Sister Nations Heid E. Erdrich, Laura Tohe, 2010-06 This anthology of fiction prose and poetry celebrates the rich diversity of writing by Native American women today Editors Heid E Erdrich and Laura Tohe have gathered stories from across the nation that celebrate record and explore Native American women's roles in community The result is a rich tapestry that contains work by established writers along with emerging and first time authors Contributors include Louise Erdrich Joy Harjo Diane Glancy Elizabeth Cook Lynn Allison Hedge Coke LeAnne Howe Roberta Hill Kim Blaeser Linda LeGarde Grover with a foreword by Winona LaDuke The writings included range from the personal to the political from notions of romantic love to the realities of marriage from finding a place in modern society to incorporating tradition in daily life Whether it's Louise Erdrich's heartbreaking story The Shawl Diane Glancy's tightly distilled poems or Joy Harjo's elegant and fanciful How to Get to Planet Venus all of these works explore both what it means to be a woman and how those realities are complicated by the Native American experience The editors have divided these lively and thought provoking pieces into four sections Changing Women which deals with the stages of a woman's life awareness of female ancestors and women's traditions of healing and making art Strong Hearts which shows Indian women enduring with love defending with fierce judgment and reaching out across history to protect the people New Age Pocahontas which reveals the humor and complexity of stereotypes and simplified images of Native American women and In the Arms of the Skies which explores the ways in which typical notions about romantic love and marriage are put to the test Sister Nations also includes full biographies of all the contributors commentary from many of the authors on their work and a bibliography of relevant publications

Early Modernity and Mobility Sebouh David Aslanian, 2023-06-27 A history of the continent spanning Armenian print tradition in the early modern period Early Modernity and Mobility explores the disparate yet connected histories of Armenian printing establishments in early modern Europe and Asia From 1512 when the first Armenian printed codex appeared in Venice to the end of the early modern period in 1800 Armenian presses operated in nineteen locations across the Armenian diaspora Linking far flung locations in Amsterdam Livorno Marseille Saint Petersburg and Astrakhan to New Julfa Madras and Calcutta Armenian presses published a thousand editions with more than half a million printed volumes in Armenian script Drawing on extensive archival research Sebouh David Aslanian explores why certain books were published at certain times how books were sold across the diaspora who read them and how the printed word helped fashion a new collective identity for early modern Armenians In examining the Armenian print tradition Aslanian tells a larger story about the making of the diaspora itself Arguing that confessionalism and the hardening of boundaries between the Armenian and Roman churches was the driving engine of Armenian book history Aslanian makes a revisionist contribution to the early modern origins of Armenian nationalism     Parliamentary Studies ,1963     The Agricultural Economist and Horticultural Review ,1912     Remapping World Cinema Stephanie Dennison, Song Hwee Lim, 2006 Covering a broad scope this collection examines the cinemas of Europe East Asia India Africa and Latin America and will be of interest to scholars and students of film studies cultural studies and postcolonial studies as well as to film enthusiasts keen to explore a wider range of world cinema Jacket     House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada. Chamberlin, 2025-12-01 How the United States confrontation with North African raiders established its legitimacy on the world stage For the fledgling United States of America the first major foray onto the international stage came off the North African coast in the waters of the Mediterranean Sea When Barbary corsairs preyed on American merchant ships their young government and new navy were compelled to step in Barbary Entanglements shows how interactions with the Barbary states the independent empire of Morocco and the semi autonomous Ottoman regencies of Algiers Tunis and Tripoli over the issue of privateering transcended economic grievances and allowed American consuls and servicemen to demonstrate the viability and reliability of their new nation within the European diplomatic system More than simply protecting trade US intervention against Barbary corsairs between 1784 and 1825 aimed to establish American sovereignty and demonstrate treaty worthiness to their European sister nations In this deeply researched and insightful study John Chamberlin not only offers a granular account of how the Barbary system of corsairing and ransom slavery worked over four decades He also highlights nascent federal authorities coordinating diplomatic efforts with lesser European powers such as Sweden and Denmark to gain legitimacy and he makes unprecedented use of Arabic language sources to reframe what we know about the development of early American foreign policy In the process he offers a dramatic retelling of how the United States first announced itself as a force to be reckoned with on the international scene     The Alkaloidal Clinic ,1902     Reports of Committees and Discussions Thereon ,1890     Excursion Appendix ,1890     Report of the Delegates of the United States of America to the Seventh International Conference of American States, Montevideo, Uruguay, December 3-26, 1933 ,1934
