The Breakdown Of Authority:

The Breakdown of Authority Structure in Korea in 1960 Yong-p'il Yi, 1984 The End of Authority Douglas E. Schoen, 2013-11-07 Around the world citizens have lost faith in their political and economic institutions leading to unprecedented levels of political instability and economic volatility From Moscow to Brussels from Washington to Cairo the failure of democracies and autocracies to manage the fiscal and political crises facing us has led to a profound disquiet spawning protest movements of the left right and center In The End of Authority Douglas E Schoen systematically analyzes the leadership crises facing democracies and autocratic governments alike He presents a firsthand detailed assessment for why this collapse in trust happened and offers a comprehensive blueprint for how we can restore public trust in government and economic institutions in a world of division dissension and governments clearly lacking in responsiveness to citizen concerns Schoen outlines bold and clear solutions and offers practical steps to fix our democracy and rebuild international institutions The Breakdown of the State in Lebanon, 1967-1976 Farid El-Khazen, 2000 Straddling the boundaries of politics and history Farid el Khazens arresting book shows how Lebanon was led toward its fate by its neighbors yet ultimately undid itself The PLO s presence was of central importance to the breakdown of the state while the porousness of the democratic system could not contain the problems and violence Ceiling Collapse in the PATH (Port Authority Trans-Hudson) Journal Square Transportation Center, Jersey City, N.J. United States. Congress. House. Committee on Public Works and Transportation, 1984 Non-State Actors and Authority in the Global System Andreas Bieler, Richard Higgott, Geoffrey Underhill, 2004-01-14 Traditionally in International Relations power and authority were considered to rest with states But recently in the light of changes associated with globalisation this has come under scrutiny both empirically and theoretically This book analyses the continuing but changing role of states in the international arena and their relationships with a wide range of non state actors which possess increasingly salient capabilities to structure global politics and economics The New Authority Haim Omer, 2010-11-15 Haim Omer builds on his previous work to present a model of authority for parents teachers and community workers that is suitable for today s free and pluralistic societies This new authority contrasts with traditional authority in that it emphasizes self control and persistence over control of the child a network of support over a strict hierarchy taking mutual responsibility for escalations over holding the child solely responsible patience over threats non violent resistance over physical force and transparency over secrecy In addition to a thorough discussion of the underlying theory The New Authority presents a practical program for families schools and communities Dr Omer provides specific instructions to combat violence and risky behavior at home and in school increase parent and teacher interest and support and implement interventions that increase safety improve atmosphere and generate community cohesiveness Power, Authority, and the Anabaptist Tradition Benjamin W. Redekop, Calvin Redekop, 2003-04-01 Founded in part on a rejection of worldly power and the use of force Anabaptism carried with it the promise of redemptive power Yet the attempt to banish worldly power to the margins of the Christian community has been fraught with dilemmas contradictions and at times blatant abuses of authority In this groundbreaking book Benjamin W Redekop Calvin W Redekop and their coauthors draw on classic and contemporary thinking to confront the issue of power and authority in the Anabaptist Mennonite community From the power relationships of the sixteenth century Peasants War to issues of contemporary sexuality the topics of Power Authority and the Anabaptist Tradition are sure to interest a wide audience Contributors Stephen C Ainlay College of the Holy Cross J Lawrence Burkholder President Emeritus Goshen College Lydia Neufeld Harder Toronto School of Theology Joel Hartman University of Missouri Jacob A Loewen missionary retired Dorothy Yoder Nyce Writer and former Assistant Professor Goshen College Lynda Nyce Bluffton College Wesley Prieb deceased former dean Tabor College Benjamin W Redekop Kettering University Calvin W Redekop Conrad Grebel College emeritus James M Stayer Queen s University Ontario The Crisis of Authority in Catholic Modernity Michael J.

Lacey, Francis Oakley, 2011-04-06 It is fairly clear that while Rome continues to teach as if its authority were unchanged from the days before Vatican II 1962-65 the majority of Catholics within the first world church at least take a far more independent line and increasingly understand themselves rather than the church as the final arbiter of decision making especially on ethical questions This collection of essays explores the historical background and present ecclesial situation explaining the dramatic shift in attitude on the part of contemporary Catholics in the U S and Europe Authority in the Modern State (Works of Harold J. Laski) Harold J. Laski, 2014-10-30 As a sequel to Studies in the Problem of Sovereignty this volume originally published in 1919 expands Laski s pluralist doctrine of the state using France as its reference but covers rather broader ground since its main object is to insist that the problem of sovereignty is only a special case of the problem of authority The result is a positive constructive analysis of politics and the theory of the state which examines the division and organisation of power the limitations of power and the significance of freedom the political theory of Bonald the revival of traditionalism and the role of the Church and the Civil Service The Breakdown of Authority Gordon Talbot, 1976

Investigation of the Tennessee Valley Authority United States. Congress. Joint Committee to Investigate Tennessee Valley Authority, 1939 Authority in the Modern State Harold Joseph Laski, 1919 This volume is some sort the sequel to a book on the problem of sovereignty which I published in March 1917 Preface Coalition Provisional Authority's Experience with Public Security in Iraq Robert M. Perito, 2008-10 Authority, Identity and the Social History of the Great War Frans Coetzee, Marilyn Shevin-Coetzee, 1995 The unprecedented scope and intensity of the First World War has prompted an enormous body of retrospective scholarship However efforts to provide a coherent synthesis about the war s impact and significance have remained circumscribed tending to focus either on the operational outlines of military strategy and tactics or on the cultural legacy of the conflict as transmitted by the war s most articulate observers This volume departs from traditional accounts on several scores by exploring issues barely touched upon in previous works by deviating from the widespread tendency to treat the experiences of front and homefront isolation and by employing a thematic treatment that by considering the construction of authority and identity between 1914 and 1918 illuminates the fundamental question of how individuals whether in uniform or not endured the war's intrusion into so many aspects of their public and private lives

University Authority and the Student C. Michael Otten, 1970 An analysis of the crisis of legitimacy on American campuses in terms of the inherent dilemmas of organizational control The author traces the origins of traditional student government and administrative paternalism He shows that despite the willingness of most students in former years to be co-opted into a more or less unified system of control activist students never regarded the structure as legitimate The author contends that the crisis of university authority is just one manifestation of a deeper rebellion against the dominant organizational trend in modern society a trend toward greater administrative centralization based upon planning and rational coordination

International Authority and the Responsibility to Protect Anne Orford, 2011-01-20 The idea that states and the international community have a responsibility to protect populations at risk has framed internationalist debates about conflict prevention humanitarian aid peacekeeping and territorial administration since 2001 This book situates the responsibility to protect concept in a broad historical and jurisprudential context demonstrating that the appeal to protection as the basis for de facto authority has emerged at times of civil war or revolution the Protestant revolutions of early modern Europe the bourgeois and communist revolutions of the following centuries and the revolution that is decolonisation This analysis from Hobbes to the UN of the resulting attempts to ground authority on the capacity to guarantee security and protection is essential reading for all those seeking to understand engage with limit or critique the expansive practices of international executive action authorised by the responsibility to protect concept

The Duties, Responsibilities and Authority of NCO's, 1984 Decisions of the Federal Labor Relations Authority United States. Federal Labor Relations Authority, 1992

The Experience of Authority in Early Modern England Adam Fox, Paul Griffiths, Steve Hindle, 1996-08-16 This collection is concerned with the articulation mediation and reception of authority the preoccupations and aspirations of both governors and governed in early modern England It explores the nature of authority and the cultural and social experiences of all social groups especially insubordinates These essays probe in depth the ways in which young people responded to adults women to men workers to masters and the common sort to their betters Early modern people were not passive receptacles of principles of authority as communicated in for example sermons statutes and legal process They actively contributed to the process of government thereby exposing its strengths weaknesses and ambiguities In discussing these issues the contributors provide fresh points of entry to a period of significant cultural and socio-economic change
