The Canadian Political System Environment Structure Process:

The Canadian Political System Richard J. Van Loon, Michael S. Whittington, 1987 Political Support in Canada Richard A. Preston, E. Donald Briggs, 1983 All governments require popular support and in democracies this support must be maintained by noncoercive means This book analyzes the question of political support in Canada a country in which the maintenance of the integrity of the political community has been and continues to be in the words of the editors the single most salient aspect of the country's political life The nature of popular support is first considered in broad theoretical terms then from the standpoint of those agents most responsible for maintaining support in Canadian democracy then as influenced by particular issues and policies and finally as it affects and is affected by the separatist movement in Quebec The Canadian Political System Richard J. Van Loon, Michael S. Whittington, 1976 Canadian Health Care and the State Christopher David Naylor, 1992 Canada's state funded health care system is in trouble and fundamental questions are being raised about the connection between medicine and the public sector This collection of historical essays explores diverse aspects of medical care and ideology in their relation to the Canadian state and to parallel institutions such as the military

Jean Monnet and Canada Trygve Ugland, 2011-01-22 Jean Monnet 1888 1979 is often viewed as the chief architect of the European Coal and Steel Community which over time evolved into today's European Union Monnet spent his early years working as an agent for his father a cognac producer It was this experience that took him to Scandinavia England the United States and most importantly Canada where he was exposed to the country's unique form of federalism Drawing on a wide variety of empirical sources including unpublished documents correspondence and original historical data extracted from archives both in Canada and Europe Trygve Ugland's Jean Monnet and Canada argues that the extensive period of time Monnet spent in Canada between 1907 and 1914 had a formative influence on the achievements of his later years particularly on the institutional construction of Europe Police Powers in Canada University of Alberta. Centre for Constitutional Studies, 1994-01-01 The television spectacles of Oka and the Rodney King affair served to focus public disaffection with the police a disaffection that has been growing for several years In Canada confidence in the police is at an all time low At the same time crime rates continue to rise Canada now has the dubious distinction of having the second highest crime rate in the Western world How did this state of affairs come about What do we want from our police How do we achieve policing that is consistent with the Charter of Rights and Freedoms The essays in this volume set out to explore these questions In their introduction the editors point out that constitutional order is tied to the exercise of power by law enforcement agencies and that if relations between the police and civil society continue to erode the exercise of force will rise a dangerous prospect for democratic societies The Hollow Crown Herman Bakvis, R.A.W. Rhodes, Patrick Weller, 2016-07-27 The first volume in a series of comparative studies within the ESRC's Whitehall Programme focuses on core executives in five parliamentary democracies comparing the Westminster model as in Australia Canada and Britain with the continental democracies of Germany and the Netherlands showing how political leadership is shackled by a vast array of constraints from globalisation to internal fragmentation and rationalisation making a heroic model of decisive political leadership hard to sustain Ringling in the Common Love of Good Kerry Badgely,2000-02-24 By the mid 1920s the UFO had gone into a period of decline from which it never recovered The promise of equality hoped for by UFWO members never materialized and the UFCC once a key component in the development of an alternative vision began to focus more on profits than on politics In Ringling in the Common Love of Good Kerry Badgley explores both the rise and the fall of the UFO focusing on the Ontario counties of Lambton Simcoe and Lanark He challenges the liberal capitalist interpretation that the movement was nothing more than a group of impatient Liberals as well as the Marxist view that the UFO consisted of self interested independent commodity producers Badgley argues that as the UFO broke free from hegemonic forces it developed alternative economic political and social visions but that it was these same forces combined with internal struggles and a conservative leadership that ultimately resulted in the decline of the movement as a vehicle for democratic change in Ontario

Ringling in the Common Love of Good Kerry Badgley,2000 Badgley archivist National Archives of Canada explores the rise and fall of the United Farmers of Ontario UFO a party that won a majority in the 1919 provincial election and formed a ruling coalition with the Independent Labor Party The author challenges views that the UFO was a group of impatient liberals or self interested commodity producers and instead argues that the UFO developed alternative economic political and social visions that led to internal struggles ushering in the demise of a movement fighting for democratic change Canadian card order number C99 9010468 Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Degrees of Freedom Keith G. Banting,George Hoberg,Richard Simeon,1997 The book s primary aim is to determine whether Canada and the United States have become more similar as their economies have become more integrated and their societies more diverse The authors conclude that although powerful economic and social pressures clearly constrain national governments and lead to convergence in some areas distinctive cultural and political processes preserve room for distinctive national responses to important problems of the late twentieth century Authors include Keith Banting Paul Boothe University of Alberta Marsha Chandler University of Toronto George Hoberg Robert Howse University of Toronto Christopher Manfredi McGill University George Perlin Queen s University Douglas Purvis Queen s University Richard Simeon and Elaine Willis consultant Toronto
