The New Apologists For Poetry:

The New Apologists for Poetry Murray Krieger, 1956 The New Apologists for Poetry was first published in 1956 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions The author's purpose is to clear the ground for a systematic aesthetics of poetry consistent with the insights of our most influential contemporary literary critics The book is concerned with those of the so called new critics who are trying to answer the need forced on them by historical and cultural pressures to justify poetry by securing for it a unique function for which modern scientism cannot find a substitute This volume provides intensive analyses of work by critics of several persuasions T E Hulme T S Eliot I A Richards John Crowe Ransom Yvor Winters Allen Tate and Cleanth Brooks and for purposes of contrast D G James R S Crane Elder Olson and Max Eastman Allen Tate the poet and critic writes Mr Krieger's book is the most searching in scholarship and the most profound in critical analysis of the existing books in this field Robert B Heilman critic and teacher comments The author's knowledge of a complex field and his mastery of the analytical techniques which he is applying to a chosen set of critical positions are very impressive He not only clarifies the positions of various contemporary critics by examining them in the light of the same set of general principles but also provides some helpful at times brilliant insights into the works of various critics from the Greeks up to the present He traces the history of concepts and thus establishes relationships among individual critics and critical schools

Toward a New Historicism Wesley Morris, 2015-03-08 Assessing major critics from Vernon Parrington to Murray Krieger Wesley Morris points the way to a new historicism He outlines traditional historicist interests in American literary theory and draws from them the foundation for a vital new study of literature As Mr Morris shows however the new historicism moves beyond necessarily using the most recent developments in linguistics anthropology psychoanalysis the psychology of perception and literary response to see the aesthetic relationship between the work and its context Originally published in 1972 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Poetry and Prayer Francesca Bugliani Knox, John Took, 2016-03-03 Interdisciplinary and ecumenical in scope Poetry and Prayer offers theoretical discussion on the profound connection between poetic inspiration and prayer as well as reflection on the work of individual writers and the traditions within which they stand An international range of established and new scholars in literary studies and theology offer unique contributions to the neglected study of poetry in relation to prayer Part I addresses the relationship of prayer and poetry Parts II and III consider these and related ideas from the point of view of their implementation in a range of different authors and traditions offering case studies from for example the Bible Dante Shakespeare and Herbert as well as twentieth century poets such as Thomas Merton Denise Levertov W H Auden and R S Thomas After the New Criticism Frank Lentricchia,2018-12-14 This work is the first history and evaluation of contemporary American critical theory within its European philosophical contexts In the first part Frank Lentricchia analyzes the impact on our critical thought of Frye Stevens Kermode Sartre Poulet Heidegger Sussure Barthes L vi Strauss Derrida and Foucault among other less central figures In a second part Lentricchia turns to four exemplary theorists on the American scene Murray Krieger E D Hirsch Jr Paul de Man and Harold Bloom and an analysis of their careers within the lineage established in part one Lentricchia s critical intention is in evidence in his sustained attack on the more or less hidden formalist premises inherited from the New Critical fathers Even in the name of historical consciousness he contends contemporary theorists have often cut literature off from social and temporal processes By so doing he believes that they have deprived literature of its relevant values and turned the teaching of both literature and theory into a rarefied activity All along the way with the help of such diverse thinkers as Saussure Barthes Foucault Derrida and Bloom Lentricchia indicates a strategy by which future critical theorists may resist the mandarin attitudes of their fathers From Philosophy to Poetry Donald J. Childs,2001-01-01 Eliot is the rare case of a great poet who was also an academic philosopher and Professor Child s study examines the relationship between his writing of poetry and his philosophical pursuits in particular his lifelong occupation with the work of F H Bradley Henri Bergson and William James This account also considers the reception of Eliot s writing in philosophy and argues that the study of this work has significantly entered recent Eliot criticism Overall this volume provides a new reading of Eliot s famous poems his literary criticism and social commentary Renaissance Poetry Cristina Malcomson,2016-07-01 This book the first single volume to collate essays about sixteenth and seventeenth century poetry explores the remarkable changes that have occurred in the interpretation of English Renaissance poetry in the last twenty years In the introduction Cristina Malcomson argues that recent critical approaches have transformed traditional accounts of literary history by analysing the role of poetry in nationalism the changing associations of poetry and class status and the rediscovered writings of women The collection represents many of the critical methodologies which have contributed to these changes new historicism cultural materialism feminism and an historically informed psychoanalytic criticism In particular three diverse readings of Spenser s Bower of Bliss canto illustrate the different approaches of formalist close reading new historicist analysis of cultural imperialism and feminist interpretations of the relation of gender and power The further reading section categorizes recent work according to issues and critical approaches *The net of Hephaestus. American Criticism and Theory presents the reader with a comprehensive and critical introduction to the development and institutionalization of literary and cultural studies throughout the twentieth century and at the beginning of the twenty first. Focusing on the growth and expansion of critical trends and methodologies with particular essays addressing key figures in their historical and cultural contexts the book offers a narrative of change transformation and the continuous quest for and affirmation of multiple cultural voices and identities. From semiotics and the New Criticism to the identity politics of whiteness studies and the cultural study of masculinity this book provides an overview of literary and cultural study in North America as a history of questioning debate and exploration.

The Mirror and the Word Eric Williams, 1993-01-01 Williams has found an ingeniously indirect method for dealing with powerful and conservative voices in Trakl criticism a method that unburdens the debate of its weighty pomposity and elicits delight from readers familiar with the critical context.
