A Synopsis of the Gospels Hedley F. D. , 1964      A Gospel Synopsis of the Greek Text of Matthew, Mark and Luke Jenny Read-Heimerdinger, Josep Rius-Camps, 2014-05-12 The aim of this new Gospel Synopsis is to enhance the study of the Synoptic Gospels and provide insights into the synoptic problem through a clear presentation of the Greek text Jenny Read Heimerdinger and Josep Rius Camps set out the Gospels of Matthew Mark and Luke in turn comparing each line by line with the other two A further innovative feature is that the text is presented according to two important Gospel manuscripts Codex Bezae and Codex Vaticanus rather than the usual eclectic edition of the Greek New Testament Thus not only are the differences between the Gospels clearly visible but also the complexity of their relationship is more easily identified through the comparison of two divergent manuscripts representative of distinct traditions      The Johannine synopsis of the gospels H. F. D. Sparks, 1970      The Theology of the Gospel of John Dwight Moody Smith, 1995-01-26 D Moody Smith treats the theology of the Gospel of John in its narrative form and historical context both ancient Jewish and early Christian His work draws upon the most recent scholarly investigations of the Gospel's historical purpose and setting The major theological themes of the Gospel especially its christology are treated in relation to the context of the work since Johannine theology is not simply a by-product of controversies that produced the Gospel but is rather related to them in significant ways As Professor Smith shows John marks an important watershed between Christianity and Judaism His study will thus serve equally well as an introduction to the question of the origin of John and as an introduction to its theology It also consistently pays attention to the relationship of the Gospel to other major New Testament witnesses as well as to its important influence upon the development of later
