Stepping Out With Grandma Mac:

Stepping Out with Grandma Mac Nikki Grimes, 2014-05-30 This series of 20 short poems by Nikki Grimes chronicle the relationship between a ten year old girl and her grandmother As the book progresses we come to recognize how alike these two strong minded outspoken characters are and how much they love each other Booklist Starred Review Cultural Journeys Pamela S. Gates, Dianne L. Hall Mark, 2010-08-16 As multicultural education is becoming integral to the core curriculum teachers often implement this aspect into their courses through literature However standards and criteria to teach and promote active discussion about this literature are sparse Cultural Journeys introduces pre service and experienced teachers to the use of literature to promote active discussions that lead students to think about racial diversity More than just an annotated list of books for children Pamela S Gates and Dianne L Hall Mark provide systematic guidelines that teachers can use throughout their careers to evaluate multicultural literature for students in grades K 8 At the same time the text leads the reader to a deeper understanding of how to use multicultural literature throughout the entire curriculum and not just during specially designated months or time periods With the example unit plans and extensive annotated bibliography this book is a valuable resource that pre service teachers will utilize when they begin teaching and in service teachers will reference repeatedly during their planning periods Books Children Love (Revised Edition) Elizabeth Laraway Wilson, 2002-10-30 A love for reading is one of the most precious gifts that we can give children It nurtures their imagination and creativity lets them explore other worlds and opens their minds to new truths and knowledge in appealing inspiring ways But how can we sort through thousands of children s books to discover the really worthwhile ones Elizabeth Wilson offers us a newly revised comprehensive guide to the very best in children s literature Just as in the original volume she comments on the tone and content of excellently written captivating books in over two dozen subject areas Hundreds of new titles have been added while retaining timeless classics and modern favorites all of which respect traditional values So that no matter what the children s ages are or whether they love fact or fiction you can trust these books to share things that you can believe in and kids will delight in African Traditional And Oral Literature As Pedagogical Tools In Content Area Classrooms Lewis Asimeng-Boahene, Michael Baffoe, 2013-12-01 For a long time many American educators and educational stakeholders have drawn their ideas for educational reforms from ideas generated in Europe and Asia for the changing demographics of America s diverse classrooms This book is therefore motivated by a bold attempt at advocating for the revision of existing pedagogic fora and the creation and addition of new fora that would provide for the inclusion of thoughts perspectives and practices of African traditional oral literature in the pedagogical tools of content area classrooms especially in North America The articles that are presented in this book provide theoretical frameworks for using African traditional oral literature and its various tenets as teaching tools They bring together new voices of how African literature could be used as helpful tool in classrooms Rationale for agitating for its use as ideal for pedagogic tool is the recurrent theme throughout the various articles presented The book explores how educators literacy educators learners activists policy makers and curriculum developers can utilize the powerful yet untapped gem of African oral literature as pedagogical tools in content area classrooms to help expand educators repertoire of understanding beyond the conventional wisdom of their pedagogic creed It is a comprehensive work of experienced and diverse scholars academicians and educators who have expertise in multicultural education traditional oral literature urban education children s literature and culturally responsive pedagogy that have become the focus of U S discourses in public education and teacher preparation This anthology serves as part of the quest for multiple views about our global village emphasizing the importance of linking the idea of diverse knowledge with realities of global trends and development Consequently the goal and the basic thrust of this anthology is to negotiate for space for non mainstream epistemology to share the pedagogical floor with the mainstream template to foster alternative vision of reality for other knowledge production in the academic domain The uniqueness of this collection is the idea of bringing the content and the pedagogy of most of the genres of African oral arts under one umbrella and thereby offering a practical acquaintance and appreciation with different African cultures It therefore introduces the world of African mind and thoughts to the readers In summary this anthology presents an academic area which is now gaining its long overdue recognition in the academia
