Sunday Mirror Holborn Circus, 1975-07-13 Sport in South Asian Society Boria Majumdar, J A Mangan, 2013-09-13 A detailed study of sports arrival spread and advance in colonial and post colonial South

Asia A selection of articles addresses critical issues of nationalism communalism commercialism and gender through the lens of sport This book makes the point that the social histories of South Asian sport cannot be understood by simply looking at the history of the game in one province or region Furthermore it demonstrates that it would be wrong to understand sport in terms of the exigencies of the colonial state Drawing inspiration from C L R James well known epigram What do they know of cricket who only cricket know the findings suggest that South Asian sport makes sense only when it is placed within the broader colonial and post colonial context The book demonstrates that sport not only influences politics and vice versa but that the two are inseparable Sport is not only political it is politics intrigue culture and art To deny this is to denigrate the position of sport in modern South Asian society This volume was previously published as a special issue of The International Journal of the History of Sport
