The Brief Sun:

Christian Solar Symbolism and Jesus the Sun of Justice Kevin Duffy, 2022-02-24 This pioneering study of Christian sun symbolism describes how biblical light motifs were taken up with energy in the early Church Kevin Duffy argues that living in a world of 24/7 illumination we need to reconnect with the sun and its light to appreciate the meaning of light in the Bible and Christian tradition With such a retrieval we can appreciate Pope Francis's insistence that like the moon the Church does not shine with its own light and assess the claim that the Eucharist is to be celebrated Ad Orientem that is towards the rising sun in the East Liturgy architecture poetry and the writings of saints and theologians such as Augustine Hildegard of Bingen Francis of Assisi and Thomas Traherne offer abundant resources for a much needed ressourcement While Christ was preached as the True Sun among sun worshipping Aztecs and the consecrated host was placed in a solar monstrance on Baroque altars in the modern era solar themes have been neglected In this accessible work the author suggests that we rebalance a spiritual symbolism that has over emphasised darkness and cloud at the expense of light and sun He proposes a creative retrieval of the traditional title of Christ as the Sun of Justice This title blends the personal the social and the cosmic ecological and speaks powerfully to a secularising era that contemporaries Friedrich Nietzsche and Thérèse of Lisieux both described as one where the sun does not shine

Post-Jungian Psychology and the Short Stories of Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut Steve Gronert Ellerhoff, 2016-02-22 In this book Steve Gronert Ellerhoff explores short stories by Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut written between 1943 and 1968 with a post Jungian approach Drawing upon archetypal theories of myth from Joseph Campbell James Hillman and their forbearer C G Jung Ellerhoff demonstrates how short fiction follows archetypal patterns that can illuminate our understanding of the authors their times and their culture In practice a post Jungian mythodology is shown to yield great insights for the literary criticism of short fiction Chapters in this volume carefully contextualise and historicize each story including Bradbury and Vonnegut's earliest and most imaginatively fantastic works The archetypal constellations shaping Vonnegut's early works are shown to be war and fragmentation while those in Bradbury's are family and the wholeness of the sun Analysis is complemented by the explored significance of illustrations that featured alongside the stories in their first publications By uncovering the ways these popular writers redressed old myths in new tropes and coined new narrative elements for hopes and fears born of their era the book reveals a fresh method which can be applied to all imaginative short stories increasing understanding and critical engagement Post Jungian Psychology and the Short Stories of Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut is an important text for a number of fields from Jungian and Post Jungian studies to short story theories and American studies to Bradbury and Vonnegut studies Scholars and students of literature will come away with a renewed appreciation for an archetypal approach to criticism while the book will also be of great interest to practising depth psychologists seeking to incorporate short stories into therapy
