The New Age in the Modern West Nicholas Campion, 2015-11-19 New Age culture is generally regarded as a modern manifestation of Western millenarianism a concept built around the expectation of an imminent historical crisis followed by the inauguration of a golden age which occupies a key place in the history of Western ideas The New Age in the Modern West argues that New Age culture is part of a family of ideas including utopianism which construct alternative futures and drive revolutionary change Nicholas Campion traces New Age ideas back to ancient cosmology and questions the concepts of the Enlightenment and the theory of progress He considers the contributions of the key figures of the 18th century the legacy of the astronomer Isaac Newton and the Swedish visionary Emanuel Swedenborg as well as the theosophist H P Blavatsky the psychologist C G Jung and the writer and artist Jose Arguelles He also pays particular attention to the beat writers of the 1950s the counterculture of the 1960s concepts of the Aquarian Age and prophecies of the end of the Maya Calendar in 2012 Lastly he examines neoconservatism as both a reaction against the 1960s and as a utopian phenomenon The New Age in the Modern West is an important book for anyone interested in countercultural and revolutionary ideas in the modern West over drug policy And even as Martin Torgoff tells the story of his own addiction and recovery he neither romanticizes nor demonizes drugs If he finds them less dangerous than the moral crusaders say they are he also finds them less benign than advocates insist Illegal drugs changed the cultural landscape of America and they continue to shape our country with enormous consequences This ambitious fascinating book is the story of how that happened
