The Place Of The Self In Being:

The Llewellyn Practical Guide to Psychic Self-defense & Well-being Melita Denning,Osborne Phillips,2002-09
Deliberate psychic attack is very rare However your psyche is constantly under attack from friends and strangers advertisers and politicians who want to manipulate you Luckily there is a solution Denning and Phillips Practical Guide to Psychic Self Defense The best way to overcome attacks on your psyche is through awareness that they are occurring This requires you to become more awake and alert to this bombardment Part of the technique is to understand how this attempted manipulation works By studying this book you will gain that knowledge The result is that the psychological intimidation that has been used on you in the past will no longer control you There are two types of psychic attack The first kind is attack by a person who has not had any occult training He or she may feel slighted or betrayed by you based on actual or imagined situations and hold on to negative emotions Eventually unknown to that person the negative energy can leap out directed at you This book reveals that your aura is your best line of defense By using the exercises in this book to strengthen your aura any such unintentional psychic attack will easily be dispelled and discharged Even more rare is the classic psychic attack where a person does some sort of spell or ritual to harm you Full instructions are given for overcoming such negative magick both on a practical physical level sever any physical connection between you and the attacker and on a ritual spiritual level perform blessings and rites to overcome psychic attack But what happens if an attack does get through First you have to know how to recognize it Usually a successful attack strikes at your weak link That could be your physical health causing illness or your mental attitude causing depression This book will show you how to recognize the problem and how to deal with it effectively

Jean-Luc Nancy and the Question of Community Ignaas Devisch,2013-05-23 This book remedies a gap in the on going debate on community by a transparent and thorough analysis of the work of French philosopher Jean Luc Nancy

The Gift of Being Yourself David G. Benner,2015-09-24 In the expanded edition of this profound exploration of Christian identity David G Benner illuminates the spirituality of self discovery He exposes the false selves that you may hide behind and calls you to discover the true self that emerges from your uniqueness in Christ Deepen your experience of God through discovering the gift of being yourself

The Loss of Self: Self-Writing as a Tool in Borderline Psychoanalysis Jean-François Chiantaretto,2025-04-01 The Loss of Self considers distinctions and connections between the writing of survival and survival as a mode of being and thinking encountered in analytic work with borderline patients Jean Francois Chiantaretto draws a parallel between Freud s use of writing in constructing the psychoanalytic edifice and the way each analyst may turn to writing when reflecting on a patient s analysis With close reference to the writings of Imre Kert sz the book brings a unique perspective to the literary and historical concept of survival The Loss of Self will be of interest to psychoanalysts in practice and in training

Philosophies of Place Peter D. Hershock,Roger T. Ames,2019-06-30
Humanity takes up space Human beings like many other species also transform spaces What is perhaps uniquely human is the disposition to qualitatively transform spaces into places that are charged with distinctive kinds of intergenerational significance. There is a profound felt difference between a house as domestic space and a home as familial place or between the summit of a mountain one has climbed for the first time and the same rock pinnacle celebrated in ancestral narratives. Contemporary philosophical uses of the word place often pivot on the distinction between space and place formalized by geographer philosopher Yi fu Tuan who suggested that places incorporate the experiences and aspirations of a people over the course of their moral and aesthetic engagement with sites and locations. While spaces afford possibilities for different kinds of presence, physical, emotional, cognitive, dramatic, spiritual, places emerge as different ways of being present, fuse over time and saturate a locale with distinctively collaborative patterns of significance. This approach to issues of place, however, is emblematic of what Edward S. Casey has argued are convictions about the primacy of absolute space and time that evolved along with the progressive dominance of the scientific imagination and modern imaginations of the universal. The recent reappearance of place in Western philosophy represents a turn away from abstract and a priori reasoning and back toward phenomenal experience and the primacy of embodied and emplaced intelligence. Places are enacted through the sustainably shared practices of mutually responsive and mutually vulnerable agents and are as numerous in kind as we are divergent in the patterns of values and intentions. The contributors to this volume draw on resources from Asian, European, and North American traditions of thought to engage in intercultural reflection on the significance of place in philosophy and of the place of philosophy itself in the cultural, social, economic, and political domains of contemporary life. The conversation of place that results explores the meaning of intercultural philosophy, the critical interplay of place and personal identity, the meaning of appropriate emplacement, the shared place of politics and religion, and the nature of the emotionally emplaced body.

Making Place, Making Self Inger Birkeland, 2017-03-02. Making Place, Making Self explores new understandings of place and place making in late modernity, covering key themes of place and space, tourism and mobility, sexual difference and subjectivity. Using a series of individual life stories, it develops a fascinating polyvocal account of leisure and life journeys. These stories focus on journeys made to the North Cape in Norway, the most northern point of mainland Europe, which is both a tourist destination and an evocation of a reliable and secure point of reference, an idea that gives meaning to an individual's life. The theoretical core of the book draws on an interweaving of post-Lacanian versions of feminist psychoanalytical thinking with phenomenological and existential thinking, where place making is linked with self making and homecoming. By combining such ground-breaking theory with her innovative use of case studies, Inger Birkeland here provides a major contribution to the fields of cultural geography, tourism, and feminist studies.

Prioritising Wellbeing and Self-Care in Higher Education Narelle Lemon, 2024-07-11. This book illuminates international voices of those who feel empowered to do things differently in higher education, providing inspiration to those who are seeking guidance, reassurance, or a beacon of hope. Doing things differently comes with an awareness and curiosity to explore what can be. Increasingly more and more professionals in higher education are choosing themselves happiness families relationships kindness and compassion over arbitrary notions of institutional prestige continuous pressure to overwork and competitiveness with others The chapters in this book do more than highlight flaws in the system they call for proactive engagement in interrupting and reimagining what is broken The authors share their own experiences as a way of encouraging readers to take small steps towards self care to notice their surroundings and to embrace change as an empowering tool The focus is on becoming the change we aspire to see with a collective readiness to instigate positive transformations Sharing ambitious ideas to encourage change this book is a valuable resource for those seeking to enhance their self care and wellbeing in the higher education context and for those seeking to engage with others in support of these efforts

Mind, Body and Self Purushottama Bilimoria, Jaysankar Lal Shaw, Anand Vaidya, Michael Hemmingsen, 2024-12-10 This book is a unique collaboration of philosophers from across the world bringing together contemporary concepts of consciousness the Mori conception of self as well as Indian and Buddhist concepts of self and mental states Contemporary concepts of consciousness include higher order consciousness and phenomenological approaches The idea behind this volume came from an international conference on Mind Body and Self held at Victoria University of Wellington organized by the Society for Philosophy and Culture The authors herein contribute to the relationship between concepts of self mind and body The wide variety of contributors from across cultural backgrounds adds to a diverse and valuable conversation on the nature of human existence and thoughts of self This book appeals to students and researchers working in philosophy and religious studies
