THE FOUNDATIONS

From their formation in 1971 at London's Imperial College to the sensational presentation of their 'Best Single of the Last 25 Years' award for 'Bohemian Rhapsody' Queen's early days are depicted with unseen archive footage, gripping video montages and the humorous reminiscences of their peers, predecessors and now famous fans.

From Jackie Stewart to Paul McCartney, they've all got a tale to tell. Early black and white Queen interviews are intercut with footage of their first Rainbow concert, first TV airplay, first Top Of The Pops appearance (Killer Queen) and video tapings of their early hits 'Keep Yourself Alive' and 'Liar' which have never been seen before.

Queen's visual interpretation of 'Bohemian Rhapsody' is uncontestedly acknowledged as the first important music video and this volume contains a comprehensive overview of the videos that have firmly placed Queen in the vanguard of the genre they kickstarted back in '75.

Vol 1 closes with a candid portrait of Queen at work in the studio which, condensed from the only session filming ever permitted during the band's studio career, unflinchingly depicts the techniques and tensions involved in the recording of one of their biggest hits.

Directed by 'The Torpedo Twins' Rudi Dolezal and Hannes Roeschner.

LEVEROLLERS IN THE MAKING

From the first outbreak of Queenmania on their 1974 Japanese tour to the band's performance in front of the world's largest audience at Rock Festival 325,000 in Rio De Janeiro 1985, this volume traces Queen's development as a live band with never before seen footage of many of the major shows. There is film of an early Earl's Court show, a rare early 80s Persian date and the tour on which Queen conquered America, featuring one of the first performances of 'We Will Rock You' and 'We Are The Champions' (filmed in Houston). Throughout there are hilarious excerpts - courtesy of Korean, Brazilian, American and Japanese TV - from the most out-to-lunch interviews with which the band have been confronted over the years, together with further comments and quips from famous names such as Jeff Beck, David Bowie and Ringo Starr.

DOWN IN GULF

Queen's appearance at Live Aid kicks off this part of the group's massive 1986 European tour. Following the tour visit from two sell-out shows in Wembley Stadium, via their first up to date live from Carnegie Hall, Queen's appearance at Live Aid is the final chapter in Queen's history. In its 15 minutes, Queen's performance is a triumph of rock and roll. In front of 100,000 fans at Wembley, an intimate picture emerges of life on the road. Footage of Queen preparing, diving, surviving and triumphing is intercut with the individual band members' recollections of the tour. The film, too, comments on their most cherished fans and anecdotes from the roadies, security men and promoters that make it all possible. The story of the pop world's greatest live band is told in a way that is both entertaining and enlightening. The film, which has been described as 'one of the greatest live band films in the history of the genre'.
