The Javanese in Suriname Parsudi Suparlan,1995      The Javanese in Surinam Parsudi Suparlan,1976      The Javanese in Surinam Parsudi Suparlan,1981      Encyclopedia of the World's Minorities Carl Skutsch,2013-11-07 This study of minorities involves the difficult issues of rights justice equality dignity identity autonomy political liberties and cultural freedoms The A Z Encyclopedia presents the facts arguments and areas of contention in over 560 entries in a clear objective manner For a full list of entries contributors and more visit the Encyclopedia of the World s Minorities website      The Difficult Flowering of Surinam Edward Dew,2013-03-09 In the months immediately preceding Surinam s independence November 25 1975 warning signals went up on both sides of the Atlantic This small ethnically plural society was torn by severe political conflict Elections in November 1973 had brought an end to political collaboration between Creoles and Hindustanis the country s two largest ethnic groups and the Creoles now in control of the government were resolutely pushing over Hindustani opposition to sever their colonial ties with the Netherlands But defections from the Creole benches during the summer of 1975 had produced a virtual stalemate in the legislature heightening fears that the government would act unilaterally The failure of Creole and Hindustani leaders to resolve their differences led many observers in both the Netherlands and Surinam to predict a collapse of democracy and or violent conflict once independence was proclaimed Ironically the dramatic last minute resolution of the struggle precipitated not only general jubilation and relief but also self congratulation as the leaders of Surinam s multiethnic society long priding themselves on achieve ments in harmonious understanding pulled out all stops in their indepen dence day oratory No one could forget the nightmare of the preceding few years But neither could anyone familiar with Surinam s historical develop ment flatly reject the rhetoric as being without some foundation In fact Surinam while severely tested by the most complex multi ethnic population in the Caribbean does have a record of which she can be proud and which deserves to be more widely known      Indentured Muslims in the Diaspora Maurits S. Hassankhan,Goolam Vahed,Lomarsh Roopnarine,2016-11-10 This is the fourth publication originating from the conference Legacy of Slavery and Indentured Labour Past Present and Future which was organised in June 2013 by the Institute of Graduate Studies and Research IGSR Anton de Kom University of Suriname The core of the book is based on a conference panel which focused specifically on the experience of Muslim with indentured migrants and their descendants This is a significant contribution since the focus of most studies on Indian indenture has been almost exclusively on Hindu religion and culture even though an estimated seventeen percent of migrants were Muslims This book thus fills an important gap in the indentured historiography both to understand that past as well as to make sense of the present when Muslim identities are undergoing rapid changes in response to both local and global realities The book includes a chapter on the experiences of Muslim indentured immigrants of Indonesian descent who settled in Suriname The core questions in the study are as follows What role did Islam play in the lives of Indian Muslim migrants in their new settings during indenture and in the post indenture period How did Islam help migrants adapt and acculturate to their new environment What have been the similarities and differences in practices traditions and beliefs between Muslim communities in the different countries and between them and the country of origin How have Islamic practices and Muslim identities transformed over time What role does Islam play in the Muslims lives in these countries in the contemporary period In order to respond to these questions this book examines the historic place of Islam in migrants place of origin and provides a series of case studies that focus on the various countries to which the indentured Indians migrated such as Mauritius South Africa Guyana Trinidad Suriname and Fiji to understand the institutionalisation of Islam in these settings and the actual lived experience of Muslims which is culturally and historically specific bound by the circumstances of individuals location in time and space The chapters in this volume also provide a snapshot of the diversity and similarity of lived Muslim experiences

The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Constitutions Richard Albert, Derek O'Brien, Se-shauna Wheatle, 2020-07-23 The Oxford Handbook of Caribbean Constitutions offers a detailed and analytical view of the constitutions of the Caribbean region examining the constitutional development of its diverse countries The Handbook explains the features of the region's constitutions and examines themes emerging from the Caribbean's experience with constitutional interpretation and reform Beginning with a Foreword from the former President of the Caribbean Court of Justice and an Introduction by the lead editor Richard Albert the remainder of the book is divided into four parts Part I Caribbean Constitutions in the World highlights what is distinctive about the constitutions of the Caribbean Part II covers the constitutions of the Caribbean in detail offering a rich analysis of the constitutional history design controversies and future challenges in each country or group of countries Each chapter in this section addresses topics such as the impact of key historical and political events on the constitutional landscape for the jurisdiction a systematic account of the interaction between the legislature and the executive the civil service the electoral system and the independence of the judiciary Part III addresses fundamental rights debates and developments in the region including the death penalty and socio economic rights Finally Part IV features critical reflections on the challenges and prospects for the region including the work of the Caribbean Court of Justice and the future of constitutional reform This is the first book of its kind bringing together in a single volume a comprehensive review of the constitutional development of the entire Caribbean region from the Bahamas in the north to Guyana and Suriname in South America and all the islands in between While written in English the book embraces the linguistic and cultural diversity of the region and covers the Anglophone Caribbean as well as the Spanish French and Dutch speaking Caribbean countries

Islam and the Americas Aisha Khan, 2017-01-10 This volume edited by Aisha Khan explores Muslims lived experiences in the Western Hemisphere and the ways in which Islam has been codified in the New World by Muslim minority societies using disparate case studies from the Caribbean Suriname Brazil Mexico and others in the Atlantic World

The Chinese in Latin America and the Caribbean Walton Look Lai, Chee Beng Tan, 2010 The Chinese migration to the Latin America Caribbean region is an understudied dimension of the Asian American experience There are three distinct periods in the history of this migration the early colonial period pre 19th century when the profitable three century trade connection between Manila and Acapulco led to the first Asian migrations to Mexico and Peru the classic migration period 19th to early twentieth centuries marked by the coolie trade known to Chinese diaspora studies and the renewed immigration of the late 20th century to the present Written by specialists on the Chinese in Latin America and the Caribbean this book tells the story of Asian migration to the Americas and contributes to a more comprehensive understanding of the Chinese in this important part of the world The Politics of Migration in Indonesia and Beyond Riwanto Tirtosudarmo, 2019-01-22 This book examines the social and political dimensions of migration from a perspective between the realms of demography and politics It approaches the issue of migration by highlighting the important power relations that have previously been neglected in studies in the area The book starts by investigating Indonesian migration to provide an understanding of internal migration It then looks beyond its national borders for a wider understanding of Asia and showcases several case studies both in Indonesia and beyond to illustrate the intricate politics of migration Further it considers the politics of migration from the sending country perspective and unravels the link between migration and security The book provides reviews of the wider literature relating to population mobility and distribution and shows readers how to adopt a new perspective in the study of movement of people an issue that is becoming increasingly important as movement of people unfolds globally in terms of both volume and direction This book is a valuable resource for students academics and researchers in the area of demography and social politics especially those interested in migration and refugees It also offers insights for those interested in understanding decentralization in greater depth

Pencak Silat in the Indonesian Archipelago O'ong Maryono, 2023-03-16 The effort O'ong Maryono has made to compile a book on the development of pencak silat is in itself commendable This integrated presentation provides for a better and more comprehensive understanding of the various aspects of pencak silat As well as discussing the historical aspects of pencak silat O'ong Maryono also examines current issues in pencak silat In other words a retrospective and prospective view of pencak silat I hope that this book will be widely read and provide a lively and substantial critical analysis that will improve the quality of discourse on pencak silat as a whole Edy Sedyawati Director General of Culture Department of Education and Culture This book is quite unique Unique in the literal sense there is no other like it It is quite a remarkable fact that although frequent reference is made to pencak silat in various contexts and it even constitutes a specific type of literature and category of film that relate the heroic stories of its masters never before has a writer attempted to gather comprehensive information about this art of self defence Therefore this book by O'ong Maryono could be said to be uncontested And herein lies its second uniqueness this encyclopedic book was written not by a graduate in the peace and quiet of his study but by an expert in silat in the frenzy of the contest arena Henri Chambert Loir Director Ecole Fran9ais D Extreme Orient

Twentieth-Century Suriname Rosemarijn Höfte, Peter Meel, 2022-07-04 Suriname is a fascinating yet also little known

Caribbean country Fascinating because a unique variety of lifestyles and group identities has characterized this country from its early beginnings as a European plantation colony but even more so since the influx of contract laborers from British India and Java in the nineteenth century Little known because even when attention was focused on the country particularly following a military coup d tat in 1980 this awareness has contributed little to a better understanding of the country s complex developments In fact the media have not unveiled but rather covered the essentials of the evolving Suriname society Combining a broad thematic approach with a focus on long term developments in Suriname 20th Century Suriname consists of fourteen chapters that discuss the main trends with respect to major areas of research Topics such as Surinamese politics and economics as well as its social religious and cultural aspects are covered by the best contemporary specialists on Suriname in the United States the Netherlands and Suriname This volume provides an accessible introduction to Suriname for a general audience including graduate and undergraduate students and an authoritative state of the art review for Suriname specialists

Islamic Higher Education in Indonesia R. Lukens-Bull,2013-11-19 This project looks at the work of the faculty in Indonesia s National Islamic Institutes to address respond and prevent the success of radical Islamic discourse and institution of Shari a law in the school system

Leprosy and colonialism Stephen Snelders,2017-05-31 Leprosy and colonialism investigates the history of leprosy in Suriname within the context of Dutch colonial power and racial conflict from the plantation economy and the age of slavery to the modern colonial state It explores the relationship between the modern stigmatization and exclusion of people affected with leprosy and the political tensions and racial fears originating in colonial slave society exerting their influence until after the decolonization up to the present day In the book colonial sources are read from shifting perspectives of the colonial rulers and from below the ruled Though leprosy is today a neglected tropical disease recognizing influences of our colonial heritage in our global management of health and disease and exploring the perspectives of other cultures are essential in a time in which migration movements make the permeability of boundaries and transmission of diseases more common then perhaps ever before

The Subaltern Indian Woman Prem Misir,2017-11-16 This book focuses on subjugated indentured Indian women who are constantly faced with race gender caste and class oppression and inequality on overseas European owned plantations but who are also armed with latent links to the women s abolition movements in the homeland Also examining their post indenture life it employs a paradigm of male dominated Indian women in India at the margins of an enduringly patriarchal society a persisting backdrop to the huge 19th century post slavery movement of the agricultural indentured workforce drawn largely from India This book depicts the antithetical and contradictory explanations for the indentured Indian women s cries degradation and dehumanization and how the politics of change and control impacted their social organization and its legacy The book owes its origins to the 2017 centennial commemorative event celebrating 100 years of the abolition of the indenture system of Indian labor that victimized and dehumanized Indians from 1834 through 1917      Crescent over Another Horizon Maria del Mar Logroño Narbona, Paulo G. Pinto, John Tofik Karam, 2015-09-15 Muslims have been shaping the Americas and the Caribbean for more than five hundred years yet this interplay is frequently overlooked or misconstrued Brimming with revelations that synthesize area and ethnic studies Crescent over Another Horizon presents a portrait of Islam's unity as it evolved through plural formulations of identity power and belonging Offering a Latino American perspective on a wider Islamic world the editors overturn the conventional perception of Muslim communities in the New World arguing that their characterization as minorities obscures the interplay of ethnicity and religion that continues to foster transnational ties Bringing together studies of Iberian colonists enslaved Africans indentured South Asians migrant Arabs and Latino and Latin American converts the volume captures the power laden processes at work in religious conversion or resistance Throughout each analysis spanning times of inquisition conquest repressive nationalism and anti terror security protocols the authors offer innovative frameworks to probe the ways in which racialized Islam has facilitated the building of new national identities while fostering a double edged marginalization The subjects of the essays transition from imperialism with studies of morisco converts to Christianity West African slave uprisings and Muslim and Hindu South Asian indentured laborers in Dutch Suriname to the contemporary Muslim presence in Argentina Brazil Mexico and Trinidad completed by a timely examination of the United States including Muslim communities in Hispanicized South Florida and the agency of Latina conversion The result is a fresh perspective that opens new horizons for a vibrant range of fields      Caribbean Public Policy Jacqueline Anne Braveboy-wagner, 2018-02-23 This book focuses on public policy issues in Caribbean evaluating current policy and suggests realistic improvements and alternatives It also focuses on following themes economic policy the regional business environment regionalism and integration health care labor and migration and gender      The Politics of Passion Gloria Wekker, 2006 The Politics of Passion centers on an old institution among the Afro Surinamese working class in which women have multiple sexual relationships with both men and women These women reject marriage because of the bonds of dependency it fosters preferring to create their own families of kin lovers and children Gloria Wekker analyzes this phenomenon known as mati work as she vividly describes the lives of Afro Surinamese women She gives an account of women's sexuality that is not limited to either heterosexuality or same sex sexuality Her work offers new perspectives on black women's sexuality the lives of Caribbean women transnational gay and lesbian movements and an Afro Surinamese tradition that challenges conventional Western notions of marriage gender and sexuality By foregrounding the voices of Afro Surinamese women Wekker illuminates these women's daily lives in light of the changes occurring in Surinamese society She also considers the historical religious psychological economic linguistic cultural and political elements that have shaped their lives The book concludes with stories of women who have migrated to the Netherlands where they have created new vibrant mati communities      Dutch Caribbean: Prospects Demo Betty N Sedoc- Dahlberg, 2021-11-14 First Published in 1990 This volume of essays on the Dutch Caribbean considers areas that are of increasing importance on the international scene and on which little has been written The Dutch Caribbean shares many of the features of the French Spanish and English speaking Caribbean Like these other linguistic zones the Dutch Caribbean emerged from a history of slavery and colonialism with economies rooted in or characterized by the plantation system
