

Smoke

Every time I need a re-set
Like when I move in Want to get rid of the past
Wash away density and negativity
I burn sage
Smoke palo santo
Smudge incense
Dropping the ash
Allowing the smoke to fill
And then to clear away

Smoke Poems:

Smoke Dorianne Laux, 2013-12-20 Dorianne Laux's long awaited third book of poetry follows her collection What We Carry a finalist for the 1994 National Book Critics Circle Award for Poetry. In Smoke Laux revisits familiar themes of family, working class lives and the pleasures of the body in poetry that is vital and artfully crafted, poetry that gets hard in the face of aloofness in the words of one reviewer. In Smoke as in her previous work Laux weaves the warp and woof of ordinary lives into extraordinary and complex tapestries. In The Shipfitter's Wife a woman recalls her husband's homecoming at the end of his work day: Then I'd open his clothes and take the whole day inside me: the ship's gray sides, the miles of copper pipe, the voice of the foreman clanging off the hull's silver ribs, Spark of lead kissing metal, The clamp, the winch, the white fire of the torch, the whistle and the long drive home. And in the title poem Laux muses on her own guilty pleasures: Who would want to give it up, the coal, a cat's eye in the dark room, no one there but you and your smoke, the window cracked to street sounds, the distant cries of living things. Alone you are almost safe. With her keen ear and attentive eye Dorianne Laux offers us a universe with which we are familiar but gives it to us fresh. Dorianne Laux is the author of two previous collections of poetry from BOA Editions Ltd and is co-author with Kim Addonizio of The Poet's Companion: A Guide to the Joys of Writing Poetry W.W. Norton 1997, chosen as an alternate selection by several bookclubs. Laux was the judge for the 2012 A. Poulin Jr Poetry Contest and is a tenured professor in the creative writing program at the University of Oregon. Laux lives in Eugene, Oregon.

Smoke Jeanne Bryner, 2012 Poems Smoke Ayesha Faines, 2016-01-06 Smoke is a soulful, sensual exploration of love through the eyes of a woman who spent much of her twenties walking the periphery. From the impassioned locks to the tongue in cheek arithmetic, Smoke pleasurable swings between eroticism, fantasy and full on confessional. Rich in narrative lyricism and astonishing candor, Smoke infuses an age old subject with sobering observations about sexuality, politics, race, longing and as the title alludes, the startling power of bad habits. Fog and Smoke Katie Peterson, 2024-01-02 Peterson unfurls the quotidian fabric of our lives, patterned with the difficulties of language and this moment. Confusion frames the human predicament. In Katie Peterson's Fog and Smoke, confusion is literally our climate. Writing to and from the California landscape, Peterson sees fog and smoke as literal, one a habitual natural weather event, the other an increasingly common aftereffect of the West's drought caused fires. But they are also metaphysical. Fog and smoke reflect the true conditions and frustrations of our ability to perceive and to connect. Peterson writes, I've been speaking about it at a distance. Now I want to talk about its thickness. A person could get killed in here. The collection moves through three sections. First, the poet follows her local fog's cyclical journey of descent and dispersion. Second, in a sort of pastoral interlude, she travels widely, almost erratically, to the California desert, the greater world and ancient history. Finally, she descends into the enclosed space of the household and the increased confinement and intimacy of raising a child during the pandemic. Peterson unfolds the small moments that make up our lives and reveals the truths contained within them, and her poems capture the lyricism of our daily

Every culture in recorded history has smoked something whether for pleasure or relief whether as part of an elaborate religious ritual or merely to strike a pose This is the first truly comprehensive history of smoking describinbg all of its forms practices paraphernalia and materials in cultures locations and times throughout the world White Smoke Robert Herz,1977 Smoke Signals Ashley Dun,2016-11-14 This is a chronicle of life seasons heartbreak and healing Poems to make you feel less alone loved understood The light fades and sometimes seems so far away but spring will always come The sun is always just behind the clouds We hold on together and these words create the rope that can lift us out of the hole that so easily catches us Grab on Let it lift you Smoke Charles Hine,Joan Mitchell,1989 Freedom to Smoke Jarrett Rudy,2005-09-30 In the late Victorian era smoking was a male habit and tobacco was consumed mostly in pipes and cigars By the mid twentieth century advertising and movies had not only made it acceptable for women to smoke but smoking had become a potent symbol of their emancipation From mass cigarette production in 1888 to the first studies linking cigarettes to lung cancer in 1950 The Freedom to Smoke explores gender and other key issues related to smoking in Montreal including the arrival of big tobacco first attempts to ban the cigarette wartime tobacco funds French Canadian smoking habits rituals of manliness and the growing respectability of women smokers none of which have been examined by historians Jarrett Rudy argues that while people smoked for highly personal reasons their smoking rituals were embedded in social relations and shaped by dominant norms of taste and etiquette The Freedom to Smoke examines the role of the tobacco industry health experts churches farmers newspapers the military the state and smokers themselves A pioneering city based study it weaves Western understandings of respectable smoking through Montreal s diverse social and cultural fabric Rudy argues that etiquette gave smoking a political role reflecting and serving to legitimize beliefs about inclusion exclusion and hierarchy that were at the core of a transforming liberal order Ancient Poems, Ballads, and Songs of the Peasantry of England Robert Bell,2020-09-28 In 1846 the Percy Society issued to its members a volume entitled Ancient Poems Ballads and Songs of the Peasantry of England edited by Mr James Henry Dixon The sources drawn upon by Mr Dixon are intimated in the following extract from his preface He who in travelling through the rural districts of England has made the road side inn his resting place who has visited the lowly dwellings of the villagers and yeomanry and been present at their feasts and festivals must have observed that there are certain old poems ballads and songs which are favourites with the masses and have been said and sung from generation to generation This traditional and for the most part unprinted literature cherished in remote villages resisting everywhere the invasion of modern namby pamby verse and jaunty melody and possessing in an historical point of view especial value as a faithful record of the feeling usages and modes of life of the rural population had been almost wholly passed over amongst the antiquarian revivals which constitute one of the distinguishing features of the present age While attention was successfully drawn to other forms of our early poetry this peasant minstrelsy was scarcely touched and might be considered unexplored ground There was great difficulty in collecting materials which lay scattered so widely and which could be procured in their genuine simplicity only from the people amongst whom they originated and with whom they are as familiar as household words It was even still more difficult to find an editor who combined genial literary taste with the local knowledge of character customs and dialect indispensable to the collation of such reliques and thus although their national interest was universally recognised they were silently permitted to fall into comparative oblivion To supply this manifest desideratum Mr Dixon compiled his volume for the Percy Society and its pages embracing only a selection from the rich stores he had gathered abundantly exemplified that gentleman s remarkable qualifications for the labour he had undertaken After stating in his preface that contributions from various quarters had accumulated so largely on his hands as to compel him to omit many pieces he was desirous of preserving Ancient poems, ballads and songs of the peasantry of England Robert Bell,1857 Ancient Poems, Ballads and Songs of the Peasantry of England James Henry Dixon,1857 Ancient Poems, Ballads and Songs of the Peasantry of England, taken down from oral recitation and transcribed from private manuscripts, rare broadsides, and scarce publications. Edited by R. Bell Robert BELL (Author of "The Life of Canning.".),1857
