Weiss,Valerie J. Fletcher,Kathryn A. Containing eighty two color illustrations and sixty eight duotones the catalogue explores the Fernande portraits and related works as a single oeuvre culminating in the magnificent Head of a Woman Fernande one of Picasso s rare pre 1912 excursions into sculpture By so doing it allows us to examine Picasso s process in an unprecedented fashion What emerges is a new picture of the artist pursuing his subject with obsessive repetition and struggling to resolve artistic problems during a time of crisis in his work Also included are previously unpublished studio photographs that offer further insight into the conceptual nature of the artist s process The text narrates the internal development of the Fernande portrait series situates it within the broader history of representation and considers the powerful impact of C zanne on Picasso s work during this period Seizing a single extended moment in the early history of Cubism this catalogue reveals Cubism s great achievement its startling invention its remarkable expressive power and its profound formal and psychological implications for modern art
