Steven Arnold A Retrospective:

István Szabó Susan Rubin Suleiman, 2024-01-25 István Szabó is one of the few Hungarian filmmakers to have earned a major international reputation over the past half century. This thoughtful and original book is the first examination of Szabó's contribution to contemporary thought engaging the troubled history of Europe in the 20th and 21st centuries. István Szabó's importance as a filmmaker lies not only in his attention to film's formal elements but in his deep and ongoing engagement with some of the most urgent ethical and existential questions of our time. With detailed analyses of István Szabó's major films from his 1960s works to his Academy Award for Best Foreign Film winner Mephisto and on through Szabó's last film in 2020 Final Report, Susan Rubin Suleiman focuses on four important questions pertaining to existential choice: to leave home or to stay in a communist country; To collaborate or not with an authoritarian regime; To affirm or to deny one's Jewishness in the face of antisemitism; To seek or to give up on community in the face of individual or national conflicts. Above all, Suleiman addresses the single most important philosophical question that haunts Szabó's work as it does that of many other Central European intellectuals and filmmakers of our time: That is, how do individuals attempt through the life choices they make or that are foisted on them to create a viable self in extreme historical situations over which they have no control.

Retrospective Index to Film Periodicals, 1930-1971 Linda Batty, 1975 Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2020-10-28 First published in 2004. With subjects drawn from politics, the arts, and popular culture, Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History includes 500 entries from a large team of expert international contributors. The geographical scope takes in the whole of the Western world. Includes fascinating information about little-known figures as well as cult icons from World War II to the present day. Music in Films about the Shoah Elias Berner, 2024-08-13 This book focuses on the aural and musical sphere of fictional audio-visual reconstructions of the Holocaust, a defining event in the history of the 20th century. Musicology has seen an increasing number of works on the function of film music and the construction of identity in media contexts in recent years. This project analyses the use of music in feature films about the Shoah. The analysis of the sound of Nazi violence as well as the escape from and resistance against it not only reveals a lot about the construction of the filmic characters' emotive states but also tells us more about our own relationship to the past. The author understands the soundtrack of these films as an affective mediator of time which connects filmic representations of the past with the present. Analysis focuses on the soundtracks of four films: Schindler's List, The Pianist, Taking Sides, and Inglourious Basterds. Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Vol.2 Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2005-07-25 Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History From World War II to the Present Day provides a comprehensive modern biographical survey of homosexuality in the Western world. Among those included are controversial political activists Peter Tatchell, Guy Hocquenghem, Harvey Milk, Pop icons David Bowie, k.d. lang, Boy George. Groundbreaking artists, writers, and filmmakers Pier Paolo Pasolini, Derek Jarman, David Hockney, Intellectuals who have shaped and changed the modern understanding of sexuality Michel Foucault Simone de Beauvoir Alfred Kinsey Over 500 entries clear informative and enjoyable to read build up a superbly thorough overview of gay and lesbian life in our time
