The Cardinal:

Niccolò Ridolfi and the Cardinal's Court Lucinda Byatt, 2022-08-29 Niccol Ridolfi 1501-50 was a Florentine cardinal, nephew and cousin to the Medici popes Leo X and Clement VII and he owed his status and wealth to their patronage. He remained actively engaged in Florentine politics above all during the years of crisis that saw the Florentine state change from republic to duchy. A widely respected patron and scholar throughout his life, his sudden death during the conclave of 1549-50 led to allegations of poison that an autopsy appears to confirm. This book examines Cardinal Ridolfi and his court in order to understand the extent to which cardinalate courts played a key part in Rome's resurgence and acted as hubs of knowledge located on the fault lines of politics and reform in church and state, hospitable spaces that can be analysed in the context of entanglements in Florentine and Roman cultural and political patronage and intersections between the princely court and a more professional and complex knowledge and practice of household management in the consumer and service economy of early modern Rome. Based on an array of archival sources and on three treatises whose authors were closely linked to Ridolfi's court, this monograph explores these multidisciplinary intersections to allow the more traditional fields of church and political history to be approached from different angles. Niccol Ridolfi and the Cardinal's Court will appeal to all those interested in the organisation of these elite establishments and their place in sixteenth-century Roman society, the life and patronage of Niccol Ridolfi in the context of the Florentine exiles who desired a return to republicanism and the history of the Roman Catholic Church. The Cardinal's Daughter; a Novel, Etc Robert Mackenzie Daniel, 1847 The Cardinal's Treasure Herbert Schweikle, 2010-08-12 The Cardinal's Clock J. It begins with the wedding of Father Tom's mother Nola to her fiancé, former strip club owner Stu Landry. The two septuagenarian newlyweds have no sooner embarked on their honeymoon than Saint Clare's Parish plays host to the Cardinal Archbishop of Baltimore, Walter Knowland, making his periodic visit. It should be a welcome homecoming for the Cardinal who spent his high school years in Myerton. But there's a cloud hovering over the visit. A special state grand jury issued a report documenting decades of sexual abuse in the Archdiocese. While the report makes clear that the Archdiocese under Cardinal Knowland has mended its ways, he's bearing the brunt of the criticism. He's also received death threats. With this in mind, Helen assigns her newest officer, Gwen Tolson, who also happens to be the Cardinal's granddaughter, to his security detail. During a tour of the Unclaimed Blessings Thrift Store, a large urn falls from a loft, narrowly missing the Cardinal and injuring Gwen. That combined with the firebombing of the Archbishop's Residence in Baltimore convinces Helen that he's in danger. She begins to hunt for the person responsible. But then an elderly volunteer at the thrift store, Eliza Ross, is murdered. At first it looks like a robbery gone wrong. But it's soon clear to Helen that someone staged the scene to make it look like a robbery. This raises two questions: who'd want to kill her and why? In the midst of all this, Gladys goes into labor early and one of the triplets may not
