The Canadian Family In Comparative Perspective:

The Canadian Family in Comparative Perspective Lyle Eugene Larson, 1976 The Canadian Family Karigoudar Ishwaran, 1983 Canadian Family Policies Maureen Baker, 1995-01-01 With poverty unemployment and one parent families on the rise in most Western democracies government assistance presents an increasingly urgent and complex problem This is the first study to explore Canada s family policies in an international context Maureen Baker looks at the successes and failures of social programs in other countries in search of solutions that might work in Canada Baker has chosen seven industrialized countries for her comparative study Australia France Germany The Netherlands Sweden the United Kingdom and the United States These countries experience social and economic strains similar to those felt in Canada and though they share certain policy solutions major differences in policy remain Baker considers which of the policies in these countries are most effective in reducing poverty enhancing family life and improving the status of women then applies her findings to the Canadian situation Bringing together research and statistics from the fields of demography political science economics sociology women s studies and social policy this rich multidisciplinary study provides a unique resource for anyone interested in Canadian family policy The Changing Face of Canada Roderic P. Beaujot, Donald W. Kerr, 2007 Canadian society is rapidly changing This concise up to date volume masterfully captures this change Edited by two of Canada s leading demographers Roderic Beaujot and Don Kerr this book is an exciting entry in Canadian population studies drawing from a variety of disciplines including sociology geography economics history and epidemiology The Changing Face of Canada is an essential text for demography courses across the country Each reading has been meticulously edited and concisely ordered into five essential sections fertility mortality international migration domestic migration and population distribution population aging population composition Vital issues include the role of immigration in Canada s future the deteriorating economic welfare of immigrants globalization undocumented migration and unwanted refugees Aboriginal population change implications of unprecedented low fertility and the astonishing demographic transformation of Canadian cities Canadian Families Emily M. Nett, 1988 Continental Divide Seymour Martin Lipset, 2013-10-11 Seymour Martin Lipset s highly acclaimed work explores the distinctive character of American and Canadian values and institutions Lipset draws material from a number of sources historical accounts critical interpretations of art aggregate statistics and survey data as well as studies of law religion and government Drawing a vivid portrait of the two countries Continental Divide represents some of the best comparative social and political research available Childhood Socialization Gerald Handel, 2011-12-31 This collection of authoritative studies portrays how the A basic agencies of socialization transform the newborn human organism into a social person capable of interacting with others Socialization differs from one society to another and within any society from one segment to another Childhood Socialization samples some of that variation giving the reader a glimpse of socialization in contexts other than those with which he or she is likely to be familiar In the years since publication of the first edition of this book in 1988 childhood has become a territory open to broader sociological investigation In this revised edition Gerald Handel has selected and gathered new contributions that analyze the agents of socialization including family school and peer group and explore the influences of television and gender The balance of classical studies and more recent work reflecting changes in the family structure renews the centrality of this anthology for courses in the social psychology of children up to adolescence The book is divided into nine parts Socialization Individuation and the Self Historical Changes in Attitudes Toward Children Families as Socialization Agents Daycare and Nursery School as Socialization Agents Schools as Socialization Agents Peer Groups as Socialization Agents Television and its Influence Gender Socialization and Social Stratification and Inequality in Socialization While socialization continues on into the adolescent and adult years childhood socialization is primary essential in creating the human person and in shaping the identity outlook skills and resources of the evolving person Childhood Socialization is a dynamic volume that will be of continuing interest to students and scholars of family studies sociology psychology and modern culture Families in Global and Multicultural Perspective Bron B Ingoldsby, Suzanna D Smith, 2006 Publisher description Telling Tales Catherine A. Cavanaugh, Randi R. Warne, 2011-11-01 Women played a vital role in the shaping of the West in Canada between the 1880s and 1940s Yet surprisingly little is known about their contributions or the differences sex and gender made to the opportunities and obstacles women encountered Telling Tales contributes to the rewriting of western Canada's past by integrating women into the shifting power matrix of class race and gender that undergirded its colonization and settlement This book covers a range of topics African American settlement on Vancouver Island prairie childbirth narratives and Mennonites as domestic servants are but three examples They focus on women of both minority and dominant cultures and reflect the West's characteristically mixed population Telling Tales challenges founding myths of the region and invites a retelling of the story of western Canadian colonization and settlement Immigration, Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada, 2019-01-21 Canada's history since its birth as a nation one hundred and fifty years ago is one of immigration nation building and contested racial and ethnic relations In Immigration Racial and Ethnic Studies in 150 Years of Canada Retrospects and Prospects scholars provide a wide ranging overview of this history with a core theme being one of enduring racial and ethnic conflict and inequality The volume is organized around four themes where in each theme selected racial and ethnic issues are examined critically Part 1 focuses on the history of Canadian immigration and nation building while Part 2 looks at situating contemporary Canada in terms of the debates in the literature on ethnicity and race Part 3 revisits specific racial and ethnic studies in Canada and finally in Part 4 a state of the art is provided on immigration and racial and ethnic studies while providing prospects for the future Contributors are Victor Armony David Este Augie Fleras Peter R Grant Shibao Guo Abdolmohammad Kazemipour Anne Marie Livingstone Adina Madularea Ayesha Mian Akram Nilum Panesar Yolande Pottie Sherman Paul Pritchard Howard Ramos Daniel W Robertson Vic Satzewich Morton Weinfeld Rima Wilkes Lori Wilkinson Elke Winter Nelson Wiseman Lloyd Wong
