The Nemesis From Terra:

The Nemesis from Terra Leigh Brackett, 1961

The Nemesis from Terra Leigh Brackett, Edmond Hamilton, 1989

Includes two works of science fiction one relating the story of Rick prophesized conqueror of Mars the other a tale of an alien invasion of earth

The Stellar Legion Leigh Brackett, 2011-11-05 MacIan was a man with a secret and it had followed him to Venus and the Legion escape was impossible Excerpt Silence was on the barracks like a lid clamped over tight coiled springs Men in rumpled uniforms outlanders of the Stellar Legion space rats the scrapings of the Solar System sweated in the sullen heat of the Venusian swamplands before the rains Sweated and listened The metal door clanged open to admit Lehn the young Venusian Commandant and every man jerked tautly to his feet Ian MacIan the white haired space burned Earthman alone and hungrily poised for action Thekla the swart Martian low canaler grinning like a weasel beside Bhak the hulking strangler from Titan Every quick nervous glance was riveted on Lehn The young officer stood silent in the open door tugging at his fair mustache to MacIan watching he was a trim clean incongruity in this brutal wilderness of savagery and iron men Behind him the eternal mists writhed in a thin curtain over the swamp stretching for miles beyond the soggy earthworks through it came the sound every ear had listened to for days a low monotonous piping that seemed to ring from the ends of the earth The Nahali the six foot scarlet eyed swamp dwellers whose touch was weapon enough praying to their gods for rain When it came the hot torrential downpour of southern Venus the Nahali would burst in a scaly tide over the fort Only a moat of charged water and four electro cannons stood between the Legion and the horde If those things failed it meant two hundred lives burned out the circle of protective forts broken the fertile uplands plundered and laid waste MacIan looked at Lehn's clean university bred young face and wondered cynically if he was strong enough to do his job Lehn spoke so abruptly that the men started I'm calling for volunteers A reconnaissance in Nahali territory you know well enough what that means Three men Well Ian MacIan stepped forward followed instantly by the Martian Thekla Bhak the Titan hesitated his queerly bright blank eyes darting from Thekla to Lehn and back to MacIan Then he stepped up his hairy face twisted in a sly grin Lehn eyed them his mouth hard with distaste under his fair mustache Then he nodded and said Report in an hour light equipment Turning to go he added almost as an afterthought Report to my quarters MacIan Immediately MacIan's bony Celtic face tightened and his blue eyes narrowed with wary distrust But he followed Lehn his gaunt powerful body as ramrod straight as the Venusian's own and no eye that watched him go held any friendship

Queen of the Martian Catacombs

Leigh Brackett, 2011-12-10 Erik John Stark is sent on a perilous mission into the Valkis and encounters the Queen of the Martian Catacombs Excerpt The leader of the four men rode slowly toward the tor his right arm raised His voice carried clearly on the wind Eric John Stark he called and the dark man tensed in the shadows The rider stopped He spoke again but this time in a different tongue It was no dialect of Earth Mars or Venus but a strange speech as harsh and vital as the blazing Mercurian valleys that bred it Oh N Chaka oh Man without a tribe I call you There was a long silence The rider and his mount were motionless under the low moons waiting Eric John Stark stepped slowly out from the pool of blackness under the tor Who calls me N Chaka The rider relaxed somewhat He answered in English You know perfectly well who I am Eric May we meet in peace Stark shrugged Of course He walked on to meet the rider who had dismounted leaving his beast behind He was a slight wiry man this EPC officer with the rawhide look of the frontiers still on him His hair was grizzled and his sun blackened skin was deeply lined but there was nothing in the least aged about his hard good humored face nor his remarkably keen dark eyes It s been a long time Eric he said Stark nodded Sixteen years The two men studied each other for a moment and then Stark said I thought you were still on Mercury Ashton They ve called all us experienced hands in to Mars He held out cigarettes Smoke Stark took one They bent over Ashton s lighter and then stood there smoking while the wind blew red dust over their feet and the three men of the patrol waited quietly beside the Banning Ashton was taking no chances The electro beam could stun without injury Presently Ashton said I m going to be crude Eric I m going to remind you of some things Save it Stark retorted You ve got me There s no need to talk about it Yes said Ashton I ve got you and a damned hard time I ve had doing it That s why I m going to talk about it His dark eyes met Stark s cold stare and held it Science

Fiction and the Dismal Science Gary Westfahl, Gregory Benford, Howard V. Hendrix, 2019-12-10 Despite the growing importance of economics in our lives literary scholars have long been reluctant to consider economic issues as they examine key texts This volume seeks to fill one of these conspicuous gaps in the critical literature by focusing on various connections between science fiction and economics with some attention to related fields such as politics and government Its seventeen contributors include five award winning scholars five science fiction writers and a widely published economist Three topics are covered what noted science fiction writers like Robert A Heinlein Frank Herbert and Kim Stanley Robinson have had to say about our economic and political future how the competitive and ever changing publishing marketplace has affected the growth and development of science fiction from the nineteenth century to today and how the scholars who examine science fiction have themselves been influenced by the economics of academia Although the essays focus primarily on American science fiction the traditions of Russian and Chinese science fiction are also examined A comprehensive bibliography of works related to science fiction and economics will assist other readers and critics who are interested in this subject

Lord of the Earthquake Leigh Brackett, 2011-12-10 In the mysterious lands of Manoa Xacul claims he is a god but is he really the one causing the rumbling and fire spouting from the ground Excerpt It was stiflingly hot in the submarine s tiny cabin The steady pound of the screws was a throbbing ache Coh Langham his scarred hawk face set in lines of restless boredom stared out the port at the featureless muck that rolled endlessly away under the searchlight Krim he said abruptly you re crazy Simon Krim hunched like a shaggy black bull over the tiny control panel spoke without taking his eyes from the sea floor What s the matter Langham Has the thrill petered out Thrill Langham s strong brown body stripped to dungarees hitched angrily lower in the seat Yes he had expected a thrill He had hated seeing Krim again it took him back to a time he wanted to forget But Krim had asked him and he at a loose end and restless as always had accepted Hunting a sunken continent with a submarine was something he hadn't done before It looked exciting The excitement had resolved itself into three weeks of hellish monotony heat and inactivity and utter boredom Simon Krim grunted That's all you think about isn't it Thrills Your father was a hard working archeologist my best friend And you spend your life crashing planes and climbing mountains having adventures There was an edge to his voice his hairy body gleamed with sweat and there were tight lines around his mouth Coh Langham's blue eyes went hard under the scarlet cloth that held back his damp fair hair My life's my own Krim My father certainly never got much out of his

Shannach- The Last Leigh Brackett, 2011-06-10 An Earthman on Mercury stumbles into a long lost colony in a hidden air filled valley ruled by harsh Sunstone wielding hawk controlling lords and of course an alien overlord behind them

Child of the Sun Leigh Brackett, 2011-06-01 Eric Falken couldn't run any more At least he'd led the Hiltonists away from the pitiful starving holes where his people hid on the outer planets and barren asteroids and dark derelict hulks floating far outside the traveled lanes Excerpt Eric Falken stood utterly still staring down at his leashed and helpless hands on the controls of the spaceship Falcon The red lights on his indicator panel showed Hiltonist ships in a three dimensional half moon above behind and below him Pincer jaws closing fast The animal instinct of escape prodded him but he couldn't obey He had fuel enough for one last burst of speed But there was no way through that ring of ships Tractor beams criss crossing between them would net the Falcon like a fish There was no way out ahead either Mercury was there harsh and bitter in the naked blaze of the sun The ships of Gantry Hilton President of the Federation of Worlds inventor of the Psycho Adjuster and ruler of men's souls were herding him down to a landing at the lonely Spaceguard outpost A landing he couldn't dodge And then For Paul Avery a choice of death or Happiness For himself and Sheila Moore there was no choice It was death The red lights blurred before Falken's eyes The throb of the plates under his feet faded into distance He'd stood at the controls for four chronometer days ever since the Hiltonists had chased him up from Los Angeles back on Earth He knew it was because he was exhausted that he couldn't think or stop the nightmare of the past days from tramping through his brain hammering the incessant question at him How How had the Hiltonists traced him back from New York Paul Avery the Unregenerate recruit he went to get had passed a rigid psycho search which incidentally revealed the finest brain ever to come to the Unregenerate cause He couldn't be a spy And he'd spoken to no one but Falken Yet they were traced Hiltonist Black Guards were busy now destroying the last avenues of escape from Earth avenues that he Falken had led them through But how He knew he hadn't given himself away For thirty years he'd been spiriting Unregenerates away from Gantry Hilton's strongholds of Peace and Happiness He was too old a hand for blunders Yet somehow the Black Guards caught up with them at Los Angeles where the Falcon lay hidden And somehow they got away with a starving green-eyed girl named Kitty Not Kitty Falken muttered Kitty's Happy Hilton took Kitty thirty years ago On our wedding day A starving waif named Sheila Moore who begged him for help because he was Eric Falken and almost a god to the Unregenerates They got away in the Falcon but the Hiltonist ships followed Driven hopeless flight desperate effort to shake pursuit before he was too close to the Sun Time and again using precious fuel and accelerations that tried even his tough body Falken thought he had escaped But they found him again It was uncanny the way they found him Now he couldn't run any more At least he'd led the Hiltonists away from the pitiful starving holes where his people hid on the outer planets and barren asteroids and dark derelict hulks floating far outside the traveled lanes And he'd kill himself before the Hiltonist psycho search could pick his brain of information about the Unregenerates Kill himself if he could wake up He began to laugh a drunken ragged chuckle He couldn't stop laughing He clung to the panel edge and laughed until the tears ran down his scarred dark face

The Moon Men Edgar Rice Burroughs, 1925

The Beast-Jewel of Mars Leigh Brackett, 2011-06-10 The wise men of Caer Dhu were not so wise They found the secret of Shanga and they escaped their wars and their troubles by fleeing backward along the path of evolution Excerpt Burk Winters remained in the passenger section while the Starflight made her landing at Kahora Port He did not think that he could bear to see another man not even one he liked as much as he did Johnny Niles handle the controls of the ship that had been his for so long He did not wish even to say goodbye to Johnny but there was no avoiding it The young officer was waiting for him as he came down the ramp and the deep concern he felt was not hidden in the least by his casually hearty grin Johnny held out his hand So long Burk You've earned this leave Have fun with it Burk Winters looked out over the vast tarmac that spread for miles across the ochre desert An orderly roaring confusion of trucks and flatcars and men and ships ore ships freighters tramps sleek liners like the Starflight bearing the colors of three planets and a dozen colonies but still arrogantly and predominantly Terran Johnny followed his gaze and said softly It always gives you a thrill doesn't it Winters did not answer Miles away safe from the thundering rocket blasts the glassite dome of Kahora Trade City for Mars rose jewel-like out of the red sand The little sun stared wearily down and the ancient hills considered it and the old old wandering wind passed over it and it seemed as though the planet bore Kahora and its spaceport with patience as though it were a small local infection that would soon be gone He had forgotten Johnny Niles He had forgotten everything but his own dark thoughts The young officer studied him with covert pity and he did not know it Burk Winters was a big man and a tough man tempered by years of deep space flying The same glare of naked light that had burned his skin so dark had bleached his hair until it was almost white and just in the last few months his gray eyes seemed to have caught and held a spark of that pitiless radiance The easy good nature was gone out of them and the lines that laughter had shaped around his mouth had deepened now into bitter scars Nature & Science on the Pacific Coast ,1915 The Jewel of Bas Leigh Brackett,2011-11-05 A quest to the Mountain of Life to save what remained by humanity from the machines that were bent on destroying them excerpt Mouse stirred the stew in the small iron pot There wasn't much of it She sniffed and said You could have stolen a bigger joint We'll go hungry before the next town Uh huh Ciaran grunted lazily Anger began to curl in Mouse's eyes I suppose it's all right with you if we run out of food she said sullenly Ciaran leaned back comfortably against a moss grown boulder and watched her with lazy gray eyes He liked watching Mouse She was a head shorter than he which made her very short indeed and as thin as a young girl Her hair was black and wild as though only wind ever combed it Her eyes were black too and very bright There was a small red thief's brand between them She wore a ragged crimson tunic and her bare arms and legs were as brown as his own Ciaran grinned His lip was scarred and there was a tooth missing behind it He said It's just as well I don't want you getting fat and lazy Mouse who was sensitive about her thinness said something pungent and threw the wooden plate at him Ciaran drew his shaggy head aside enough to let it by and then relaxed stroking the harp on his bare brown knees It began to purr softly Ciaran felt good The heat of the sunballs that floated always lazy in a reddish sky made him pleasantly sleepy And after the clamor and crush of the market squares in the border towns the huge high silence of the place was wonderful He and Mouse were camped on a tongue of land that licked out from the Phrygian hills down into the coastal plains of Atlantea A short cut but only gypsies like themselves ever took it To Ciaran's left far below the sea spread sullen and burning cloaked in a reddish fog To his right also far below were the Forbidden Plains Flat desolate and barren reaching away and away to the up curving rim of the world where Ciaran's sharp eyes could just make out a glint of gold a mammoth peak reaching for the sky Mouse said suddenly Is that it Kiri Ben Beatha the Mountain of Life The Citadel of Lost Ships Leigh Brackett,2011-06-10
