philosophy Moshe M Pavlov, 2017-04-21 Ab l Barak t is a renowned philosopher of the Arabic Jewish milieu who composed in his magnum opus the Kit b al Mu tabar a comprehensive metaphysics which challenged the accepted notions of the traditional metaphysical philosophy Ab l Barak t al Baghd d s Metaphysical Philosophy examines the novel philosophical conceptions of the first book of the Metaphysics of the Kit b al Mu tabar The aim is to present a developed conception of Ab l Barak t s systematic metaphysics This is accomplished by following the order of topics discussed while translating the relevant passages These different topics comprise stages of cognition that move from an analysis of time creation and causality to the conception of a higher spiritual realm of mental entities and a conception of God as the First Knower and Teacher The epistemological and ontological conceptions are analyzed at each culminating stage Ab l Barak t al Baghd d s Metaphysical Philosophy analyzes vast portions of the metaphysical study for the first time The book will thus be a valuable resource for all those seeking an original and broad metaphysics and for students and scholars of

The Concept of Person in Judaism, Christianity and Islam Georges Tamer, 2023-11-06 The sixth volume of the series Key Concepts of Interreligious Discourses investigates the roots of the concept of person in Judaism Christianity and Islam and its relevance for the present time The concept of person lies at the core of central ideas in the modern world such as the value and development of personal identity the sanctity of human person and the human rights based on that In societies that are shaped by a long Christian tradition these ideas are associated often with the belief in the creation of man in the image of God But although Judaism shares with Christianity the same Biblical texts about the creation of man and also the Qur n knows Adam as the first human being created by God and his representative on earth the focus on the concept of person is in each one of these religions a different one So the crucial question is how did the concept of person evolve in Judaism Christianity and Islam out of the concept of human being What are the special features of personhood in each one of these traditions The volume presents the concept of person in its different aspects as anchored in Judaism Christianity and Islam It unfolds commonalities and differences between the three monotheistic religions as well as the manifold discourses about the meaning of person within these three religions

The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion Graham Oppy, 2015-04-17 Philosophy of religion has experienced a renaissance in recent times paralleling the resurgence in public debate about the place and value of religion in contemporary Western societies The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion is an outstanding reference source to the key topics problems and debates in this exciting subject Comprising over thirty chapters by a team of international contributors the Handbook is divided into seven parts theoretical orientations conceptions of divinity epistemology of religious belief metaphysics and religious language religion and politics religion and ethics religion and scientific scrutiny Within these sections central issues debates and problems are examined including religious experience religion and superstition realism and anti realism scientific interpretation of religious texts feminist approaches to religion religion in the public square tolerance religion and meta ethics religion and cognitive science and the meaning of life Together they offer readers an informed understanding of the current state of play in the liveliest areas of contemporary philosophy of religion The Routledge Handbook of Contemporary Philosophy of Religion is essential reading for students and researchers of philosophy of religion from across the Humanities and Social Sciences
