The Judicial System In Southern Nigeria 1854 1954:

The judicial system in southern Nigeria, 1854-1954 Omoniye Adewoye, 1954 The Judicial System in Southern Nigeria 1854-1954 Omoniye Adewoye, 1977 Urban Identity and the Atlantic World E. Fay, L. von Morze, 2013-02-21 The constant flow of people ideas and commodities across the Atlantic propelled the development of a public sphere Chapters explore the multiple ways in which a growing urban consciousness influenced national and international cultural and political intersections Native Claims Saliha Belmessous, 2012 This groundbreaking collection of essays shows that from the moment European expansion commenced through to the twentieth century indigenous peoples from America Africa Australia and New Zealand drafted legal strategies to contest dispossession The story of indigenous resistance to European colonization is well known But legal resistance has been wrongly understood to be a relatively recent phenomenon These essays demonstrate how indigenous peoples throughout the world opposed colonization not only with force but also with ideas They made claims to territory using legal arguments drawn from their own understanding of a law that applies between peoples a kind of law of nations comparable to that being developed by Europeans The contributors to this volume argue that in the face of indigenous legal arguments European justifications of colonization should be understood not as an original and originating legal discourse but at least in part as a form of counter claim Native Claims Indigenous Law against Empire 1500 1920 brings together the work of eminent social and legal historians literary scholars and philosophers including Rolena Adorno Lauren Benton Duncan Ivison and Kristin Mann Their combined expertise makes this volume uniquely expansive in its coverage of a crucial issue in global and colonial history The various essays treat sixteenth and seventeenth century Latin America seventeenth and eighteenth century North America including the British colonies and French Canada and nineteenth century Australasia and Africa There is no other book that examines the issue of European dispossession of native peoples in such a way Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania, 1920-1971 Ellen R. Feingold, 2018-02-09 This book is the first study of the development and decolonization of a British colonial high court in Africa It traces the history of the High Court of Tanzania from its establishment in 1920 to the end of its institutional process of decolonization in 1971 This process involved disentangling the High Court from colonial state structures and imperial systems that were built on racial inequality while simultaneously increasing the independence of the judiciary and application of British judicial principles Feingold weaves together the rich history of the Court with a discussion of its judges both as members of the British Colonial Legal Service and as individuals to explore the impacts and intersections of imperial policies national politics and individual initiative Colonial Justice and Decolonization in the High Court of Tanzania is a powerful reminder of the crucial roles played by common law courts in the operation and legitimization of both colonial and post colonial states Crime, Law and Society in Nigeria Rufus Akinyele, Ton Dietz, 2019-05-15 This volume in honour of Stephen Ellis is a follow up to the public presentation of his book on the history of organised crime in Nigeria This Present

Darkness Hurst 2016 at the University of Lagos Nigeria on 28 October 2016 In addition to four papers and a book review presented at this colloquium other contributions about crime in Nigeria have been added written by Nigerian authors In July 2015 Stephen died and he has worked on This Present Darkness almost to his last moments as a senior researcher of the African Studies Centre in Leiden This book also contains a tribute to his life and work written by his wife and scholar Gerrie ter Haar Contributors include A E Akintayo Jackson Aluede Franca Attoh Ayodele Atsenuwa Edmund Chilaka Samson Folarin Gerrie ter Haar Ayodeji Olukaju Abiodun Oluwadare Paul Osifodunrin and Leo Enahoro Otoide Environmental Management and Sustainable Development of Cities Soji Oyeranmi,2023-11-25 This study contends that proper urban environmental management strategies are vital to the sustainable development of cities in any country It demonstrates that cities as drivers of sustainable development can be positive forces in support of social equality cultural vitality economic prosperity and environmental sustainability It takes a primary focus on Ibadan Nigeria Most cities in sub Saharan Africa have become badly degraded Leaders and planners rarely fully grasp the meaning of the concept of sustainable development and fail to combine their bids to achieve economic development with urban environmental management strategies The book describes how reformation and transformation are still possible in Ibadan and elsewhere and discusses the Sustainable Ibadan Project SIP as a methodology to turn Ibadan into a globally competitive and sustainable city It will be of interest to urban planners worldwide and to researchers and students of the Global South Intermediaries, Interpreters, and Clerks Benjamin N. Lawrance,Emily Lynn Osborn,Richard L. Roberts,2006 Publisher description Muslim Law Courts and the French Colonial State in Algeria Allan Christelow,2014-07-14 Allan Christelow examines the Muslim courts of Algeria from 1854 when the French first intervened in Islamic legal matters through the gradual subordination of the courts and judges that went on until World War I Originally published in 1985 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 Nigeria, Nationalism, and Writing History Toyin Falola,Saheed Aderinto,2010 The second half of the 20th century saw the publication of massive amounts of literature on Nigeria by Nigerian and non Nigerian historians This volume reflects on that literature focusing on those works by Nigerians in the context of the rise and the decline of African nationalist historiography Slavery and the Birth of an African City Kristin Mann,2007-09-26 As the slave trade entered its last illegal phase in the 19th century the town of Lagos on West Africa s Bight of Benin became one of the most important port cities north of the equator Slavery and the Birth of an African City explores the reasons for Lagos s sudden rise to power By linking the histories of international slave markets to those of the regional suppliers and slave traders Kristin Mann shows how the African slave trade forever altered the destiny of the tiny kingdom of Lagos This magisterial work uncovers the relationship between African slavery and the growth of one of Africa s most vibrant cities Disrupting Africa Olufunmilayo B.

Arewa,2021-07-29 In the digital era many African countries sit at the crossroads of a potential future that will be shaped by digital era technologies with existing laws and institutions constructed under conditions of colonial and post colonial authoritarian rule In Disrupting Africa Olufunmilayo B Arewa examines this intersection and shows how it encompasses existing and new zones of contestation based on ethnicity religion region age and other sources of division Arewa highlights specific collisions between the old and the new including in the 2020 EndSARS protests in Nigeria which involved young people engaging with varied digital era technologies who provoked a violent response from rulers threatened by the prospect of political change In this groundbreaking work Arewa demonstrates how lawmaking and legal processes during and after colonialism continue to frame contexts in which digital technologies are created implemented regulated and used in Africa today Imperialism and Human Rights Bonny Ibhawoh,2008-01-03 2007 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title In this seminal study Bonny Ibhawoh investigates the links between European imperialism and human rights discourses in African history Using British colonized Nigeria as a case study he examines how diverse interest groups within colonial society deployed the language of rights and liberties to serve varied socioeconomic and political ends Ibhawoh challenges the linear progressivism that dominates human rights scholarship by arguing that in the colonial African context rights discourses were not simple monolithic or progressive narratives They served both to insulate and legitimize power just as much as they facilitated transformative processes Drawing extensively on archival material this book shows how the language of rights like that of civilization and modernity became an important part of the discourses deployed to rationalize and legitimize empire

Thus Ruled Emir Abbas Allen Christelow,2012-01-01 Thus Ruled Emir Abbas is an important new research tool that reveals much about daily life in Kano the wealthiest and most populous emirate of the African Sokoto Caliphate It contains a selection of Kano Judicial Council documents as well as their English translations that deal with matters such as land disputes tax collection disputes and theft These documents are invaluable resources that reveal much about Kano social economic and political life before the region came under the influence of colonial institutions law and language This selection of records for more than 415 cases along with their translations will become essential reading for those interested in Nigeria s past and will certainly become a standard work in the field of Nigerian history and anthropology Family Matters Nkiru

Uwechia Nzegwu,2012-02-01 Prior to European colonialism Igboland a region in Nigeria was a nonpatriarchal nongendered society governed by separate but interdependent political systems for men and women In the last one hundred fifty years the Igbo family has undergone vast structural changes in response to a barrage of cultural forces Critically rereading social practices and oral and written histories of Igbo women and the society Nkiru Uwechia Nzegwu demonstrates how colonial laws edicts and judicial institutions facilitated the creation of gender inequality in Igbo society Nzegwu exposes the unlikely convergence of Western feminist and African male judges assumptions about traditional African values where women are subordinate and oppressed Instead she offers a conception of equality based on historical Igbo family structures and practices that challenges the epistemological and ontological bases of Western feminist inquiry General History of Africa International Scientific Committee for the drafting of a General History of Africa,1985-12-31 One of UNESCO s most important publishing projects in the last thirty years the General History of Africa marks a major breakthrough in the recognition of Africa s cultural heritage Offering an internal perspective of Africa the eight volume work provides a comprehensive approach to the history of ideas civilizations societies and institutions of African history The volumes also discuss historical relationships among Africans as well as multilateral interactions with other cultures and continents

Traditional Cures for Modern Conflicts I. William Zartman,2000 This text identifies contributions of traditional mechanisms for conflict management in Africa and elsewhere With African conflicts eluding efforts to be controlled this work is guided by the question can traditional methods yield insights and approaches that might help end the violence

Between Equal Rights China Miéville,2006 China Mieville s brilliantly original book is an indispensable guide for anyone concerned with international law It is the most comprehensive scholarly account available of the central theoretical debates about the foundations of international law It offers a guide for the lay reader into the central texts in the field Peter Gowan Professor International Relations London Metropolitan University Mieville critically examines existing theories of international law and offers a compelling alternative Marxist view China Mieville PhD International Relations London School of Economics is an independent researcher and an award winning novelist His novel Perdido Street Station won the Arthur C Clarke Award

Exploring the Occult and Paranormal in West Africa Josephat Obi Oguejiofor,Tobias Wendl,2012 The point of departure for this book is a phenomenon which is often referred to as the return of the religious a recent but apparently ubiquitous phenomenon which does not fit the modernist axiom of secularization neither in the developed nor the developing worlds In Africa the last two decades have witnessed a remarkable and steady increase in the spread and reinforcement of occult and paranormal phenomena The reports on these developments are not restricted to specific countries or areas they cover the whole continent and surface in the most diverse images media stories and rumors The credence accorded to them has become an important factor that shapes social relationships in everyday life economic and political actions medical decisions and religious adherence Series African Studies Afrikanische Studien Vol 47 The Institution of the Seminary and the Training of Catholic Priests in South-Eastern Nigeria (1885-1970) Angelo Chidi Unegbu ,2019-05 Today we can no longer hide under the pretence that the grace of God alone suffices to make one a good priest A close study of the history of priestly formation has shown that not just the training of priests can ensure an authentic priest product rather a continuous effort to adapt the training to the current world situation so that priests would be in the position to discharge their duties effectively Such readiness to adaptability should of course not lose sight of the meaning and function of the priest as revealed in the person of Jesus a service to the world In the bid to assess the models for the training of priests in South eastern Nigeria the author using a historical critical method traced the history of the models and events that shaped the current modules for the training of priests in South eastern Nigeria At the end of the historical research he proffered some suggestions for improvement amendment and solidification of the training of priests in the area As one of the younger African churches the examination of the training of priests in South eastern Nigeria will also serve as a paradigm or typology for understanding the dynamics and the process of training of priests in other African countries since most of these local churches share relatively similar historical cultural economic and socio political circumstances
