Transnational, National, and Personal Voices Elisabetta Marino, 2004 The growing heterogeneity of Asian American and Asian diasporic voices has also given rise to variegated theoretical approaches to these literatures This book attempts to encompass both the increasing awareness of diasporic and transnational issues and more traditional analyses of Asian American culture and literature Thus the articles in this collection range from investigations into the politics of literary and cinematic representation to digging into the past through literary archeology or analyzing how consequential bodies can be in recent literature by Asian American and Asian diasporic women writers The book closes with an interview with critic and writer Shirley Lim where she insightfully deals with these transnational national and personal issues Elisabetta Marino is Assistant Professor of English literature at the University of Rome Tor Vergata Her main fields of interest are Asian American and Asian British literature children's literature Italian American literature Bego Simal is Assistant Professor of English literature at the Universidade da Coruña in Spain She has published critical work on both Asian American literature and comparative cross ethnic studies

Still Life and Other Stories Junzo Shono, 2010-10-29 The 13 stories in this collection by Japanese writer Junzo Shono are linked by the daily life of a husband and wife and their children The stories are like the back of a tapestry where threads seem to cross randomly Births weddings school activities a suicide attempt all occur out of view Readers understand crucial events through ordinary days But these quiet tales have a cumulative power Toys birds and playing cards relate to human lives as portents parallels parodies The mother with her secret sorrows and the puzzled bemused father savor reveries and survive unexplained misfortunes Shono's vivid snapshot technique the layering of images events and conversations creates an effect Western readers may find more akin to an Ozu film crossed with haiku than to traditional short stories

Begin Here Rocio G. Davis, 2007-01-31 An analytically innovative work Begin Here widens the current critical focus of Asian North American literary studies by proposing an integrated thematic and narratological approach to the practice of autobiography It demonstrates how Asian North American memoirs of childhood challenge the construction and performative potential of national experiences This understanding influences theoretical approaches to ethnic life writing expanding the boundaries of traditional autobiography by negotiating narrative techniques and genre and raising complex questions about self representation and the construction of cultural memory By examining the artistic project of some fifty Asian North American writers who deploy their childhood narratives in the representation of the individual processes of self identification and negotiation of cultural and national affiliation this work provides a comprehensive overview of Asian North American autobiographies of childhood published over the last century. Importantly it also attends to new ways of writing autobiographies employing comics, blending verse, prose, diaries and life writing for children and using relational approaches to self-identification among others.

The Koreas Mary E. Connor, 2009-06-30 Asia in Focus The Koreas is the most complete, accessible and up to date resource available on both North Korea and South Korea. Asia in Focus The Koreas presents an authoritative and unprecedented look at the contrasts and similarities between the history, geography, politics, economy, culture and society of North Korea and South Korea. It offers a wealth of new insights into North Korean life as well as extensive explorations of Korean music, arts, language, cuisine and popular culture including the Korean wave which began with the export of Korean television dramas to other parts of Asia and has spread South Korean culture around the world. Also included are sections on women's history and roles, class and ethnicity and a wide range of contemporary issues. For a deeper understanding of one of the most closely watched regions of the globe, this volume is a must.

The Contemporary Ensemble Duška Radosavljević, 2013-08-21 Dr Radosavljević has an excellent and extensive grasp of her subject and deep understanding of not only the history of these groups but how they function and how each contributes to the field of ensemble theatre. David Crespy, University of Missouri, USA. Questions of ensemble: what it is, how it works, are both inherent to a variety of Western theatre traditions and re-emerging and evolving in striking new ways in the twenty-first century. The Contemporary Ensemble draws together an unprecedented range of original interviews with world-renowned theatre makers in order to directly address both the former and latter concerns. Reflecting on the ensemble way of working within this major new resource are figures including Michael Boyd, Hermann Wndrich, Yuri Butusov, Max Stafford Clark, Elizabeth LeCompte, Lyn Gardner, Adriano Shaplin, Phelim McDermott and Emma Rice, representing companies including The RSC, The Berliner Ensemble, The Satirikon Theatre, Out of Joint, The Wooster Group, Kneehigh Theatre, Song of the Goat, The Riot Group, The Neo-Futurists, Shadow Casters and Ontroerend Goed. All 22 interviews were conducted especially for the collection and draw upon the author's rich background working as scholar, educator and dramaturg with a variety of ensembles. The resulting compendium radically re-situates the ensemble in the context of globalisation, higher education and simplistic understandings of text-based and devised theatre practice and traces a compelling new line through the contemporary theatre landscape.

Cuisine, Colonialism and Cold War Katarzyna J. Cwiertka, 2013-06-01 When you consider the size of Korea's population and the breadth of its territory, it's easy to see that this small region has played a disproportionately large role in twentieth-century history. The peninsula has experienced colonial submission at the hands of Japan, occupation by the United States and the Soviet Union, war and a national division that continues today. Cuisine, Colonialism and Cold War traces these developments as they played out in an unusual sphere: Korea's national cuisine, which is savored for its diversity of ingredients and flavor. Katarzyna J. Cwiertka shows that many foods and dietary practices identified as Korean have been created or influenced by its colonial encounters and she uncovers how the military and the Cold War had an impact on diet in
