The Islamic Law Of Evidence:

Islamic Law of Evidence Sayed Sikandar Shah Haneef, 1994      A Brief Introduction Towards the Islamic Law of Evidence Irfan Ali Thanvi, 2018-09-24 A simple and a basic introduction to the basis of Women testimony in Islam Other themes also include Al Jassas commentary on documentation Furthermore documentation as evidence in Islamic Criminal Law is examined In recent times the opinions of our jurists concerning some important issues of the Islamic Law of Evidence as mentioned in the Qur an have remained a hot subject of debate We find it appropriate to present our views on these issues so that our learned scholars can deliberate on them from another angle The first issue pertains to the testimony of a woman The general opinion in this regard is that in cases of Hodood punishments ordained by God female witnesses are in no way acceptable There are affairs in which their testimony is acceptable only when in place of a male witness two of them testify alongside another male witness while in certain feminine affairs their testimony as sole witnesses is acceptable      Islamic Law of Evidence Anwarullah, 2004      Islamic Law of Evidence Kitab Bhavan, 2000-12      The Application of Islamic Criminal Law in Pakistan Tahir Wasti, 2009 No legal system in the world has aroused as much public interest as Sharia However the discourse around Sharia law is largely focussed on its development and the theories principles and rules that inform it Less attention has been given to studying the consequences of its operation particularly in the area of Islamic criminal law Even fewer studies explore the actual practice of Islamic criminal law in contemporary societies This book aims to fill these gaps in our understanding of Sharia law in practice It deals specifically with the consequences of enforcing Islamic criminal law in Pakistan providing an in depth and critical analysis of the application of the Islamic law of Qisas and Diyat retribution and blood money in the Muslim world today The empirical evidence adduced more broadly demonstrates the complications of applying traditional Sharia in a modern state      Islamic Law of Evidence Mohammed Burhan Arbouna, 1999-01-01      Shahādah Abuhamid M.. Abdul-Quadir, 1997      Islamic Law in Malaysia Adnan Trakic, Hanifah Haydar Ali Tajuddin, 2021-03-16 This book examines the challenges of the implementation of Islamic law in Malaysia Malaysia is a pertinent jurisdiction to explore such challenges given its global focus colonial history and institutions and the intersection of the Shari ah and secularism multiculturalism The resultant implementation challenges are underpinned by three factors that make Malaysia an important jurisdiction for those interested in understanding the place of Islamic law in the global context First Malaysia is often considered as a model Islamic country Islamic law is a source of law in Malaysia The Islamic law legal system in Malaysia operates in parallel with a common law legal system The two systems of law generally are in harmony with one another Nevertheless occasional cross jurisdictional issues do arise and when they do the Malaysian judiciary has been quite efficient in solving them The Malaysian experience in maintaining such harmony between the two legal systems provides lessons for a number of countries facing such challenges Second Malaysia has a developed Shari ah court system that interprets and applies Islamic law predominantly based on the Shafi i school of thought While for the most part the approach has been successful there have been times when the implementation of the law has raised concerns as to the compatibility of Islamic law with modern principles of human rights and common law based values Third there have been cases where Islamic law implementation in Malaysia has gained global attention due to the potential for wider international implications To do justice to this complex area the book calls on scholars and practitioners who have the necessary expertise in Islamic law and its implementation As such this book provides lessons and direction for other countries that operate a dual system of secular and Islamic laws The Islamic Law of Evidence Anwarullah,1994
