book contains conversations with nineteen African American classical musicians currently performing or who have previously performed in America's major symphony orchestras. Each chapter focuses on the story of one musician and sheds light on the realities of African American musicians playing in a musical environment that absolutely forbade their membership over half a century ago. These conversations explore the deeply ingrained prejudices that some hold against African American people in symphony orchestras, conservatories, and other musical institutions. By amplifying these voices, the book provides a variety of perspectives on the almost cloistered world of these beloved institutions. The stories and lessons shared in this book will be invaluable to music students, teachers, and orchestral professionals.

Welcome to The Magic Wallet: A Kid's Guide to Financial Freedom, a thrilling fantasy story designed to teach kids ages 5 to 15 the most important money lessons through an unforgettable journey. And before Max knows it, he is whisked away into the mystical land of Fortunaria, where enchanted markets, golden coins, and tricky challenges await. A Magical Journey Through the World of Money. Guided by the wise and witty Magic Wallet, Max embarks on a series of thrilling adventures where he learns how money works. Along the way, he meets talking gold coins, wise shopkeepers, and even mischievous money gremlins who try to trick him into making bad choices. He faces challenges like The Shopkeeper's Riddle: Can Max figure out how to spend wisely instead of wasting all his money at once? The River of Gold: A magical place where money flows endlessly, but only those who understand the value of saving can take some home. The Forest of Lost Coins: Where forgotten money hides, waiting to be found by those who pay attention to their spending habits. The Investing Island: A mysterious place where money can grow if Max learns how to make smart decisions.
