The Smoke that Thunders, 1979      Geomorphological Landscapes of the World Piotr Migon, 2010-01-22 Physical landscapes are one of the most fascinating facets of our Planet which tell stories about the evolution of the surface of the Earth This book provides up to date information about the geomorphology of the selected classic sites from around the world and shows the variety of geomorphological landscapes as moulded by different sets of processes acting over different timescales from millions of years to days The volume is written by nearly fifty geomorphologists from more than twenty countries who for many years have researched some of the unique sceneries on the planet The thirty six chapters present each continent of the world They describe landscapes of different origin so that the reader can learn about the complexity of processes behind the sceneries This is a useful reference book linking geomorphology with global initiatives focused on nature conservation

The Smoke That Thunders Guy Quigley, 1983-01-01      Nano Meets Macro Kamilla Kjolberg, Fern Elizabeth Wickson, 2019-10-10 This book explores the enormous diversity in social perspectives on the emergence of nanoscale sciences and technologies It points to four nodes of interest where nano meets macro in the making in the public eye in the big questions and in the tough decisions Each node draws attention to important lines of research and pertinent issues The book is designed for interdisciplinary teaching but the richness of issues and perspectives makes it of interest to all researchers practitioners and non academics wanting an introduction to social perspectives on nanoscale sciences and technologies

Waterfall Facts Sierra Layne, AI, 2025-02-18 Waterfall Facts explores the captivating world of waterfalls examining their formation geological impact and significance within Earth s broader river systems and environmental science These natural wonders aren t just scenic they are powerful agents of erosion carving landscapes over millennia For example the book details how the immense power of waterfalls like Niagara Falls shapes the surrounding geography through constant erosion and hydrological processes The book progresses from examining the geological processes that birth waterfalls such as fault lines and glacial activity to analyzing the hydraulic forces that dictate their erosive power It also dives into specific examples including Victoria Falls and Iguazu Falls highlighting their unique geological settings This approach helps readers understand how waterfalls reflect the dynamic interplay between geological forces climate and the hydrological cycle emphasizing their role as both destructive and creative forces in nature

The Smoke That Thunders Vincent Sperando, 2012-04-27 Chikankata is a Salvation Army mission in the middle of the barren Zambian bush While the missions volunteers enjoy some basic comforts provided by the Armys reservoir and utilities life for the villagers in the surrounding regions is harsh beyond imagination Its a life where children go without education and basic medical care where women live at the mercy of men and where men perpetrate violent acts against each other At the heart of this story is Dr Nicky Carter a woman who has clawed her way out of a Pittsburg ghetto to become a physician and volunteered her services to the Army for six months Observing the villagers through the scrutinizing eyes of a doctor she becomes horrified by what she sees by the brutality of Africa's poverty and is too distressed to notice the natural beauties of the country Nicky endeavors to find understanding and turns to the three men around her each from different worlds Little does she know of the futility of her search and the tragic betrayals and misunderstandings that await her The only man from her world is an older medical student from Canada Samuel who has a romantic vision of the African bush and only compounds Nicky's suffering The two other men who see the realities that she does come from vastly different worlds a local schoolteacher Musamba who betrays Nicky's trust and a blue collar handyman Mick whose misplaced humility keeps him from fully reaching out to Nicky Writing with a relentless and lyrical rhythm that brings home the realities of life in the Zambian bush the author conveys this world with a precision that could only come from someone with first hand experience and insight
