The Siren Years Charles Ritchie, 2011-10-05 Charles Ritchie one of Canada's most distinguished diplomats was a born diarist a man whose daily record of his life is so well written that it leaps from the page In wartime England Ritchie as Second Secretary at the Canadian High Commission served as private secretary to Vincent Massey whose second in command was Lester B Pearson future prime minister of Canada In a perfect position to observe both statecraft and the London social whirl that continued even during the war Ritchie provides a fascinating perceptive and surprisingly humorous picture of the London Blitz the people in the parks the shabby streets the heightened love affairs and the vagaries of the British at war There are also glimpses of the great and portraits of noted artists and writers that he knew well A vivid document of a period and a wonderful piece of writing The Siren Years has become a classic LEAA Police Equipment Survey of 1972: Sirens and emergency warning lights, 1975 NBS Special Publication, 1918 LEAA Police Equipment Survey of 1972, 1975 Annual Report of the New York Zoological Society New York Zoological Society, 1919 George Broomhall's Corn Trade News, 1911 People, Politics, and Purpose Greg Donaghy, P. Whitney Lackenbauer, 2023-02-15 Biography is not on the periphery of history but in the middle of it historian Peter Waite astutely remarked People Politics and Purpose brings the historian's myriad tools to bear on Canadians from prime ministers to lumberjacks to Indigenous leaders Drawing on the rich details of biography the what the contributors also address the larger questions of motivation the so what that drive history In the process they prove the value of analyzing both macro and micro dynamics within Canadian politics and society to illuminate the roles of political actors As such the biographies in People Politics and Purpose are not simply stories about the lives of individuals but critical reflections on subjects who are directly involved in and affected by politics in Canada This book makes for lively reading that stimulates fresh thinking about political biography and the direction of political history more generally Elizabeth Bowen Patricia Laurence, 2021-07-21 Elizabeth Bowen A Literary Life reinvents Bowen as a public intellectual propagandist spy cultural ambassador journalist and essayist as well as a writer of fiction Patricia Laurence counters the popular image of Bowen as a mannered reserved Anglo Irish writer and presents her as a bold independent woman who took risks and made her own rules in life and writing This biography distinguishes itself from others in the depth of research into the life experiences that fueled Bowen's writing her espionage for the British Ministry of Information in neutral Ireland 1940 1941 and the devoted circle of friends lovers intellectuals and writers whom she valued Isaiah Berlin William Plomer Maurice Bowra Stuart Hampshire Charles Ritchie Sean O Faolain Virginia Woolf Rosamond Lehmann and Eudora Welty among others The biography also demonstrates how her feelings of irresolution about national identity and gender roles were dispelled through her writing Her vivid fiction often about girls and women is laced with irony about smooth social surfaces rent by disruptive emotion the sadness of beleaguered adolescents the occurrence of cultural dislocation historical atmosphere as well as undercurrents of violence in small events and betrayal and disappointment in romance Her strong visual imagination so much a part of the texture of her writing traces places scenes landscapes and objects that subliminally reveal hidden aspects of her characters Though her reputation faltered in the 1960s 1970s given her political and social conservatism now readers are discovering her passionate and poetic temperament and writing as well as the historical consciousness behind her worldly exterior and writing Queen Bees Siân
