Kirkus Reviews on The Fever Kill Modernism in the Streets Marshall Berman, 2017-04-18 Essays tracing the intellectual life of a quintessential New York City writer and thinker Marshall Berman was one of the great urbanists and Marxist cultural critics of the twentieth and twenty first centuries and his brilliant nearly sui generis book All That Is Solid Melts Into Air is a masterpiece of the literature on modernism But like many New York intellectuals the essay was his characteristic form accommodating his multifarious interests and expressing his protean searching exuberant mind This collection includes early essays from and on the radical 60s on New York City on literary figures from Kafka to Pamuk and late essays on rock hip hop and gentrification Concluding with his last essay completed just before his death in 2013 this book is Berman's intellectual autobiography tracing his career as a thinker through the way he read the signs in the street Making Italian America Simone Cinotto, 2021-05-20 Fourteen cultural history essays exploring the relationship between Italian Americans consumer culture and the American identity How do immigrants and their children forge their identities in a new land And how does the ethnic culture they create thrive in the larger society Making Italian America brings together new scholarship on the cultural history of consumption immigration and ethnic marketing to explore these questions by focusing on the case of an ethnic group whose material culture and lifestyles have been central to American life Italian Americans As embodied in fashion film food popular music sports and many other representations and commodities Italian American identities have profoundly fascinated disturbed and influenced American and global culture Discussing in fresh ways topics as diverse as immigrant women's fashion critiques of consumerism in Italian immigrant radicalism the Italian American influence in early rock n roll ethnic tourism in Little Italy and Guido subculture Making Italian America recasts Italian immigrants and their children as active consumers who since the turn of the twentieth century have creatively managed to articulate relations of race gender and class and create distinctive lifestyles out of materials the marketplace offered to them The success of these mostly working class people in making their everyday culture meaningful to them as well as in shaping an ethnic identity that appealed to a wider public of shoppers and spectators looms large in the political history of consumption Making Italian America appraises how immigrants and their children redesigned the market to suit their tastes and in the process made Italian American identities a lure for millions of consumers Fourteen essays explore Italian American history in the light of consumer culture across more than a century long intense movement of people goods money ideas and images between Italy and the United States a diasporic exchange that has transformed both nations Simone Cinotto builds an analytical framework for understanding the ways in which ethnic and racial groups have shaped their collective identities and negotiated their place in the consumers emporium and marketplace Grounded in the new scholarship in transnational US history and the transfer of cultural patterns Making Italian America illuminates the crucial role that consumption has had in shaping the ethnic culture and diasporic identities of Italians in America It also illustrates vividly why and how those same identities incorporated in commodities commercial leisure and popular representations have become the object of desire for millions of American and global consumers This compelling and innovative volume captures the complexities of the pivotal role of consumption in the historical formation of transnational Italian American taste positing a distinctive diasporic consumer culture that continues its importance today Richly interdisciplinary the collection represents an exciting new resource for scholars and students alike Marilyn Halter Boston University

Places of Invention Arthur P. Molella, Anna Karvellas, 2015-06-30 The companion book to an upcoming museum exhibition of the same name Places of Invention seeks to answer timely questions about the nature of invention and innovation What is it about some places that sparks invention and innovation Is it simply being at the right place at the right time or is it more than that How does place whether physical social or cultural support constrain and shape innovation Why does invention flourish in one spot but struggle in another even very similar location In short Why there Why then Places of Invention frames current and historic conversation on the relationship between place and creativity citing extensive scholarship in the area and two decades of investigation and study from the National Museum of American History's Lemelson Center for the Study of Invention and Innovation The book is built around six place case studies Hartford CT late 1800s Hollywood CA 1930s Medical Alley MN 1950s Bronx NY 1970s Silicon Valley CA 1970s 1980s and Fort Collins CO 2010s Interspersed with these case studies are dispatches from three learning labs detailing Smithsonian Affiliate museums work using Places of Invention as a model for documenting local invention and innovation Written by exhibition curators each part of the book focuses on the central thesis that invention is everywhere and fueled by unique combinations of creative people ready resources and inspiring surroundings Like the locations it explores Places of Invention shows how the history of invention can be a transformative lens for understanding local history and cultivating creativity on scales of place ranging from the personal to the national and beyond

Lurianics Michael Brodsky, 2018-05-04 Lurianics tells the story of a youngish man one Isaac Luria namesake of one of the world's great Kabbalists who seeks to create a true work which will give his life a meaning that is uniquely beyond label Set on Manhattan's Upper West Side the novel anatomizes this unlikely hero's ambivalence racked relationships with a veritable cast of thousands all of whom have one thing in common a craving to derail his every attempt to get on with the job They include a smugly go getting kid brother a hyper articulate mystery woman and assorted bosses co workers composers and filmmakers living and dead ballet stars murdered doormen stuff strutting sparrows and honey locusts about to bloom But chaos does not always reign supreme and in the end every encounter plays its part in forcing Luria to confront the ultimate question Does he have the guts not just to erect his Valhalla any fool can do that but to erect it with the only building blocks worth a damn i.e. the very things befouling the path

A Proposed Program for Scenic Roads & Parkways United States. Department of Commerce, 1966 In April 1962 Executive Order 11017 and subsequent amendments established the Recreation Advisory Council comprised of the Secretaries of the Interior Agriculture Defense Commerce Health Education and Welfare the

Administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency and the Chairman of the Tennessee Valley Authority The council was commissioned among other things to provide broad policy advice on all important matters affecting outdoor recreation resources and to facilitate coordinated efforts among the various Federal agencies In 1964 the Council issued a policy statement Circular No 4 recommending that a national program of scenic roads and parkways be developed In this policy circular the Council identified certain elements to be considered in a comprehensive study of such a program and commissioned the Department of Commerce to conduct it
