Blacks in the White Elite Richard L. Zweigenhaft, G. William Domhoff, 2003-08-01 This extensively revised edition of Blacks in the White Establishment adds fifteen years to the life stories of the African Americans whose opportunities were dramatically changed by a nationally prominent educational opportunity program that provided scholarships for disadvantaged people of color to attend the same elite boarding schools that educate the children of wealthy white Americans Beyond tracing the individuals into middle age and expanding coverage of their careers with special attention to experiences in the corporate world a new chapter on their children's education and early careers gives the new edition a poignant and unusual intergenerational perspective Blacks in the White Elite shows why America is at a crucial juncture in relations between blacks and whites when advances made since the Civil Rights Movement could either continue or retrench depending on the decisions made by our governments communities and schools The voices of African Americans heard in this book bring home for the reader the everyday impact of national policy issues and debates on race and class in America

Shadows of My Past Marcey Oliver, 2011 This story is about my life from a child growing up on an island in the Caribbean to who I am today It describes my love for one man who did not have the foresight to reveal his love for me and who left me to go overseas without any commitments and who did not have any communication with me for months It further outlines how I dealt with my heartache and after feeling defeated how I turned to another man who pursued me and provided the security and peace I needed and whom I married This is a story of my life with my husband of thirty years The children we had and our travels and the great life and love we shared This is the story of my devastation when my husband died and my decision to return to University to fill the gap so I could go on with my life as I wanted no one else True love returned when my telephone rang in my home and at the other end of the line was my first love who I had not seen or heard from for thirty eight years how we renewed our acquaintances and realized just how much we were still in love with each other The pain and anguish was again experienced due to his indecisions unavailability and inability to make a firm commitment about our new relationship In this book are our conversations and letters I have written to him but never gave him our quarrels our sorrows and our visits and above all my frustration at his lack of commitment
