The Cadence Of Grass:

The Cadence of Grass Thomas McGuane, 2003-05-13 Set on the majestic stage of Montana cattle country an unforgettable drama from the acclaimed author of Ninety two in the Shade and Cloudbursts involving blood money sex vengeance and a cross dressing rancher McGuane's sentences are like no one else's crisp and spare yet somehow baroque and perpetually balance the picaresque against the sublime The New Yorker Sunny Jim Whitelaw a descendent of pioneers and owner of a large bottling plant may have died but he has no intention of relinquishing control his will specifies that no one gets a cent unless his daughter Evelyn reconciles with her estranged husband Paul But Evelyn is a strong willed woman fiercely attached to the land whose horses transport her to a West she feels is disappearing while Paul is a suave manipulator without scruples intent on living well The Cadence of Grass is renewed evidence that McGuane is one of the finest writers we have capable of simultaneously burnishing and demolishing the mythology of the West while doing rope tricks with the English language
